Bureaucracy and Rural Development in Malaysia Gayl D. Ness, Bureaucracy and Rural Development in Malaysia
Gayl D. Ness, 2023-04-28 Bureaucracy and Rural Development in Malaysia A Study of Complex Organizations in Stimulating Economic Development by Gayl D Ness offers an in depth analysis of how Malaysia stands out in Southeast Asia for its ability to successfully translate development plans into action This study explores how Malaysia s unique demographic balance and political circumstances fostered a robust public investment program that prioritized infrastructure education and rural development Unlike its regional counterparts Malaysia was able to mobilize administrative and financial resources effectively ensuring that development initiatives such as road building and land development were realized on the ground benefiting its economy and society Ness argues that Malaysia s success in stimulating rural development was not only due to well organized bureaucratic systems but also because of its strategic focus on balancing ethnic interests and prioritizing public investment This book explores the critical role of complex organizations in shaping Malaysia s economic landscape analyzing how development goals were formulated executed and adapted over time For readers interested in the dynamics of economic development and the role of bureaucracy in stimulating growth Bureaucracy and Rural Development in Malaysia provides valuable insights into a nation that defied regional trends to achieve sustained progress This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1967 Economic Planning and Social Justice in Developing Countries Ozay Mehmet, 2014-05-12 First published in 1978 this book was written at a time when belief was high in Western guided economic development of the emerging countries The success of Marshall Plan in war torn Europe generated a US led optimism that with generous inflows of aid and technical assistance the Third World could be won over in the Cold War The author s direct experience as a young academic economist in Cyprus Malaysia Uganda and Liberia led him to question this general optimism the reality on the ground in the developing world did not seem to match Western optimism Theories and blueprints made in the West did not fit the requirements of developing countries Higher production and better income distribution were inseparable twin objectives of developing nations That meant production of a higher national output must at the same time promote social justice Investment must create adequate jobs so that new entrants into rapidly expanding labor force could be gainfully employed Yet the dominant Western theories of development at the time in particular the Trickle Down Theory of Growth prescribed Growth First Distribution Later strategy Similarly Import Substitution Industrialization theories were emphasized at the expense of export led growth Dualistic Growth theories preached urban biased anti rural development This book was written as a rebuttal of such faulty theorizing and misguided professional technical assistance and the book s message is no less valid today than in the 1970 s

Museums, History and Culture in Malaysia Abu Talib Ahmad, 2014-10-10 During the half century following Malaysian independence in 1957 the country's National Museum underwent a transformation that involved a shift from serving as a repository for displays of mounted butterflies and stuffed animals and accounts of the colonial experience to an overarching national narrative focused on culture and history These topics are sensitive and highly disputed in Malaysia and many of the country's museums contest the narrative that underlies displays in the National Museum offering alternative treatments of subjects such as Malaysia's pre Islamic past the history and heritage of the Melaka sultanate memories of the Japanese Occupation national cultural policy and cultural differences between the Federation's constituent states In Museums History and Culture in Malaysia Abu Talib Ahmad examines museum displays throughout the country and uses textual analysis of museum publications along with interviews with serving and retired museum officers to evaluate changing approaches to exhibits and the tensions that they express or sometimes create In addition to the National Museum he considers museums and memorials in Penang Kedah Perak Selangor Kuala Lumpur Sabah Kelantan and Terengganu as well as memorials dedicated to national heroes such as former Prime Ministers Tunku Abdul Rahman and Tun Abdul Razak Hussein and film and recording artist P Ramlee The book offers rich and fascinating insights into differing versions of the country's character and historical experience and efforts to reconcile these sometimes disparate accounts Society and Bureaucracy in Contemporary Ghana Robert M. Price, 2023-07-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1975 Government and Society in Malaysia Harold A. Crouch, 1996 Consistently dominated by the Malay party UMNO which represents the largest ethnic group the Malaysian government requires the support of its Chinese Indian and East Malaysian minorities to retain control The need to appeal to a politically and ethnically divided electorate restrains the arbitrary exercise of power by the ruling coalition As a result the government responds to popular aspirations particularly since a split in the dominant Malay party in the 1980s Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia Meredith Weiss, 2014-10-17 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia offers a broad analytical survey of Malaysia It provides a comprehensive survey of significant topics in Malaysian politics economy and society today focussing on issues institutions and trends It is divided into four thematic sections which are all introduced by the editor Domestic politics Economics Social policy and social development International relations and security The volume brings together an international team of experts an interdisciplinary mix of forty contributors from Malaysia and elsewhere including many of the leading specialists on Malaysian affairs The chapters