British Imperial Air Power Alex M Spencer, 2020-06-15 British Imperial Air Power examines the air defense of Australia and New Zealand during the interwar period It also demonstrates the difficulty of applying new military aviation technology to the defense of the global Empire and provides insight into the nature of the political relationship between the Pacific Dominions and Britain Following World War I both Dominions sought greater independence in defense and foreign policy Public aversion to military matters and the economic dislocation resulting from the war and later the Depression left little money that could be provided for their respective air forces As a result the Empire s air services spent the entire interwar period attempting to create a strategy in the face of these handicaps In order to survive the British Empire s military air forces offered themselves as a practical and economical third option in the defense of Britain s global Empire intending to replace the Royal Navy and British Army as the traditional pillars of imperial defense

Paul Strassmann, 2008-06 Across six generations and two hundred years this book tells the story of a German Jewish family who emigrated from Rawicz Poland first to Prussian Berlin and finally to America In Berlin they found success in politics medical science theatre and aviation and considered themselves German patriots With the catastrophe of the First World War and its aftermath they suffered rejection threats and persecution as their fellow citizens became unhinged by Nazism forcing Strassmanns into exile abroad where they again made their mark and rebuilt successful careers This book is populated by extraordinary characters such as Wolfgang the convicted revolutionary of 1848 who nevertheless led urban reform by Ernst who directed the only liberal anti Nazi resistance movement and by Antonie a celebrated actress and transatlantic sports pilot Strassmann highlights both the large scale and the very personal dramas of this period in world history The book is enhanced by many photographs offering a fascinating document of the fate of a remarkable family A History of Technoscience David F. Channell, 2017-06-14 Are science and technology independent of one another Is technology dependent upon science and if so how is it dependent Is science dependent upon technology and if so how is it dependent Or are science and technology becoming so interdependent that the line dividing them has become totally erased This book charts the history of technoscience from the late nineteenth century to the end of the twentieth century and shows how the military industrial academic complex and big science combined to create new examples of technoscience in such areas as the nuclear arms race the space race the digital age and the new worlds of nanotechnology and biotechnology The Hidden Hindenburg Michael McCarthy, 2020-09-01 By the author of Ashes Under Water Lyons Press here is one of the great untold stories of World War II The Hidden Hindenburg at last reveals the cause of aviation s most famous disaster and the duplicity that kept the truth from coming to light for three generations It also finally catches up with a German legend who misled the world about the Hindenburg to bury his own Nazi connections Drawing on previously unpublished documents from the National Archives in Washington along with archival collections in Germany this definitive account explores how the Hindenburg was connected to the Dachau concentration camp a futuristic German rocket that terrified the Allies and a classified project that imported Nazi scientists to America after the war It took author Michael McCarthy four years to get to the bottom of this epic disaster in which the largest object civilization has ever managed to fly burnt up in less than one minute Along the way he

Placing Internationalism Stephen Legg, Mike Heffernan, Jake Hodder, Benjamin Thorpe, 2021-11-04 Exploring how modern internationalism emerged as a negotiated process through international conferences this edited collection studies the spaces and networks through which states civil society institutions and anti colonial political networks used these events to realise their visions of the international Taking an interdisciplinary approach contributors explore the spatial paradox of two fundamental features of modern internationalism First internationalism demanded the overcoming of space transcending the nation state in search of the shared interests of humankind Second internationalism was geographically contingent on the places in which people came together to conceive and enact their internationalist ideas From Paris 1919 to Bandung 1955 and beyond this book explores international conferences as the sites in which different forms of internationalism assumed material and social form While international permanent institutions such as the League of Nations UN and Institute of Pacific Relations constantly negotiated national and imperial politics lesser resourced political networks also used international conferences to forward their more radical demands Taken together these conferences radically expand our conception of where and how modern internationalism emerged and make the case for focusing on internationalism in a contemporary moment when its merits are being called into question Flight of the Titan George Rosie,2012-12-10 In the early hours of Thursday July 10 1919 hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers rushed out onto the streets and rooftops and gaped up into the sky as a great silver ship hundreds of feet long rolled slowly across the city Restaurants hotels theatres and bars emptied as people took to the street to gaze upwards The ship seemed to hover over the New York Times building in 42nd street before turning its bow to the east and heading off towards the Atlantic New Yorkers had never seen anything like it They were left to wonder as the thrum of the engines died away But it was no alien visitation The huge silver craft bearing a lion rampant across its bow was the Scottish built airship R34 manned by a 30 strong crew of World War I veterans and a stowaway cat A few days earlier the R34 had made the first ever east west flight across the Atlantic against powerful head winds and electrical storms The flight of the R34 was one of the great feats of British aviation and it has been shamefully forgotten but there is a wealth of information out there Some of it is in the diary kept by General Edward Maitland which was later published other material comes from the flight reports of the airship s officers crew diaries press interviews and technical information buried in the National Archives in Kew and in the records of the royal Aeronautical Society and the New York Times Weaving all of this together George Rosie paints a vivid picture of the great feats of early 19th Century aviation and one of which Scotland should be immensely proud History Today ,2002 Die großen Zeppeline Peter Kleinheins, Wolfgang Meighörner, 2007-12-31 über die glanzvolle Zeit der Zeppeline sind viele Bücher erschienen darin wird vorwiegend der Einsatz der Luftschiffe in Frieden und Krieg geschildert Nur wenige wissen dass die Baugeschichte der Zeppeline eine der faszinierendsten Phasen der modernen Technik ist Peter Kleinheins hat dieses Geschehen sachkundig aufgearbeitet und zusammengestellt Entstanden ist eine reich illustrierte Dokumentation in einer interessanten Mischform aus zeitgenössischen Berichten und hochwertigen Originalquellen Mit Erscheinen der Voraufage hat sich dieses Buch als Standardwerk etabliert Die Neuauflage wurde vom Direktor des Zeppelin Museums Friedrichshafen Dr Wolfgang Meighörner um einen Abschnitt zu neuen Technologien ergänzt Die Strassmanns Wolfgang Paul Strassmann, 2006-02-06 Die Familiengeschichte nimmt ihren Ausgang im polnischen Rawicz von wo aus 4 Brüder nach Berlin zogen wo sie eine berühmte Ärztedynastie gründeten Die Nachkommen setzten deren Lebenswerk fort bis die Nazis an die Macht kamen American Book Publishing Record ,2001 Choice ,2002
