Celebrating Romans Sheila E. McGinn, 2004 This book brings international Christian scholars together to celebrate Robert Jewett's lifelong interest in Romans by reviewing and significantly advancing five fruitful approaches to Paul's most influential work. James D. G. Dunn, Jeffrey B. Gibson, and Graydon F. Snyder show where the new approach to Pauline theology elucidates and corrects earlier theological appropriations of the letter to the Romans. William S. Campbell, James D. Hester, and Wilhelm Wuellner illustrate different models of rhetorical criticism. Peter Lampe and Carolyn Osiek show what can be gained by a social historical approach to Romans. Sheila E. McGinn, Elsa Tamez, and Pamela Thimmes demonstrate how a feminist hermeneutic clarifies key texts from Romans and challenges the interpretive tradition. Keith Augustus Burton, Lareta Halteman Finger, and L. D. Hurst create a conversation between Paul's letter and contemporary culture. An introduction provides context for these chapters by offering a helpful overview of recent trends in New Testament scholarship that are pertinent to Pauline studies, particularly the study of Romans. The authors, all established teachers in academic and church settings, recognize the need for analyses of the Bible that are substantial and scholarly but also intelligible to nonspecialists. The essays in Celebrating Romans will challenge the thinking of students and scholars alike, illuminating diverse methods of biblical analysis and fostering a deeper appreciation for and engagement with this crowning literary achievement of the apostle to the Gentiles. Contributors: Robert Atkins, Keith Augustus Burton, William S. Campbell, James D. G. Dunn, Lareta Halteman Finger, Jeffrey B. Gibson, James D. Hester, Frank W. Hughes, L. D. Hurst, Peter Lampe, Sheila E. McGinn, Carolyn Osiek, Graydon F. Snyder, Elsa Tamez, Pamela Thimmes, Wilhelm Wuellner, K. K. Yeo.

A Bee in the Church House G. Brown-Johnson, 2012-02-03 A Bee In The Church House The Sting of sin is a testimony of an overcoming victor exposing instances of usual drama or traumatic experiences that can be a root of bitterness as a hindering wound if not healed. The power of the Holy Spirit produces a walk in the newness of Christ by faith, eradicating a form of godliness. When tested or tried, we persevere in prayer, diligently seeking God through transformation by renewing the mind, righteously equipped to do that written in our manual for living now and the world to come. God's word is the Truth, revealing an evil spirit when holding the truth in unrighteousness. A modern day overview of the New Testament Book of Romans with an awareness of a lingering spirit among us that is suspect, existing as a spirit of anger, selfishness, deceit, bitterness, strife, buzzing, hissing, and at times appearing as a rattling pit demon, will enlighten, liberate, and empower the believer experiencing the searing pain of a church hurt. Guidance is to be received through this labyrinth of emotional and spiritual devastation as a powerful and insightful reflection of God's Word. Pastor Stephanie Stratford, Ekklesia Family Life and Worship Center, Brentwood, MD, helped to expose a systematic problem within the walls of our sanctuaries and has provided for each reader a Godly exit strategy that one must work at to be the man or woman of God that He is calling for in these last and evil days. Eric D. Barksdale, Senior Pastor, Teacher, Washington, DC, bares her soul in a very moving testimony that will stir your heart and provide insights for spiritual growth and development Reverend Welton Fields Jr PhD Herein is revealed to the reader that there is a turf battle Strong Holds in the church i e This is my song this is my seat this is my When these turfs are threatened the Bee will look to and use its sting seemingly in many cases to the detriment of the Believer L B West D R S

Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2002-04      Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997      A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter,2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus s physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus s Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease      Scripture, Cultures, and Criticism K. K. Yeo,2022-08-23 This collection of nineteen representative essays is a Festschrift written by former colleagues and students in honor of Prof Dr Robert Jewett 1933 2020 and his legacy Our hope is that future generations of Bible readers will find this textbook on biblical interpretation helpful for navigating through the strong winds of exegetical theological and hermeneutical methods Jewett s expansive research interests have inspired each author in this tribute volume each of whom has witnessed to the ways that helmsman Jewett has navigated through the often choppy ocean waters of biblical interpretation as well as the complex changing world of religion sacred texts films and popular culture psychology and sociology politics and Pauline studies Contributors Kathy Ehrensperger Brigitte Kahl Aliou C Niang Aida Besancon Spencer Lallene Rector T Christopher Hoklotubbe Najeeb T Haddad Robert K Johnston Frank Hughes Goh Menghun Hii Kong hock Lim Kar Yong Keith Burton Sheila McGinn Douglas Campbell Ellen Jewett William S Campbell Troy W Martin Zakali Shohe Christopher Deacy A Andrew Das Frederick Mawusi Amevenku      The History of Rome Theodor Mommsen,1874      The Soteriological Use of Call by Paul and Luke Ian Hussey,2018-07-12 The congruence of the theology of Paul and Luke is a matter of debate In particular according to many scholars the soteriologies of Paul and Luke are divergent This volume argues that the usage of language by both Paul and Luke suggests that it may be a common element in their soteriologies The author demonstrates that language is an important concept in the soteriologies of Luke and Paul and that although there are contrasts there are a number of points of comparison Crucial to this common understanding is the association of language with the OT covenants election covenant meals and an expectation of the eschatological banquet As a result of this prominent and consistent usage by Paul and Luke the language of deserves a higher place in the Christian understanding of salvation This has implications for Christian life and practice

