Photography, Architecture, and the Modern Italian Landscape Lindsay Harris,2024-11-19 Photography Architecture and the Modern Italian Landscape explores the impact of photography at a pivotal moment in Italian architecture and culture focusing on the period between 1910 and the mid 1970s The book analyzes architectural photographs taken by Italian cultural figures who helped transform the Italian landscape into what we know today This study charts the oscillation of Italians ideas about what progress signified For example the book demonstrates that for writers and artists familiar with ancient ideas about civilization in 1910 the Roman countryside exemplified the contradictions inherent in primitivism On the one hand their photographs praised the region s primordial beauty yet their images condemned the crudeness of local living conditions More broadly it traces the history of primitivism and photography in Italy to show how cultural leaders alarm at the nation s pre modern living conditions their aspiration to modernize them and their grasp of photography to catalyze the process helped forge the modern Italian landscape its monuments housing infrastructure and natural environments At the same time it explores a vibrant period in photographic history when the advent of photographic reproduction as a commercial process developed into a medium with its own visual style capable of shaping ideas about modernity This new image making and reproduction technology empowered Italy s cultural leaders not simply to represent the Italian landscape through photography but to determine how it developed Of interest to researchers and students from a range of disciplines modern architecture photography and Italian studies this book demonstrates the power of art to transform society and to reformulate our ideas of progress

New Objectivity Sergiusz Michalski,2003 Drawing on new research from local archives as well as reinterpretations of published literature Power and the People describes how England remained governable between 1525 and 1640 despite the wars famine epidemics and dynastic and religious crises of the period The book surveys the mechanisms of authority at various levels from the street and alehouse to the manor and the royal court Maintaining order was a difficult challenge given that England had no standing army or professional police and Alison Wall investigates everything from the roles of village constables to the social cohesiveness that came from civic celebrations and participatory politics Her book provides students with a rich perspective on the social world and political culture of early modern England Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Autobiographical memory and photography have been inextricably linked since the first photographs appeared during the 19th century These links have often been described from each other's discipline in ways that often have led to misunderstandings about the complex relationships between them The Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography covers many aspects of the multiple relationships between autobiographical memory and photography such as the idea that memory and photography can be seen as forms of mental time and the effect photography has on autobiographical memory Covering key topics such as identity trauma and remembrance this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals sociologists psychologists artists researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students Reconsidering New Objectivity Margaret Elizabeth Hankel, 2017 In December of 1928 the Munich based publisher Kurt Wolff released a book with a new concept a collection of one hundred black and white photographs by Albert Renger Patzsch Titled Die Welt ist schön the book presented a remarkable diversity of subjects visually unified by Renger Patzsch's straight forward aesthetic While widely praised at the time of its release the book exists in relative obscurity today Its legacy was cemented by the negative criticism it received in two of Walter Benjamin's essays Little History of Photography 1931 and The Author as Producer 1934 This paper reexamines the book in within the context of its reception reconsidering the book's legacy and its ties to the New Objectivity movement in Weimar The Making of Great Photographs Eamonn McCabe, 2005 The Making of Great Photographs contains a collection of images by some of the most important photographers in history Eamonn McCabe discusses the techniques and approaches employed by the master in each image and how photographers can achieve similar effects using modern equipment A Concise History of Photography Helmut Gernsheim, 1986-01-01 Highly acclaimed scholarly volume examines technological advances and artistic development with nearly 300 examples of photographic art 285 black and white photos The Robot in the Garden Ken Goldberg, 2001-08-24 An interdisciplinary collection of essays on telepistemology the study of knowledge acquired at a distance The Robot in the Garden initiates a critical theory of telerobotics and introduces telepistemology the study of knowledge acquired at a distance Many of our most influential technologies the telescope telephone and television were developed to provide knowledge at a distance Telerobots remotely controlled robots facilitate action at a distance Specialists use telerobots to explore actively environments such as Mars the Titanic and Chernobyl Military personnel increasingly employ reconnaissance drones and telerobotic missiles At home we have remote controls for the garage door car alarm and television the latter a remote for the remote The Internet dramatically extends our scope and reach Thousands of cameras and robots are now accessible online Although the role of technical mediation has been of interest to philosophers since the seventeenth century the Internet forces a reconsideration As the public gains access to telerobotic instruments previously restricted to