Ambiguous Locks Roberta Milliken, 2014-01-10 It has long been said that a woman's hair is her crowning glory Indeed throughout history hair has remained an important cultural symbol of femininity In medieval art iconic images of long flowing locks can express sexuality and the cutting of a woman's hair often signals her feminine misbehavior Artists of all kinds in the Middle Ages used women's long hair to manipulate their audience's estimation of their female figures This interdisciplinary work explores the significance of women's hair in literature and art from the medieval period through 1525 putting into historical context the ways in which hair participates in construction of the female identity

The

Mystery of Existence John Leslie, Robert Lawrence Kuhn, 2013-04-22 This compelling study of the origins of all that exists including explanations of the entire material world traces the responses of philosophers and scientists to the most elemental and haunting question of all why is anything here or anything anywhere Why is there something rather than nothing Why not nothing It includes the thoughts of dozens of luminaries from Plato and Aristotle to Aquinas and Leibniz to modern thinkers such as physicists Stephen Hawking and Steven Weinberg philosophers Robert Nozick and Derek Parfit philosophers of religion Alvin Plantinga and Richard Swinburne and the Dalai Lama The first accessible volume to cover a wide range of possible reasons for the existence of all reality from over 50 renowned thinkers including Plato Aristotle Aquinas Descartes Leibniz Hume Bertrand Russell Stephen Hawking Steven Weinberg Robert Nozick Derek Parfit Alvin Plantinga Richard Swinburne John Polkinghorne Paul Davies and the Dalai Lama Features insights by scientists philosophers and theologians Includes informative and helpful editorial introductions to each section Provides a wealth of suggestions for further reading and research Presents material that is both comprehensive and comprehensible

Givenness and Revelation Jean-Luc Marion, 2016-03-24 Givenness and Revelation represents both the unity and the deep continuity of Jean Luc Marions thinking over many decades This investigation into the origins and evolution of the concept of revelation arises from an initial reappraisal of the tension between natural theology and the revealed knowledge of God or sacra doctrina Marion draws on the re definition of the notions of possibility and impossibility the critique of the reification of the subject and the unpredictability of the event in its relationship to the phenomenology of the gift This work begins and ends in the concept of revelation thus addressing the very heart and soul of Marion s theology concluding with a phenomenological approach to the Trinity that rests in the Spirit as gift Givenness and Revelation enhances not only our understanding of religious experience but enlarges the horizon of possibility of phenomenology itself

International Environmental Law, Policy, and Ethics Alexander Gillespie, 2014 This second edition of International Environmental Law Policy and Ethics revises and expands this groundbreaking study into the question of why the environment is protected in the international arena This question is rarely asked because it is assumed that each member of the international community wants to achieve the same ends However in his innovative study of international environmental ethics Alexander Gillespie explodes this myth He shows how nations like individuals create environmental laws and policies which are continually inviting failure as such laws can often be riddled with inconsistencies and be ultimately contradictory in purpose Specifically he seeks a nexus between the reasons why nations protect the environment how these reasons are reflected in law and policy and what complications arise from these choices This book takes account of the numerous developments in international environmental law and policy that have taken place the publication of the first edition most notably at the 2002 World Summit on Sustainable Development and the 2012 Rio 20 United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development Furthermore it addresses recent debates on the economic value of nature and the problems of the illegal trade in species and toxic waste The cultural context has also been considerably advanced in the areas of both intangible and tangible heritage with increasing attention being given to conservation wildlife management and the notion of protected areas The book investigates the ways in which progress has been made regarding humane trapping and killing of animals and how in contrast the Great Apes initiative and similar work with whales have failed Finally the book addresses the fact that while the notion of ecosystem management has been embraced by a number of environmental regimes it has thus far failed as an international philosophy Fifty Major Philosophers Kathryn Plant,Diane Collinson,2007-01-24 A comprehensive update of the best selling first edition this revitalized new text presents readers with a series of clear well written entries focusing on fifty of the most influential philosophers from the last two thousand years Chosen to present the traditional mainstream of European philosophy the text also provides a critical survey that meets the needs of readers seeking a broad basic understanding as well as a foundation for further philosophical enquiry Encompassing a wide range of ancient medieval and modern philosophers features of the second edition include new entries on Dewey Collingwood Popper Quine Merleau Ponty Ayer and Rawls a thorough revision of existing entries a complete update of the further reading section an expanded glossary the addition of an alphabetical table of contents and an index for ease of use Authoritative and highly readable this book is a vital reference tool for all those wishing to improve their understanding of some of the world s most fascinating intellectual figures Threads of Life Richard Freadman,2001-02 Many autobiographers share profound questions about human life with their readers questions like To what extent was my life imposed on me To what extent did I bring it about through particular choices and actions through the activity of my own will Indeed the issue of the will is central to autobiographical writing and some of the greatest autobiographies give extended consideration to the will its nature its powers its limitations the forms of freedom constraint and expression it finds in various cultures its role in particular human lives In this new study unprecedented in subject and scope Richard Freadman offers the first sustained account of how changing theological philosophical and psychological accounts of the human will have been reflected in the writing of autobiography and of how autobiography in its turn has helped shape various understandings of the will Early chapters trace narrative representations of the will from antiquity the Greeks and Augustine to postmodernism Derrida and Barthes with particular emphasis on late modernity s culture of the will Later chapters then present detailed and powerfully original readings of autobiographical texts by Louis Althusser Roland Barthes B F Skinner Ernest Hemingway Simone de Beauvoir Arthur Koestler Stephen Spender and Diana Trilling Freadman s interdisciplinary approach to autobiography and the will includes a theoretical defense of the view that autobiographers are in varying degrees agents in their own texts Threads of Life argues that late modernity has inherited deeply conflicted attitudes to the will Freadman suggests that these attitudes now deeply embedded in contemporary cultural discourse need reexamining In this he contends reflective autobiography has an important part to play Introducing Ethics Justin P. McBrayer,Peter J. Markie,2014 Introducing Ethics A Critical Thinking Approach with Readings combines guiding commentary and questions with a rich selection of concise carefully edited and accessible readings on ethical theory and contemporary moral issues This unique introduction shows students how to do philosophy by first analyzing texts identifying ethical positions and the arguments that support them and then evaluating the truth of those positions and the soundness of the arguments In doing so it provides students with a uniquely engaging introduction to ethics that also hones their critical thinking skills FEATURES A unique Unit 1 gives students the conceptual tools to do philosophy with coverage of logic arguments moral reasoning and reading and writing philosophy Extensive coverage of the three main areas of ethics metaethics normative ethics and applied ethics addresses issues often ignored by other texts including ethics vs science moral responsibility moral vs legal issues torture terrorism and more Unit and chapter introductions outline major themes and issues and explain why they matter Reading questions precede the essays and focus students studying on key points while discussion questions follow the readings and help students move into the evaluation phase Argument Reconstruction Exercises after each reading provide practice in identifying the premises and conclusions in the essays An Instructor's Manual with Test Bank on CD is available to adopters A Companion Website at www.oup.com/us/mcbrayer provides all the material contained on the CD along with student resources