Punishment and Freedom Devora Steinmetz, 2008-06-10 Punishment and Freedom offers a fresh look at classical rabbinic texts about criminal law from the perspective of legal and moral philosophy arguing that the Rabbis constructed an extreme positivist view of law that is based in divine command and that is related to the rabbinic notion of human freedom and responsibility

Women and Christian Origins Ross Shepard Kraemer, Mary Rose D'Angelo, 1999-02-11 This new collection of fourteen integrated original essays by prominent scholars and experienced teachers provides a comprehensive and accessible entree to current research on women and the origins of Christianity Engaging for both the interested reader and the specialist in religion Women and Christian Origins is sensitive to feminist theory and attentive to distinctions between the reconstruction of women's history in early Christian churches and ancient constructions of gender difference

Daniel 11 and the Medieval Divided Kingdoms Perry F. Loudon, In his detailed study of Daniel 11 the author seeks to extend the thematic parallelism between Daniel 2 7 8 and 9 to Daniel 10 12 Drawing on well established Adventist principles of interpretation and insights on Daniel 11 from the Spirit of Prophecy the author proposes that Daniel 11 follows the well established sequence of historical powers outlined in Daniel 2 7 8 He argues that the common Adventist interpretation in which the narrative moves forward in time to the crucifixion in v 22 only to then move back in time to the Maccabean alliance is without exegetical basis nor interpretive precedent within Daniel The author then provides a new interpretation of Daniel 11 23 29 arguing that this particular passage with its confrontation between the Kings of the North and the South represents the conflicts between the two competing and persecuting unions of church and state that followed imperial Rome i e Papal Rome and Byzantium This transition from imperial to papal Rome and to a persecuting union of church and state in Daniel 11 23 29 mirrors the same sequencing of powers found in Daniel 2 7 8 The author then moves to a commonly held Adventist interpretation particularly from the time of Louis W. R. onwards for vv 36 39 arguing that these verses represent the full flowering of papal arrogance and supremacy prior to the ending of the 1 260 year prophecy Particularly insightful is how the author sequences verses 23 39 against the flow of chapters in The Great Controversy between Christ and Satan by Ellen G. White The author arrives at v 40 interpreting as do many Adventist interpreters the time of the end as beginning at the end of the 1 260 year prophecy i e in AD 1798 but the author does not provide a detailed analysis of the conflict between the Kings of the North or the South in vv 40 45 While the identity of the KON is clear papal Rome backed by the military might of the West in general and the USA in particular the identity of the KOS remains more obscure although the author does indicate provisional backing for the atheism interpretation held commonly among Adventists since the writings of Louis Were and Dr Hans LaRondelle Detailed appendices provide helpful interpretive information to guide the reader in further study Throughout the book the author seeks to follow well established Adventist principles of interpretation which he helpfully outlines early on and a brief but detailed analysis of the commentary found in the Spirit of Prophecy He builds his case on the well established portrayal of a persecuting union of church and state that would arise after pagan Rome in Daniel 2 7 8 This approach lends credibility to the conclusions relating to the identities of the KON and the KOS in 11 23 39 Further work is required however to identify how and if the KOS in vv 40 45 is also a persecuting union of church of state or a secular equivalent if the well established patterns found earlier in Daniel are to be continued throughout Daniel 11 This book is a welcome and insightful addition to the ongoing prayerful reflection on this critical portion of eschatological prophecy within the wider SDA community Dr Conrad Vine President Adventist Frontier Missions Inc Exodus from Rome Volume 1 Dr. Todd D. Baker, 2014-05-01 Written by a former Roman Catholic of eighteen years and former candidate for the Roman Catholic priesthood Dr Todd Baker objectively and honestly examines the grandiose claims of the Papacy and the Roman Catholic Church in the critical light of Scripture and the evidence of history to show where Rome has greatly erred This multi volume work provides a controversial overview on the basic doctrines distinctive of Roman Catholicism so the open Catholic can learn how these beliefs practices and traditions of Rome contradict Scripture and do not have the support of a consistent uniform history from the days of Jesus the apostles and the first three centuries of the early church and on With over 1 billion adherents to the Roman Catholic Church it is incumbent for the Bible believer to know the difference between the real Gospel of Scripture versus the Gospel of Rome and how they are not one and the same Gospel in the end In a day of man pleasing ecumenical compromise with Rome this book is sorely needed to remind the Protestant church that the real differences between Rome and the Bible have not changed since the Reformation and must be reiterated and defended today on the exclusive ground of Scripture alone being the supreme authority in faith and practice for every Christian believer Dr Todd D Baker is president of Brit Hadashah Ministries and Pastor of Shalom Shalom Messianic Congregation in Dallas Texas He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in biblical studies a Master of Theology degree from Dallas Theological Seminary and a Ph D in Philosophy and Apologetics from Trinity Seminary under the auspices of Liverpool University at Liverpool England He is the staff theologian and writer for Zola Levitt Ministries and has appeared on the television program Zola Levitt Presents several times With his extensive experience in Jewish evangelism he conducts Gospel outreaches to Israel three times a year

