that setting Anthropocentrism and Its Discontents Gary Steiner,2005-11-06 Anthropocentrism and Its Discontents is the first ever comprehensive examination of views of animals in the history of Western philosophy from Homeric Greece to the twentieth century In recent decades increased interest in this area has been accompanied by scholars willingness to conceive of animal experience in terms of human mental capacities consciousness self awareness intention deliberation and in some instances at least limited moral agency This conception has been facilitated by a shift from behavioral to cognitive ethology the science of animal behavior and by attempts to affirm the essential similarities between the psychophysical makeup of human beings and animals Gary Steiner sketches the terms of the current debates about animals and relates these to their historical antecedents focusing on both the dominant anthropocentric voices and those recurring voices that instead assert a fundamental kinship relation between human beings and animals He concludes with a discussion of the problem of balancing the need to recognize a human indebtedness to animals and the natural world with the need to preserve a sense of the uniqueness and dignity of the human individual The Atheist's Primer Malcolm Murray,2010-04-06 The Athiest s Primer is a concise but wide ranging introduction to a variety of arguments concepts and issues pertaining to belief in God In lucid and engaging prose Malcom Murray offers a penetrating yet fair minded critique of the traditional arguments for the existence of God He then explores a number of other important issues relevant to religious belief such as the problem of suffering and the relationship between religion and morality in each case arguing that atheism is preferable to theism The book will appeal to both students and professionals in the philosophy of religion as well as general audiences interested in the topic Basic Writings of Saint Thomas Aquinas: Man and the conduct of life: Summa contra gentiles (III, chapters 1-113), Summa theologica, first part of the second part, Summa theologica, second part of the second part.
