Resilience and Personal Effectiveness for Social Workers Jim Greer, 2016-07-12 Social work in the 21st century is facing great change and upheaval in a period of Government austerity measures From worsening pay rates to limited resources these are increasingly challenging times in which social workers practice It is therefore important that social work students are prepared for the realities of working within the modern social care system that they have the tools and skills to care for themselves and not just others This book is a straightforward guide on how to cope with the stress and pressures of today s social work environment by developing the right skills and knowledge It will help students learn from a very early stage how to be at their best from developing strategies to look after themselves and making the best use of supervision to the support they need to dealing with bullies and or difficult people all essential guidance on how to improve their health and mental wellbeing and prepare them to manage the challenges they will face Scientific and Technical

Aerospace Reports ,1981 Professional Leadership for Social Work Practitioners and Educators Anna

Fairtlough,2016-11-03 Professional leadership is increasingly recognised as being vital to enhancing social work s reputation and effectiveness Although professional leadership is one of the nine domains of the professional capability framework in England sometimes leadership is assumed to be the prerogative of managers rather than the responsibility of all professional social workers The participation of social workers and social work educators in shaping professional cultures within organisations through practice innovation practitioner research and workforce development is thus crucial Drawing on theories that challenge hierarchical concepts of leadership this book will enable experienced social work practitioners and educators to develop their professional leadership to more expert levels Throughout the book there are case examples illustrating examples of advanced professional leadership in action research highlights and exercises utilising self reflection action planning creative writing and imagery to provide practical support to the reader Social Work Today ,1976
