Basutoland Its Legends And Customs:

Basutoland Minnie Martin, 2014-03 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1903 Edition BASUTOLAND ITS LEGENDS AND CUSTOMS MINNIE MARTIN, 2024-01-01 Basutoland by way of Minnie Martin delves into the wealthy tapestry of the southern African vicinity imparting readers a profound exploration of the history tradition and landscapes of what was as soon as the British Crown Colony of Basutoland now known as Lesotho Martin's paintings unveils the complexities and unique sides of this landlocked state offering an in depth narrative that spans the historic social and geographical dimensions As an author Minnie Martin brings forth a meticulous and engaging account that transcends mere documentation weaving collectively the threads of Basutoland's past and gift Her narrative possibly captures the cultural nuances societal dynamics and possibly the effect of colonial influences on this vibrant state Readers can assume an immersive adventure guided with the aid of Martin's prose unveiling the splendor and challenges of Basutoland Whether navigating the intricacies of its historical evolution or illuminating the resilience of its human beings Basutoland is a testimony to Martin's commitment to maintaining and sharing the multifaceted tale of this Southern African gem This literary endeavor serves as each a tribute to the land's historical past and an invitation for readers to embark on a fascinating exploration of Lesotho's cultural and historic landscapes

Basutoland Martin Minnie, 2013-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy FAIRY TALES AND FOLKLORE FROM LESOTHO - 10 stories and taled from Basutoland Various Unknown, 2017-05-29 Within this little volume you will find 10 unique folk tales and children's stories from the African mountain Kingdom of Lesotho Here you will find the story of Takane who despite having an arranged marriage became a happy and devoted wife The tale of how Khosi chooses Polomahache Crocodile Child to be his wife and of Mokete and Morongoe the Snake and many more Included in these tales are stories of the Sun Chief evil Witchdoctors or Ngaka the equivalent of an Evil Wizard spells being cast and broken and beautiful maidens being set free There are also tales of malevolent chiefs who rule their people with a fist of iron not caring how much innocent blood they shed and how their comeuppance is delivered by the hero of the day These tales were collected by Minnie Martin wife of a Government Official who came to South Africa and Basutoland from England in 1891 To enable a better understanding of the people and their customs she began to study the language collected these tales and became fairly fluent in the language Because the Bantu peoples of Southern Africa had no written language it must be noted that the first people to record the various languages the Boers and the British did so phonetically writing the language as they heard it being spoken Unlike most European languages there has been no influence of Latin Greek or Arabic which makes the learning of those languages that little more difficult Here you speak the word the way it is written e g Ngaka is read as In gaa kah Takane as Tak aan eh Khosi as Koh see etc So sit back and enjoy this unique collection of tales customs and lore from a little known place unseen or heard in the West for many generations 33% of the net profit will be donated to SENTEBALE a charity supporting children in Lesotho orphaned by AIDS Scatalogic Rites of All Nations John Gregory Bourke,2023-11-08 In Scatalogic Rites of All Nations John Gregory Bourke presents a groundbreaking ethnographic exploration of human practices surrounding excretion across diverse cultures Merging rigorous research with a narrative style that is both engaging and informative Bourke delves into the often taboo subject of scatology contextualizing it within the broader scope of human behavior and social customs Not only does the work challenge prevailing notions of propriety in anthropology but it adeptly highlights how mundane practices can reflect profound cultural values and beliefs providing readers with an unprecedented lens through which to view human societies Bourke was a United States Army officer and a keen observer of human nature experiencing first hand the intricacies of various cultures during his military campaigns in the late 19th century His background in the military and exposure to indigenous practices informed his unique approach to anthropology allowing him to gather and record insights that had largely been overlooked by his contemporaries This book emerged from his fascination with the intersections of culture ritual and taboo rendering it a unique contribution to both ethnographic literature and the understanding of human societal norms Scatalogic Rites of All Nations is an essential read for anyone intrigued by anthropology cultural studies or the complexities of human behavior Bourke s scholarly work invites readers to reconsider the everyday practices that shape sociocultural identities challenging us to confront our perceptions of the habitual and the sacred Engaging enlightening and often humorous this book offers a fresh perspective on humanity s shared rituals making it a valuable addition to the library of both scholars and curious minds alike The Origin of Freemasonry: the 1717 Theory Exploded Chalmers Izett Paton,1871 Southern African Folktales J.K. In Search of the Swan Maiden Barbara Fass Leavy,1995-07-01 In her compendious study of the folktale of the runaway wife Leavy argues that the contradictory claims of nature and culture are embodied in the legendary figure of the swan maiden a woman torn between the human and bestial worlds The New York Times Book Review This is a study of the meaning of gender as framed by the swan maiden tale a story found in the folklore of virtually every culture The swan maiden is a supernatural woman forced to marry keep house and bear children for a mortal man who holds the key to her imprisonment When she manages to regain this key she escapes to the otherworld never to return These tales have most often been interpreted as depicting exogamous marriages describing the girl from another tribe trapped in a world where she will always be the outsider Barbara Fass Leavy believes that in the societies in which the tale and its variants endured woman was the other the outsider trapped in a society that could never be her own Leavy shows how the tale though rarely explicitly recognized is frequently replayed in modern literature Beautifully written this book reveals the myriad ways in which the folktales of a society reflect its cultural values and particularly how folktales are allegories of gender relations It will interest anyone involved in literary gender and cultural studies Luzac & Co.'s Oriental List, 1903 Oriental list (and book review quarterly). The friendship with William Blackwood resulted in Whibley's monthly Musings without Method from February 1900 to December 1929 a contribution which Eliot called one of the best sustained pieces of literary journalism that I know in recent times Northcliffe was a close friend as was Sir Frederick Macmillan of the publishing firm From 1906 until October 1920 Whibley contributed a Saturday column in Northcliffe's Daily Mail and for many years was a reader for Macmillan's His friendship and infatuation with Cynthia Asquith lives strongly in his letters although there is hardly any mention of his wife Ethel Much of his literary work was with biographical essays of literary and political persons After the death of Ethel in 1920 Whibley visited Brazil sending back reports to Cynthia Asquith Whibley contributed to Eliot's Criterion and also helped Eliot to acquire British citizenship Apart from his continued journalism Whibley worked as a consultant for the Royal Literary Fund later becoming a committee member In 1927 he married his Goddaughter Philippa Raleigh Whibley's death in France in March 1930 robbed the literary world of his biography of W E Henley Many of his letters deal with his literary work with the Macmillan's Blackwood's Magazine and his friendship with Cynthia Asquith and in some letters to Northcliffe he parades his Tory views He was a supporter of the Great War though little appears in his letters

