Basic Concepts In Christian Pedagogy:

Basic Concepts in Christian Pedagogy Jan Waterink, 1954 Basics of Christian Education Karen Tye, 2000-01-01 Congregations are always struggling with what quality Christian education is and how to build and maintain it In this concise and easy to use guide Karen Tye offers practical help addressing the vital areas that need attention when planning for and building a Christian education program Questions and exercises at the end of each chapter help pastors Christian educators seminary students and laity apply the information to their own unique setting building on the basics to renew and transform Christian Education Teaching Methods - From Modern to Postmodern Carlos C. Christian education Roberts, 2009-11 This book provides pastors professional teachers students of religious education or Christian education theological students and Sunday school teachers with methods of teaching the faith today and opportunities to reflect critically on the methods and approaches they use in the classroom in the changed cultural context of our postmodern world The book is the result of years of practical experience in the field of Christian education as a Director of Religious Education and head of a team involved in providing religious education training and producing teaching materials and textbooks for Sunday school and professional teachers of Christian education This book proposes the Herald model of church and model of Christian education as a very helpful model for postmodern culture Christian Education Robert E. Clark, Lin Johnson, Allyn K. Sloat, 1991-10-22 Whether in the home or in the church or in a Christian school the challenge of contemporary Christian educators is to meet the academic needs of students while remaining unswerving in adherence to biblical principles Christian Education Foundations for the Future introduces you to the basics of a healthy Christian education program then takes you beyond showing you how to develop a fresh innovative Christian education program that will revitalize your church home or Critical Perspectives on Christian Education Jeff Astley, Leslie J. Francis, 1994 school Challenging Concepts for Contemporary Christian Education Herbert W. Byrne, 2003-07 Worldviews and Christian Education W. Shipton, E. Coetzee & R. Takeuchi, 2014-04 In Worldviews and Christian Education editors W A Shipton E Coetzee and R Takeuchi have brought together works by experts in cross cultural religious education. The authors and editors have a wealth of personal experience in presenting the gospel to individuals with various worldviews that differ greatly from those held by Christians who take the Bible as authoritative They focus on the beliefs and issues associated with witnessing to seekers for truth coming from backgrounds as diverse and animism Buddhism Confucianism Hinduism Islam Marxism Taoism and postmodernism Back Cover Foundations of Education Matthew Bruce Etherington, 2014-06-20 Ideas about education have consequences This book edited by Matthew Etherington provides readers with ideas and insights drawn from fifteen international scholars in Christian thought within the fields of philosophy theology and education Each author responds to the philosophical historical and sociological challenges that confront their particular line of educational inquiry. The authors offer a view of Christian education that promotes truth human dignity peace love diversity and justice The book critically analyzes public discourse on education including the wisdom actions recommendations and controversies of Christian education in the twenty first century This timely book will appeal to those concerned with Christian perspectives on education Aboriginality gender history evangelism secularism constructivism purpose hope school choice and community

Christian Education Curriculum for the Digital Generation Jong Soo Park, 2015-02-16 This book is about exploring and presenting a model of digital based curriculum for Christian education suitable for the digital ways of learning communicating and thinking Park discusses the limitations of analog based curricula most of current curricula and necessities for digital oriented ones Then he provides a new model of curriculum curriculum as software Curriculum as software is a curricular framework for embracing digital culture like open flat network service centered management interactive communication and offline online hybrid learning space It consists of four spiral stages analysis design simulation and service In the process of designing units 4R Movement a new learning theory is utilized to encourage today s young people to construct their own knowledge after critically analyzing various resources of information 4R embedde courses are implemented in the four movements reflection reinterpretation re formation and re creation Foundational Issues in Christian Education Robert W. Pazmiño, 2008-09-01 For almost twenty years Foundational Issues in Christian Education has been a key text for many Christian education courses Its perceptive analysis coupled with clear writing make it a resource without peer In the book Christian education expert Robert Pazmi o guides readers through a comprehensive discussion of the interdisciplinary foundations of Christian education calling all Christian educators to reevaluate the fundamentals of their discipline A careful exploration of foundations writes Pazmi o is essential before specifying principles and guidelines for practice This updated edition includes interaction with professional developments over the past ten years and appendixes that assess the impact of postmodernism as an educational philosophy In addition each chapter includes points to ponder for personal reflection or classroom use Education, Religion and Society Dennis Bates, Gloria Durka, Friedrich Schweitzer, 2006-06-28 Education Religion and Society celebrates the career of Professor John Hull a leading figure in the transformation of religious education in English and Welsh schools and co founder of the International Seminar on Religious Education and Values He has also made major contributions to the theology of disability and the theological critique of the money culture Leading international scholars join together to offer a critical appreciation of his contribution to religious education and practical theology and explore the continuing debate about the role of religious education in promoting international understanding intercultural education and human rights The contributors also deal with indoctrination racism and relationship in Christian