Al Rasael:

SOCRATES Jasmine Fernandez, Dr C Upendra, Dr Amarjeet Nayak, Dr Ghasemali Kouchnani, Nadia Maftouni, Alexandros Schismenos, Dr Michelle Blakely, Dr Curtis R. Blakely, Rotimi Adeforiti, Gizachew W. Gifayehu, Prof. (Dr) Inderjeet Singh Sodhi, Dr. Prakash Chand Kandpal, Isha, Sisay Assemrie Temesgen, 2019-04-28 This issue of SOCRATES has been divided into three sections. The first section of this issue is English Literature. The paper authored by Jasmine Fernandez, Dr C Upendra and Dr Amarjeet Nayak explores the medical thriller Coma through a grotesque lens. This study provides us with the idea that grotesquery is employed as a template to translate meanings and interpretations of medical thrillers. Through multiple responses as elicited by the grotesque, these thrillers engage with readers differently and hence produce varied responses. The second section of this issue is Philosophy. The first paper of this section has been authored by Ghasemali Kouchnani and Nadia Maftouni, who explores the Semiotics of Love in Suhrawardi's Allegorical Philosophy. The paper concludes that the theme of Suhrawardi's stories is mystical love and the wayfarer loves God. This love is to be spiritual emotion rather than passionate love simply because on his way the seeker must overcome his own inner and outer senses. These perceptions are symbolized by ten towers, ten graves, ten flyers, ten wardens, five chambers and five gates. These are the allegories of perceptions, i.e. the five internal and the five external senses could be seen in Treatise on Towers, A Tale of Occidental Exile, The Simurgh's Shri! Cry, The Red Intellect and On the Reality of Love. The second paper of this section has been authored by Alexandros Schismenos. The paper represents an opinion that as a chimera, time travel is non-feasible and impossible. To support his claim, the author briefly outlines the origins of the time travel concept and its epistemological and metaphysical ontological conditions. If these conditions prove to be absurd, the logical impossibility of time travel will have been demonstrated. The third section of this issue is Political Science. The first paper of this section has been authored by Dr Michelle L. Blakely and Dr Curtis R. Blakely. This paper represents the first application of the Game theory to the field of penology, conceptualizing the relationship between prisons and prisoners as a game, which provides insight into the motivations, strategic behaviors and decision-making processes of its players. The second paper of this section has been authored by Rotimi Adeforiti, which tends to identify the factors responsible for the crises of integration in the Nigeria federal system. The paper concludes that the foundations of federalism were laid by the British, consciously or unconsciously, for the existence of Nigeria. The country subscribed to a federal system of government and had been practicing it. The problem facing the Nigeria federal system today, among others, is no longer amalgamation of the country but the interest of various elites or elites to be in the country. The third paper of this section has been authored by Gizachew Wondie Gifayehu, which attempts to analyse the development and practice of citizenship and citizenship rights in Ethiopia. The fourth paper of this section has been authored by Prof. Inderjeet Singh Sodhi. This paper deals with the current status of water management in India and its emerging issues and challenges. The fifth paper of this section has been authored by Dr. Prakash Chand Kandpal. This paper focuses on the development of sustainable cities highlighting the actions and initiatives undertaken by the Government of Delhi to combat the menace of pollution in Delhi The sixth paper of this section authored by Isha presents the concept of Public Private Partnership and also evaluates its progress in school education in India The paper concludes that the introduction of the PPP model in school education in India could help in the achievement of desired results as the payments are made by the government against the services delivered through the private sector But there is a risk sharing between both government and private sector which is helpful for the delivery of public services in an efficient manner However PPP in the education sector has a long way to go as the schools approved under PPP model in some states of India like Assam Bihar Himachal Pradesh Meghalaya Mizoram Nagaland Odisha Tripura and West Bengal are still not functioning The seventh paper of this section has been authored by Sisay Assemrie Temesgen This paper analyzes the moral acceptability of violent force and retaliation at the individual and community level and in the arena of national and international politics
