Alarms And Discursions:

Alarms and Discursions Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 1927 If Mr Chesterton had been permitted to have his own way this handful of papers would have been sent out under the title of Gargoyles Perhaps the publisher foresaw horror upon the faces of really unimaginative readers when once brought face to face with a monster title so it was changed to Alarms and discursions as indefinite and capable of possibilities as one could wish Fragments of futile journalism or fleeting impressions Mr Chesterton calls his essays This row of shapeless and ungainly monsters does not consist of separate idols cut out capriciously in lonely valleys or various islands These monsters are meant for the gargoyles of a definite cathedral I have to carve the gargoyles because I can carve nothing else I leave to others the angels and the arches and the spires Forty essays in which excellent common sense and brilliantly phrased wisdom mingle with sheer nonsense Alarms and Discursions G. K. Chesterton, 2016-03-31 This early work by G K Chesterton was originally published in 1911 Gilbert Keith Chesterton was born in London in 1874 He studied at the Slade School of Art and upon graduating began to work as a freelance journalist Over the course of his life his literary output was incredibly diverse and highly prolific ranging from philosophy and ontology to art criticism and detective fiction However he is probably best remembered for his Christian apologetics most notably in Orthodoxy 1908 and The Everlasting Man 1925 We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork Alarms and Discursions G K Chesterton, 2013-08-29 Alarms and Discursions by G K Chesterton Publisher Kindle E Book Edition ISBN 13 978 1 78379 133 0 Alone at some distance from the wasting walls of a disused abbey I found half sunken in the grass the grey and goggle eyed visage of one of those graven monsters that made the ornamental water spouts in the cathedrals of the Middle Ages It lay there scoured by ancient rains or striped by recent fungus but still looking like the head of some huge dragon slain by a primeval hero And as I looked at it I thought of the meaning of the grotesque and passed into some symbolic reverie of the three great stages of art Publisher Catholic Way Publishing This Paperback is the ideal small size of 5 x 8 Alarms and Discursions by G. Alarms and Discursions (Classic Reprint) G. K. Chesterton, 2017-11-28 Excerpt from Alarms and Discursions That far more serious problem I had posed to call this book Gargoyles traces of such an intention can still be detected i fear in the second essay Some time ago I tried to write an unobtrusive sociological essay called What Is Wrong Somehow or other it turned into a tremendous philippic called What s Wrong with the World with a photo graph of myself outside a photograph I swear I had never seen before and am far from anxious to see again Such things arise from the dul ness and languor of authors as compared with the hope and romantic ardour of publishers In this case the publisher provided the title and if he had provided the book too I dare say it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Victorian authors as Matthew Arnold Thomas Carlyle Cardinal John Henry Newman and John Ruskin Early life Chesterton was born in Campden Hill in Kensington London the son of Marie Louise nee Grosjean and Edward Chesterton He was baptised at the age of one month into the Church of England though his family themselves were irregularly practising Unitarians According to his autobiography as a young man he became fascinated with the occult and along with his brother Cecil experimented with Ouija boards Chesterton was educated at St Paul's School then attended the Slade School of Art to become an illustrator The Slade is a department of University College London where Chesterton also took classes in literature but did not complete a degree in either subject

Alarms and Discursions G. K. Chesterton, 2019-11-22 In Alarms and Discursions G. K. Chesterton demonstrates his mastery of the essay form weaving together wit philosophy and social commentary Comprising a series of thought provoking essays this collection delves into a range of topics from the trivialities of everyday life to profound inquiries about existence and morality Chesterton's distinctive literary style merges humor with earnestness encouraging readers to reconsider complacent views and societal norms Set against the backdrop of early 20th century England where industrialization and modernity were reshaping the cultural landscape Chesterton's reflections resonate with an ever timely critique of contemporary issues making the book a compelling exploration of human vulnerability and resilience G. K. Chesterton was an influential writer philosopher and theologian known for his keen advocacy of Christianity and his sharp critiques of modernism His diverse experiences as a journalist a faithful Catholic and a public intellectual deeply informed his worldview and writing Alarms and Discursions showcases Chesterton's ability to navigate complex themes with simplicity drawing inspiration from the paradoxes of life and the tension between faith and reason This book is highly recommended for readers who appreciate insightful discourse nestled within humor and profound philosophical inquiry Alarms and Discursions invites readers to engage with Chesterton's unique vision challenging them to rethink accepted norms while offering a refreshing perspective on the human condition

Alarms and Discursions G. K. Chesterton, 2021-02-06 But about this time the island was caught in a swarm of pirates and the shepherds had to turn themselves into rude warriors and seamen and at first they were utterly broken down in blood and shame and the pirates might have taken the jewel flung up for ever from their sacred fount And then after years of horror and humiliation they gained a little and began to conquer because they did not mind defeat And the pride of the pirates went sick within them after a few unexpected foils and at last the invasion rolled back into the empty seas and the island was delivered And for some reason after this men began to talk quite differently about the temple and the sun Some indeed said You must not touch the temple it is classical it is perfect since it admits no imperfections But the others answered In that it differs from the sun that shines on the evil and the good and on mud and monsters everywhere The temple is of the noon it is made of white marble clouds and sapphire sky But the sun is not always of the noon The sun dies daily every night he is crucified in blood and fire Now the priest had taught and fought through all the war and his hair had grown white but his eyes had grown young

And he said I was wrong and they are right The sun the symbol of our father gives life to all those earthly things that are full of ugliness and energy All the exaggerations are right if they exaggerate the right thing Let us point to heaven with tusks and horns and fins and trunks and tails so long as they all point to heaven The ugly animals praise God as much as the beautiful The frog's eyes stand out of his head because he is staring at heaven The giraffe's neck is long because he is stretching towards heaven The donkey has ears to hear let him hear And under the new inspiration they planned a gorgeous cathedral in the Gothic manner with all the animals of the earth crawling over it and all the possible ugly things making up one common beauty because they all appealed to the god The columns of the temple were carved like the necks of giraffes the dome was like an ugly tortoise and the highest pinnacle was a monkey standing on his head with his tail pointing at the sun And yet the whole was beautiful because it was lifted up in one living and religious gesture as a man lifts his hands in prayer