religious issues and examine aspects of the theology of social exclusion and disability This unique book includes a complete list of John Hull's writings up to the beginning of 2005 providing both an excellent introduction to contemporary issues of religious education in the West and the most complete critical account yet of his work Teaching for Spiritual Growth Perry G. Downs, 1994 Teaching for Spiritual Growth is a textbook that explains what it means to be spiritually mature and how churches can help people achieve spiritual growth Christian Education Lawrence O. Richards, Larry Richards, 1988 This is a book that relentlessly pursues defining the goals of Christian education and then offers a plan in keeping with those goals So many books in the field assume the goals and simply describe the methods Not so Larry Richards His biblical and theological analysis conveys an excitement that makes Christian education a mission not just a responsibility And still his approach is eminently practical insightful and motivational Christian Education Michael J. Anthony, 2001-09-01 Building on the success of his 1992 collection Foundations of Ministry over 17 000 sold Michael Anthony offers Introducing Christian Education to fill the need in the C E curriculum for an introductory foundations textbook one that provides an overview and understanding of the broad range of subjects included in C E for college and seminary use Thirty one chapters are offered under the following sections 1 Foundations of C E 2 Developmental Perspectives of C E 3 Educational Implications of C E 4 Organization Administration and Leadership 5 C E Applied to the Family and 6 Specialized Ministries Contributors include Robert Pazmi o Jim Wilhoit Julie Gorman Klaus Issler and Ted Ward FROM THE FOREWORD BY LESTER C BLANK JR Introducing Christian Education will become a major resource text for church leaders and Christian education leaders who are professors of Christian education It will be a valuable resource in my personal library The desired outcome will be Psalm 78 72 He cared for them with a true heart and led them with skillful hands Children's Spirituality, Second Edition Kevin E. Lawson, Scottie May, 2019-06-13 The Society of Children's Spirituality Christian Perspectives launched in 2003 with its first conference held at Concordia University Chicago in River Forest Illinois An earlier edition of this book composed of chapters based on presentations from that conference was published in 2004 In 2018 a decision was made to revise this book from the inaugural conference updating some chapters and providing a new perspective on the ongoing work of the organization now called the Children's Spirituality Summit For example given the advances in what we are learning from brain research a chapter on this topic has been extensively updated What this revised volume provides is a collection of chapters offering theological perspectives social science research and insights on ministry practice about the spiritual lives of children how they relate to God how this relationship grows and what helps in promoting the spiritual formation and vitality of children in the home church and school This book offers twenty three chapters by professors graduate students social science researchers and ministry leaders from different denominational traditions addressing a wide range of issues in theory research and ministry practice with children This second edition offers much to learn from stimulate your thinking and improve your practice The Religious Education of Adults Leon McKenzie, R. Michael Harton, 2002 Increasingly adults do not see the church as a credible provider of quality religious education This revision by R Michael Harton of the classic work by Leon McKenzie addresses the foundational issues of what constitutes such an education for adults and how ministers and teachers can determine and understand the needs of learners It also offers ways to involve learners in the planning and execution of their own religious education A must read for ministers and seminarians who care about the religious education of adults Leon McKenzie is a retired professor of adult education at Indiana University where he also served as Director of Human Resource Development for Indiana University Hospital He received his Ed D in adult education from IU and has authored several books including Adult Education and the Burden of the Future and Adult Education and World View Construction He lives in Indianapolis R Michael Harton has authored several articles on local church adult education and contributed to A Church's Ministry to Adults and Handbook on Adult Religious Education A former congregational educator and seminary professor he now serves the Virginia Baptist Resource Center in Richmond Virginia and teaches adjunctively at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond He received his Ed D in adult education and instructional systems technology from Indiana University Adult Education in the Church Roy B. Zuck, Gene A. Getz, 1970 Foundations for Christian Education Eleanor Ann Daniel, John William Wade, 1999 Here is an excellent resource for your Christian Education program Daniel and Wade discuss the foundations of an effective Christian Education program and tackle organizational and administrative issues involved with such a program You will also find age specific information for all ages of learners If you are a Christian Ed Director or a teacher who wants to better understand the elements of a C E program that will make a difference in the lives of the teachers and the students this is the book for you Guiding Workers in Christian Education Frank Melbourne McKibben, 1953 Principles and Practices of Christian Education Robert W. Pazmiño, 2002-04-29 Principles and Practices of Christian Education shows teachers how they can use two important principles that stand behind all evangelical practices to make their education program stand out from all the others in its nurture of students First evangelical Christian education recognizes the need for conversion personal and corporate transformation that reconnects people to their Creator Second evangelical Christian education strives for connection making contact with people as unique individuals who live in a particular society and who need to know more about scripture In this book Christian education students learn that the work for which they prepare is a partnership with God to transform people Their central task is worship but through it and other activities they lead others to faith commitment and transformation of communities
