Alcatraz Island Memories:

Alcatraz Island Memories Donald J. Hurley, 1993 ALCATRAZ UNCHAINED Jerry Lewis Champion, Jr., 2012-04-27
ALCATRAZ UNCHAINED is a provocative insight rarely captured as firsthand experiences are shared by three of The Rock's actual prisoners. Ride an emotional roller coaster from grim tales of despair to fond stories of antics and then transition into a beautiful reflection of life's accounts for one little girl who fondly called the Island Home. Explore the history of Alcatraz Island from a profoundly different perspective. Places of Public Memory Greg Dickinson, Carole Blair, Brian L. Ott, 2010-08-02 Though we live in a time when memory seems to be losing its hold on communities, memory remains central to personal, communal, and national identities. And although popular and public discourses from speeches to films invite a shared sense of the past, official sites of memory such as memorials, museums, and battlefields embody unique rhetorical principles. Places of Public Memory: The Rhetoric of Museums and Memorials is a sustained and rigorous consideration of the intersections of memory, place, and rhetoric. From the mnemonic systems inscribed upon ancient architecture to the roadside accident, Dark Tourism in the American West Jennifer Dawes, 2019-08-12 This edited collection expands scholarly and popular conversations about dark tourism in the American West. The phenomenon of dark tourism—traveling to sites of death, suffering, and disaster for entertainment or educational purposes—has been described and, on occasion, criticized for transforming misfortune and catastrophe into commodity. The impulse, however, continues, particularly in the American West, a liminal and contested space that resonates with stories of tragedy, violent conflict, and disaster. Contributions here specifically examine the mediation and shaping of these spaces into touristic destinations. The essays examine Western sites of massacre and battle, such as Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site and the Waco Siege sites of imprisonment, such as Japanese American internment camps and Alcatraz Island, areas devastated by ecological disaster, such as Martin's Cove and the Salton Sea, and unmediated sites those sites left to the touristic imagination with no interpretation of what occurred there, such as the Bennet Arcane camp. Memories Set in Stone—How Visitors Make Sense of Memorials Larissa Hugentobler, 2025-09-30 In this open access book, Larissa Hugentobler explores the world of public memorials, highly visible and at times contentious media which communicate a nation's values and ideals, its public memory. By celebrating a selection of a nation's history, the memorial landscape has long rendered marginalized groups virtually invisible. This book focuses on two rare celebratory U.S. memorials in Washington, DC, dedicated to a member of a marginalized community, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The author explores how visitors experience the two cultural sites, including their narratives about King and the Civil Rights Movement. For a holistic understanding, Hugentobler combines analyses of visitor experiences on site and on Instagram with expert interviews and autoethnographies. This allows for insights into the importance of celebratory memorials to individuals from marginalized communities and why those memorials matter to visitors. By acknowledging that the memorial experience is not limited to the time and space of a visit, this book begins to answer the urgent question of the roles of the offline and online realms in commemoration and highlights how each can contribute to a memorial landscape that is meaningful to a variety of people