included in the volume form an accessible and fascinating window onto contemporary Malaysia They each introduce a different aspect of the Malaysian polity economy or society offering both historical perspective and a current assessment or investigation Designed for general readers and specialists alike chapters may be read individually each stands on its own or conjointly Up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous the Handbook will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Malaysian politics economics and society In Search of Southeast Asia David Joel Steinberg, David P. Chandler, William R. Roff, John R. W. Smail, Robert H. Taylor, Alexander Woodside, David K. Wyatt, 2021-05-25 No detailed description available for In Search of Southeast Asia The Role of the Public Bureaucracy in Policy Implementation in Five ASEAN Countries Jon S. T. Quah, 2016-02-12 Comparative analysis of the public bureaucracy s implementation of two ASEAN policies in Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Vietnam Issues In Public Policy And Administration In Malaysia: An Institutional Analysis Abdillah Noh, Nadia H Yashaiya, 2022-03-23 This book argues that there is nothing inherently stable persistent or enduring about institutions By examining the various issues facing the Malaysian bureaucracy and adopting an institutional analysis this book brings the point that institutions are disposed to change because they are fraught with tension due to the quality of institutions Using various examples it explains that such tension and change dynamics can come from institutional resources the manner in which resources are distributed to different actors the varying power configurations among institutional actors and the larger political economic and social environment that institutions operate in Accordingly in examining the various concerns of the Malaysian bureaucracy this book highlights the typologies of institutional change and the inherent tension over resources that exist among actors that makes reform attempts at times potentially problematic but not impossible New concerns in public policy and governance that are yet to be discussed widely in the Malaysian public administration literature are raised including issues on collaborative governance public service motivation and representative bureaucracy From British to Bumiputera Rule Shamsul A B, 1986 Based on two years of intensive fieldwork this detailed community study breaks new ground Combining anthropological and historical disciplines it deals with village politics amongst rural Malays growing oil palm and rubber This study traces the continuing influence of the colonial and post colonial state policies on contemporary rural development It shows that village political cleavages are not just the result of modern electoral practices introduced after World War II but are responses to politico economic events at the national and even international levels It examines not only inter party rivalry between the United Malays National Organization UMNO and Parti Islam SeMalaysia PAS but also the intra party politics of both organizations at the local level Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs (1789-1975), 1967 Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 1967 Malaysia R.S. Milne, K.J. Ratnam, 2014-01-14 First Published in 1974 Throughout this title two interweaving and interacting themes are apparent One is the changes resulting from the increasingly important role of politics and politicians in states which until 1963 had been colonies Politics is as it were superimposed on administration The other is the impact of the Federal Government From 1963 onwards Sarawak and Sabah were changing because they were new states A short bibliography includes a section on Malaya Malaysia which is necessary because this book studies a rather unusual form of the problem of political development as Sarawak and Sabah are not independent countries Spirits of Resistance and Capitalist Discipline, Second Edition Aihwa Ong, 2010-09-01 New edition of the classic ethnographic study of Malay women factory workers In the two decades since its original publication Spirits of Resistance and Capitalist Discipline has become a classic in the fields of anthropology labor gender and globalization studies Based on intensive fieldwork the book captures a moment of profound transformation for rural Muslim women even as their labor helped launch Malaysia's rise as a tiger economy Aihwa Ong's analysis of the disruptions conflicts and ambivalences that roiled the lives of working women has inspired later generations of feminist ethnographers in their study of power resistance religious upheavals and subject formation in the industrial periphery With a critical introduction by anthropologist Carla Freeman this new edition upholds an exemplary model of anthropological inquiry into cultural modes of resistance to the ideology discipline and workings of global capitalism This work remains powerful for its refusal to over simplify the complexities of export industrialization as a model for economic development and for its demonstration of the intimate dialectics of culture economy gender religion and class and the meaningfulness of place amid the swirling forces of global capitalism It opened up many of the questions that should continue to inspire our analyses of globalization today Indeed these questions are equally compelling for the reader returning to this work after twenty years and for the reader new to this text and to the intriguing and complex puzzles of globalization from the Introduction by Carla Freeman Essays on Literature and Society in Southeast Asia Tham (Seong Chee), 1981 Area Handbook for Malaysia Nena Vreeland, 1977 General study of Malaysia covers historical and geographical aspects population ethnic groups languages social structure religion living conditions education culture and mass media politics and government international relations the economic structure agriculture and industry trade the armed forces the administration of justice etc Bibliography pp 399 to 432 flow charts glossary maps and statistical tables
