Alan Marshalls Australia:

The Complete Stories of Alan Marshall Alan Marshall, 1977 Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English
Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Jewish Antifascism and the False Promise of Settler Colonialism Max Kaiser, 2022-10-29 This book takes a timely look at histories of radical Jewish movements their modes of Holocaust memorialisation and their relationships with broader anti colonial and anti racist struggles Its primary focus is Australia where Jewish antifascism was a major political and cultural force in Jewish communities in the 1940s and early 1950s This cultural and intellectual history of Jewish antifascism utilises a transnational lens to provide an exploration of a Jewish antifascist ideology that took hold in the middle of the twentieth century across Jewish communities worldwide It argues that Jewish antifascism offered an alternate path for Jewish politics that was foreclosed by mutually reinforcing ideologies of settler colonialism both in Palestine and Australia The ALS Guide to Australian Writers Martin Duwell, Laurie Hergenhan, 1992 Alphabetically organised chronological listing of the primary works of each author as well as selected critical biographical and historical articles and reviews and interviews Material is drawn from the series Annual Bibliographies of Studies in Australian Literature published in Australian Literary Studies between 1964 and 1991 The Politics of Work Raelene Frances, 1993-11-23 This book focuses on the workplace in Australia to look at how and why the nature of work changed during the period from the late nineteenth century to World War II Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 , The Curriculum of the Body and the School as Clinic Kellie Burns, Helen Proctor, 2023-12-05 This collection brings together cutting edge research on the history of embodiment health and schooling in an international context The book distinguishes a set of educational technologies schooling practices and school based public health programmes that organise and influence the bodies of children and young people defining the curriculum of the body Taking a historical approach with a focus on the period in which mass schooling became an international phenomenon the book is organised according to four major themes The first positions the school as a modern clinical space followed by the second that explores programmes and curricula which influence the discipline of and care for the body The third section examines the role of the built environment on the organisation and experience of children s bodies and the final section outlines the pedagogies rules and routines that determine how the body is treated and experienced in school International and multidisciplinary in scope this unique collection is of interest to postgraduate students and researchers in education and public health as well as history policy studies and sociology The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature Elizabeth Webby, 2000-08-21 An indispensable reference for the study of Australian literature National Themes in Australian

Opera from Federation to the Bicentenary of European Settlement David Symons, 2024-12-06 This book is concerned with the emergence and pursuit of a defined national consciousnesses as shown in the choice of national subjects and settings in operas by Australian composers from the birth of the nation at Federation 1901 until the Bicentenary of European settlement in 1988 a second watershed date in its development There is presently no book that covers the overall development of Australian composed opera during this period Michael Halliwell's book National Identity in Contemporary Australian Opera Myths Reconsidered treats the operatic scene only after the Bicentenary The targeted readership is wide from academic and pedagogical undergraduate postgraduate and research to the informed general reader Special interest groups may include opera companies with the hope that it may encourage the performance of many neglected operas as well as the revival of the more notable ones treated in the book
