Albertus C. Van Raalte Jeanne M. Jacobson, Elton J. Bruins, Larry J. Wagenaar, 2001-03 A biography of A C Van Raalte 1811 1876 founder of a major settlement of Dutch immigrants to America It discusses the causes for emigration the hardships of travel to and arrival in a new land and the tensions between Americanization and maintenance of ethnic and religious heritage

Albertus and Christina Elton J. Bruins, 2004 Drawing on previously compiled genealogical information archival records and family letters and photographs the authors have worked diligently to set the record straight regarding the Van Raaltes ancestors and descendants as well as to provide a document that future historians and genealogists can build on Beginning with a brief biographical sketch of their lives the book then traces Albertus and Christina s ancestors and tells the story of each of their seven children who lived to adulthood and their respective descendants Also included is an account of what happened to the Van Raalte papers and homestead

Family Quarrels in the Dutch Reformed Churches in the Nineteenth Century Robert P. Swierenga, Elton J. Bruins, 1999 Volume 32 in the HSRCA series chronicles the internal quarrels that have occurred in RCA history particularly the landmark secessions that occurred in 1850 1857 and 1882 While exploring the unity and disunity that have characterized the RCA since the Dutch immigration to the United States this study also points out the righteous motivations that lay behind these struggles and shows how these historic quarrels have their counterpart in contemporary debates over the ordination of women and the church s acceptance of homosexuals

By Grace Alone Donald J. Bruggink, Kim N. Baker, 2004 The story begins in Europe with a brief history of the church out of which the Reformation grew The scene then shifts to New Amsterdam in 1628 where a miniscule church survived the English conquest and eventually grew into the Reformed Church in America By Grace Alone follows its story into the twenty first century In addition to the sequential story of the Reformed Church s development there are vignettes of people involved in events small and great from the diary of a frail young woman who survived near calamity at sea but ended her life at eighty one the widow of the president of Queen s College to the boy from a farm in Iowa who built the Crystal Cathedral The reader will also be helped by timelines in every chapter as well as a glossary an index and many illuminating illustrations

Hearing from Home Philippe Rygiel, Graham Squires, 2012-06-07 We are often told that our world is a world of transnational communities and diasporas Western states confronted with massive emigration have long been trying to keep in touch and control the ones who left and nurtured networks of information and identities Having long identified migrants as immigrants we do learn a lot through these pages looking at them as emigrants Transporting concepts like diaspora or transnationalism into the past also lead us to wonder what was exactly new about such things as transnationalism and the multiplication of diasporas Is it the world we live in or the tools we use to describe it or a bit of both Dealing with different people different times from 1820 to 1990 and different places the five historians gathered here challenge some of the assumptions of contemporary discourses They use parts of a theoretical framework designed to identify and name what is new and unprecedented in our world to shed light on previous migrant experiences and it actually works Going Dutch Joyce Diane Goodfriend, Benjamin Schmidt, Annette Stott, 2008-01-01 This volume investigates the place of Dutch history and Dutch derived culture in America over the last four centuries It considers how the Dutch have fared in America and it explores how American conceptions of Dutchness have developed from Henry Hudson's historic voyage to Manhattan in 1609 through the rise of Dutch design at the turn of the twenty first century Essays probe a rich array of topics Dutch themes in American arts and letters the place of Dutch paintings in American collections shifting American interests in Dutch art literature and architecture the experience of Dutch immigrants in America and the Dutch Reformed Church in America Going Dutch presents a much needed overview of the Dutch American experience from its beginnings to the present Contributors include Julie Berger Hochstrasser Willem Frijhoff Joyce D Goodfriend Hans Krabbendam Joseph Manca Nancy T Minty Mark A Peterson Christopher Pierce Judith Richardson Louisa Wood Ruby Benjamin Schmidt Robert Schoone Jongen Annette Stott Tity de Vries and Dennis P Weller Making It in America Elliott Robert Barkan, 2001-05-01 This collection of over 400 biographies of eminent ethnic Americans celebrates a wide array of inspiring individuals and their contributions to U S history The stories of these 400 eminent ethnic Americans are a testimony to the enduring power of the American dream These men and women from 90 different ethnic groups certainly faced unequal access to opportunities Yet they all became renowned artists writers political and religious leaders scientists and athletes Kahlil Gibran Daniel Inouye Zbigniew Brzezinski Thurgood Marshall Madeleine Albright and many others are living proof that the land of opportunity sometimes lives up to its name Alongside these success stories as historian Elliot R Barkan notes in his introduction to this volume there have been many failures and many immigrants who did not stay in the United States Nevertheless the stories of these trailblazers visionaries and champions portray the breadth of possibilities from organizing a nascent community to winning the Nobel prize They also provide irrefutable evidence that no single generation and no single cultural heritage can claim credit for what America is Pillar Church in the Van Raalte Era Michael De Vries, 2003 The Sesquicentennial of Dutch Immigration Association for the Advancement of Dutch American Studies. The Trouble with Post-Blackness Houston A. Baker Jr.,K. Merinda Simmons,2015-02-03 An America in which the color of one s skin no longer matters would be unprecedented With the election of President Barack Obama in 2008 that future suddenly seemed possible Obama s rise reflects a nation of fluid populations and fortunes a society in which a biracial individual could be embraced as a leader by all Yet complicating this vision are shifting demographics rapid redefinitions of race and the instant invention of brands trends and identities that determine how we think about ourselves and the place of others This collection of original essays confronts the premise advanced by black intellectuals that the Obama administration marked the start of a post racial era in the United States While the transcendent and post racial black elite declare victory over America s longstanding codes of racial exclusion and racist violence their evidence relies largely on their own salaries and celebrity These essays strike at the certainty of those who insist that life liberty and the pursuit of happiness are now independent of skin color and race in America They argue signify and testify that post blackness is a problematic mythology masquerading as fact a dangerous new race science motivated by black transcendentalist individualism Through rigorous analysis these essays expose the idea of a post racial nation as a pleasurable entitlement for a black elite enabling them to reject the ethics and urgency of improving the well being of the black majority
