Folklore, Culture, and Aging David P. Shuldiner, 1997-04-16 A resource guide by and about elders and the process of aging this volume provides a list of over 1 500 references all annotated covering a wide range of subject areas It is organized under such topics as Customs and Beliefs Narratives Traditional Arts Health and Healing and Applied Folklore and is further divided into regional and topical subheadings It also features works on methods and concepts in field research in folklore oral history and community studies a chapter on general works from other fields of interest as well as a chapter on films The introduction offers not only a description of the nature and role of elders as creators and carriers of culture but also a challenge to readers reflected in the broad range of materials cited defying both narrow conceptions of aging and the aged and limited notions about the full scope of expressive culture addressed by folklore studies Sexuality and the Elderly Bonnie L. Walker, 1997-05-12 This literature review was undertaken in order to determine what caregivers needed to know about elderly sexuality to determine the needs of elderly people related to their sexuality and to determine how caregivers could best assist them in meeting those needs In selecting materials to be annotated for this book the first priority was given to empirical studies Also included were articles by prominent practitioners and researchers interested in elderly sexuality literature reviews and books written for the lay population which are often cited in the professional literature In addition to seeking knowledge about elderly sexuality and understanding attitudes about sexuality this literature review sought information about measurement issues and measurement instruments frequently used in research within elderly populations Also of interest were investigations of educational and training programs involving caregivers Community-based Programs and Services for Aging Special-care Populations ,1995 Literature and Gerontology Robert E. Yahnke,Richard M. Eastman,1995-05-19 Annotated bibliography shows how literacy works autobiographical works novels plays poems and stories can convey the complex nature of growing old in diverse social and cultural contexts AAGE Newsletter ,1992