The Mystic Heart Wayne Teasdale, 2010-10-06 Drawing on experience as an interreligious monk Brother Wayne Teasdale reveals the power of spirituality and its practical elements He combines a profound Christian faith with an intimate understanding of ancient religious traditions

Remembering the Unexperienced Stephen D. Campbell, 2020-11-16 This book argues that a helpful framework within which to interpret the paraenesis of Deuteronomy 4:1-40 can be constructed through interaction with the cultural memory interests of German Egyptologist Jan Assmann and the canonical approach of U.S. biblical theologian Brevard Childs By bringing Assmann's cultural memory concerns to bear on the world within the text Deuteronomy is brought into fruitful contact with questions from the field of sociology by asking these questions in interaction with the theologically rich formulation of canon offered by Childs's canonical approach Deuteronomy is interpreted as an authoritative witness to God for contemporary communities of faith As a result of this reading strategy the communal and trans-generational nature of covenant stands out This emphasis in turn influences the way Horeb is remembered by later generations and how that memory is transmitted from one generation to the next through ritual practice and the text of Scripture

The Second Half of Life Angeles Arrien, 2010-04 When you find the courage to change at midlife Angeles Arrien teaches a miracle happens Your character is opened deepened strengthened softened You return to your soul's highest values You are now prepared to create your legacy an imprint of your dream for our world a dream that can fully come true in The Second Half of Life Worki

Great Is the Lord Ron Highfield, 2008-08-15 In keeping with the classic Christian tradition Great Is the Lord sets out the doctrine of God in a way that illumines the mind moves the heart and stirs the soul to praise the triune God Ron Highfield introduces students ministers and others to the traditional doctrine of God held by the majority of the church from the second to the twentieth century God is triune loving merciful gracious patient wise one simple omnipotent omniscient eternal omnipresent immutable impassible and glorious Irenically challenging open theism and process theology Highfield shows that the classical doctrine of God actually preserves our confidence in God's love and his liberating action better than its opponents do This traditional doctrine Highfield argues grounds our dignity and freedom in the center of reality the trinitarian life of God Highfield's work maintains the highest intellectual standards throughout even as it offers a true theology for the praise of God

Consciences and the Reformation Timothy R. Scheuers, 2023-08-01 This book explores how John Calvin and his Reformed colleagues were forced to adjust their theories and expectations concerning oaths and the conscience in their encounter with the practical problem of how the sphere of private judgment i e the conscience should relate to the demands of civil and church leaders for confessional uniformity in the service of public reform The Modern Schoolman, 1966