scientists and soldiers questions of mediation knowledge and trust take on new significance for everyday life Telerobotics is a mode of representation But representations can misrepresent If Orson Welles's War of the Worlds was the defining moment for radio what will be the defining moment for the Internet As artists have always been concerned with how representations provide us with knowledge the book also looks at teleroobotics potential as an artistic medium The seventeen essays by leading figures in philosophy art history and engineering are organized into three sections Philosophy Art History and Critical Theory and Engineering Interface and System Design Contributors Albert Borgmann Tom Campanella John Canny Judith Donath Hubert Dreyfus Ken Goldberg Alvin Goldman Oliver Grau Marina Gr ini Blake Hannaford Michael Idinopulos Martin Jay Eduardo Kac Machiko Kusahara Jeff Malpas Lev Manovich Maurice Merleau Ponty Eric Paulos Catherine Wilson The Structurist ,1999 The History of Photography Margaret Vallencourt,2015-07-15 A valuable resource for budding photographers and fans of the visual medium alike this volume traces the invention and early evolution and techniques of photography from daguerreotypes to early attempts at color The development of specific genres such as portraiture photojournalism and fine art photography is broken up with substantial sidebars that spotlight giants of the medium Blending historical narrative personal biographies and photographs illustrating the works being examined this book helps readers understand the rich and complex history of a relatively new visual art Fagus Annemarie Jaeggi,2000-08 The Fagus Shoe Last factory in Germany designed by Walter Gropius in 1911 was the first large structure to use a steel frame and a facade almost entirely of glass This revolutionary technique was a seminal point in modern architecture Photography Reinvented National Gallery of Art (U.S.),2016-10-04 Exhibition held at the National Gallery U S Washington D C September 30 2016 March 5 2017 of a private collection of thirty five works gathered by Meyerhoff and Becker produced by nineteen artists Cities and Photography Jane Tormey,2013-01-17 Photographs display attitudes agency and vision in the way cities are documented and imagined Cities and Photography explores the relationship between people and the city visualized in photographs It provides a visually focused examination of the city and urbanism for a range of different disciplines across the social sciences and humanities photography and fine art This text offers different perspectives from which to view social political and cultural ideas about the city and urbanism through both verbal discussion and photographic representation It provides introductions to theoretical conceptions of the city that are useful to photographers addressing urban issues as well as discussing themes that have preoccupied photographers and informed cultural issues central to a discussion of city This text interprets the city as a spatial network that we inhabit on different conceptual psychological and physical levels and gives emphasis to how people operate within relate to and activate the city via construction habitation and disruption Cities and Photography aims to demonstrate the potential of photography as a contributor to commentary and analytical frameworks what does photography as a medium provide for a vision of city and what can photographs tell us about cities histories attitudes and ideas This introductory text is richly illustrated with case studies and over 50 photographs summarizing complex theory and analysis with application to specific examples Emphasis is given to international contemporary photographic projects to provide provide focus for the discussion of theoretical conceptions of the city through the analysis of photographic interpretation and commentary This text will be of

Jae Emerling, 2013-03-01 Photography History and Theory introduces students to both the history of photography and critical theory From its inception in the nineteenth century photography has instigated a series of theoretical debates In this new text Jae Emerling therefore argues that the most insightful way to approach the histories of photography is to address simultaneously the key events of photographic history alongside the theoretical discourse that accompanied them While the nineteenth century is discussed the central focus of the text is on modern and contemporary photographic theory Particular attention is paid to key thinkers such as Baudelaire Barthes and Sontag In addition the centrality of photography to contemporary art practice is addressed through the theoretical work of Allan Sekula John Tagg Rosalind Krauss and Vil m Flusser The text also includes readings of many canonical photographers and exhibitions including Atget Brassai August Sander Walker Evans The Family of Man Diane Arbus Lee Friedlander Cindy Sherman Bernd and Hilla Becher Sebastiao Salgado Jeff Wall and others In addition Emerling provides close readings of key passages from some major theoretical texts These glosses come between the chapters and serve as a conceptual line that connects them Glosses include Roland Barthes The Rhetoric of the Image 1964 Susan Sontag Regarding the Pain of Others 2002 Michel Foucault on the archive 1969 Walter Benjamin Little History of Photography 1931 Vil m Flusser Towards a Philosophy of Photography 1983 A substantial glossary of critical terms and names as well as an extensive bibliography make this the ideal book for courses on the history and theory of photography The Waking Dream Maria Morris Hambourg, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1993 The 253 works in the exhibition many of them rare or unique and all of exceptional print quality have been culled from the more than five thousand that comprise the legendary but seldom exhibited Gilman Paper Company Collection the most important private collection of photographs in the world
