Crafts in the World Market June C. Nash,1993-01-01 The growing exchange of traditional craft objects in world markets has had a profound impact on the lives of the women and men who produce them These essays describe how the flow of goods from the industrial centers of the world to the colonies in earlier centuries is now met by a reverse flow as consumers seek the exotic and unique objects of handicraft production in Third World countries The book explores the paradox of how artisans continue to create traditional objects yet new sources of wealth and intensified production are transforming their traditional lifeways in areas such as the Oaxaca Valley the Yucatan Highland Chiapas and Guatemala

Earthly Things Karen Bray,Whitney Bauman,2023-10-03 Globalization and climate weirding are two of the leading phenomena that challenge and change the way we need to think and act within the planetary community Modern Western understandings of human beings animals and the rest of the natural world and the subsequent technologies built on those understandings have thrown us into an array of social and ecological crises with planetary implications Earthly Things Immanence New Materialisms and Planetary Thinking argues that more immanent or planetary ways of thinking and acting have great potential for re thinking human technology animal Earth relationships and for addressing problems of global climate weirding and other forms of ecological degradation Older and often marginalized forms of thought from animisms shamanisms and other religious traditions are joined by more recent forms of thinking with immanence such as the universe story process thought emergence theory the new materialisms NM s object oriented ontologies OOO s affect theory and queer theory This book maps out some of the connections and differences between immanent frameworks to provide some eco intellectual commons for thinking within the planetary community with a particular emphasis on making connections between more recent theories and older ideas of immanence found in many of the world s religious traditions The authors in this volume met and worked together over five years so the resulting volume reveals sustained and multifaceted perspectives on thinking and acting with the planet

Truth in the Making Robert C. Miner,2013-02-01 Is knowing a purely passive reception of something concrete outside the mind or when we know something are we creating something too Spanning more than 500 years of philosophical enquiry from the Middle Ages to the present day Robert Miner clarifies modern philosophical conceptions of knowing as making or constructing and contrasts this view with the theological understanding of knowing as a participation in divine creation This study demonstrates how creative knowledge has its roots in the theologies of Thomas

Aquinas and Nicholas Cusanus It explores the multiple ways in which this idea influenced the architects of modern philosophy most notably Francis Bacon Ren Descartes and Thomas Hobbes despite their secular stance Miner contends that well in advance of Kant one of these thinkers Gaimbattista Vico provided a remarkably succinct formulation of the metaphysical and epistemological core of modernity in his principle verum et factum convertuntur the true and the made are convertible In Truth in the Making Robert Miner challenges the standard assumption that Kant was the first thinker to conceive of knowing as constructive activity and shows how contemporary theology can reclaim a concept of knowing that is both creative and participant in divine wisdom

The Ambivalence of Creation Michael J. Puett,2002-08-01 As early as the Warring States period in China fourth through third centuries B C debates arose concerning how and under what circumstances new institutions could be formed and legitimated But the debates quickly encompassed more than just legitimation Larger issues came to the fore Can a sage innovate If so under what conditions Where did human culture originally come from Was it created by human sages Is it therefore an artificial fabrication or was it based in part on natural patterns Is it possible for new sages to emerge who could create something better This book studies these debates from the Warring States period to the early Han second century b c analyzing the texts in detail and tracing the historical consequences of the various positions that emerged It also examines the time s conflicting narratives about the origin of the state and how these narratives and ideas were manipulated for ideological purposes during the formation of the first empires While tracing debates over the question of innovation in early China the author engages such questions as the prevailing notions concerning artifice and creation This is of special importance because early China is often described as a civilization that assumed continuity between nature and culture and hence had no notion of culture as a fabrication no notion that the sages did anything other than imitate the natural world The author concludes that such views were not assumptions at all The ideas that human culture is merely part of the natural world and that true sages never created anything but instead replicated natural patterns arose at a certain moment then came to prominence only at the end of a lengthy debate

From the Subsidized Muse to Creative Industries: Convergences and Compromises Ketil Lølo, 2019-11-01 La difficoltà di collocare le attività economiche derivanti dalla cultura e dalla creatività in un contesto di coerenza ed intelligibilità ha impedito agli studiosi e ai responsabili delle politiche economiche di giungere a conclusioni condivise sui criteri di definizione di questo settore economico La mancanza di chiarezza nella terminologia raggiunse l'apice alla fine degli anni Novanta quando le industrie creative sostituirono le industrie culturali termine fino ad allora ampiamente diffuso e utilizzato nelle politiche culturali nazionali e internazionali Alla luce dell'intenso dibattito accademico sviluppato attorno alle industrie culturali e creative la prima parte di questo libro analizza tensioni dibattite e divergenze nelle definizioni nonché le peculiari caratteristiche di queste industrie Vengono inoltre illustrati gli effetti dell'applicazione di diversi schemi di classificazione del settore culturale e creativo sul suo peso economico e discusse le difficoltà che esso incontra nella competizione con altri settori per accedere ai programmi di finanziamento europeo La seconda parte del libro indaga le molteplici relazioni che le industrie creative installano tra di loro e con il contesto urbano I modelli di localizzazione delle imprese creative vengono analizzati in un caso di studio nella Città metropolitana di Roma Le distribuzioni spaziali dei diversi settori creativi sono studiate utilizzando punti georiferiti come input per un modello statistico basato sulla funzione K di Ripley Un'ipotesi nulla di distribuzione casuale viene verificata per le seguenti condizioni analizzando la distribuzione spaziale di ogni singolo settore creativo rispetto al resto delle attività creative confrontando a coppie i settori creativi per identificare quelli che rivelano attrazione reciproca confrontando per ciascun settore creativo i modelli di localizzazione delle attività core creative rispetto alla localizzazione delle rispettive funzioni di servizio L'analisi empirica ha mostrato che nella maggior parte dei casi i settori core creativi hanno la tendenza di raggrupparsi nello spazio a piccole distanze mentre i rispettivi settori di servizio sono dispersi internamente e disposti attorno al cuore I confronti reciproci hanno rivelato l'esistenza di cluster creativi urbani caratterizzati dalla coesistenza di diverse attività creative DOI 10.13134/9788832136807