NEW TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-05-16 Here John advises us that loving one another is not an option or a suggestion it is a commandment John doesn't want any believer to become like Adam and Eve's firstborn Cain That happened because Cain was under the influence of Satan This is therefore a warning not to mess with the world So what if they hate us We are bound for everlasting life in the presence of God That's why death has no power over us And that s why if our thoughts do not tell us that we are guilty we will not be afraid to come to God We can pray to God and we can ask Him to help us He will give us what we ask Him for That is because we obey His commands and we do the things that please Him Furthermore we should all love each other because God makes us able to love other people Everyone who loves other people confirms our claim to be a child of God If anyone says clearly that Jesus is the Son of God God lives in that person And that person lives together with God We know the kind of love that God has for us That s why if we love God we will not be afraid of Him So how do we know that we love God s children We know it when we love God and we do what He tells us to do

The Case for Catholicism Trent Horn,2017-11-29 This is the most up to date comprehensive and thorough defense of the Catholic Church against Protestant objections in print This book is especially relevant as the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation draws near and discussion of the arguments made against the Church during that time in history receive renewed interest The Case for Catholicism answers arguments put forward by early Reformers like Luther and Calvin as well as contemporary defenders of Protestantism like Norm Geisler and R C Sproul It provides a meticulous defense of the biblical and historical nature of Catholic doctrines from Scripture and church history Finally in both answering Protestant objections to Catholicism and in providing evidence for the Faith The Case for Catholicism cites modern Protestant scholars who question Reformation assumptions and show how evidence from Scripture and church history support aspects of Catholic theology This book is divided into four sections with each answering a key question Christians have asked about the nature of their faith Those key questions are What is my authority What is the Church How am I saved Who belongs to the body of Christ The Case for Catholicism will become a reliable resource for any Catholic who desires a well researched readable and persuasive answer to Protestant arguments made against the Catholic faith

The Fate of the Apostles Sean McDowell,2024-12-17 The Book of Martyrs by John Foxe written in the sixteenth century has long been the go to source for studying the lives and martyrdom of the apostles While other scholars have written individual treatments on the more prominent apostles such as Peter Paul John and James there is little published information on the other apostles In The Fate of the Apostles Sean McDowell offers a comprehensive reasoned historical analysis of the fate of the Twelve disciples of Jesus along with the apostles Paul and James the brother of Jesus McDowell assesses the evidence for each apostle s martyrdom as well as determining its significance to the reliability of their testimony The question of the fate of the apostles also gets to the heart of the reliability of the kerygma Did the apostles really believe Jesus appeared to them after his death or did they fabricate the entire story How reliable are the resurrection accounts The willingness of the apostles to die for their faith is a popular argument in resurrection studies In this thoroughly updated new edition McDowell offers insightful scholarly analysis of this argument to break new ground within the spheres of New Testament studies Church History and apologetics

The Fate of the Apostles Dr Sean McDowell,2015-11-28 Sean McDowell offers a comprehensive historical analysis of the fate of the twelve disciples of Jesus along with the apostles Paul and James McDowell assesses the evidence for each apostle's martyrdom as well as determining its significance to the reliability of their testimony. The willingness of the apostles to die for their faith is a popular argument in resurrection studies and McDowell offers insightful scholarly analysis of this argument to break new ground within the spheres of New Testament studies, Church History and apologetics.

Uncovering the Theme of Revelation in Romans 1:16-3:26 Marcus A. Mininger, 2017-09-19. Past study of Rom 1:16-3:26 focuses on individual salvation or on social relations and also produces a host of interpretative quandaries. Marcus A. Mininger develops a new approach which includes but goes beyond these foci by unearthing the theme of revelation that runs throughout Paul's argument largely unnoticed. More than a proof of sin or of social equality, Paul provides a survey of numerous visible revelations in which otherwise invisible realities like God's wrath, the power of sin and God's righteousness are seen through the observable effects they produce in different people. Read this way, the rationale of Paul's argument becomes quite clear, including for problem texts like Rom 2 and 3:1-8 as Paul proves that the gospel, not the law, overcomes sin's power and that God's righteousness always exists in contrast to the human condition in this age. From publisher's description.

Revelation 19 in Historical and Mythological Context David Andrew Thomas, 2008. Revelation 19:11-21 is a passage rich in symbol and allusion, much of which proves elusive for interpreters restricting themselves to Old Testament references. However, when Greco-Roman history and mythology are examined, new possibilities are discovered. Revelation 19 in Historical and Mythological Context analyzes the Roman triumph and the Parthian threat as sources for the colorful imagery in Revelation 19, ultimately exploring the Nero redivivus myth as the nexus between the two and a key for unlocking the passage. Paradox and parody are important themes in this technical though theological study of the climax to the drama that is the Apocalypse.