Ethnographers Before Malinowski

Frederico Delgado Rosa, Han F. Vermeulen, 2022-06-10 Focusing on some of the most important ethnographers in early anthropology this volume explores twelve defining works in the foundational period from 1870 to 1922 It challenges the assumption that intensive fieldwork and monographs based on it emerged only in the twentieth century What has been regarded as the age of armchair anthropologists was in reality an era of active ethnographic fieldworkers including women practitioners and Indigenous experts Their accounts have multiple layers of meaning style and content that deserve fresh reading This reference work is a vital source for rewriting the history of anthropology

The Lion's Historian

Sandra Swart, 2025-05-06 Until the lion has a historian of his own the tale of the hunt will always glorify the hunter Sandra Swart takes up the challenge of that African proverb and with this book becomes the lion's historian As a species humans are not alone but our history has been written as though we were Swart insists on a multispecies retelling of our more than human past as she reconstructs a shifting series of significant interspecies relationships from quirky idiosyncratic connections to others that triggered major changes Embracing a radical interdisciplinarity informed by a background in history and environmental studies Swart combines the natural sciences with the social sciences oral history indigenous knowledge and archival research She blends current thinking about animal sentience agency cognition and emotion to offer a new way to understand animals roles in our shared history The animals in this book baboons cows elephants hippos horses jackals lions Nazi cattle okapi police dogs quagga sheep and white ants exemplify different facets of our shared past With this animal centric lens decades of research come together in a collection that takes animals seriously It is a book with claws and fangs tearing through conventional narratives to ask Are we prepared to move beyond the convention that history is the story of only our own species
