Basic Economics Of The Urban Racial Crisis:

The Basic Economics of the Urban Racial Crisis Daniel Roland Fusfeld, 1973      Regional and Urban Economics Parts 1 & 2 Richard J. Arnott, 2013-06-20 A collection of the first section of the Fundamentals of Pure and Applied Economics series Regional and Urban Economics Parts One and Two is an encyclopaedia containing eight titles This volume highlights original contributions in regional and urban economics concentrating mainly on urban economic theory The contributions focus on the treatment of space in economic theory Drawing on the body of literature developed by Von Thunen Christaller and Losch these chapters explore empirical theoretical and applied aspects of urban and regional economics which can be divided into the following areas Location Theory Jean Jaskold Gabszewicz Jacques Francois Thisse Masahisa Fujita and Urs Schwiezer Urban Public Finance David E Wildasin Urban Dynamics and Urban Externalities Takahiro Miyao and Yoshitsugu Kanemoto Systems of Cities and Facility Location      The Menace of Prosperity Daniel Wortel-London, 2025-09-24 Upends entrenched thinking about cities demonstrating how urban economies are defined or constrained by the fiscal imagination of policymakers activists and residents Many local policymakers make decisions based on a deep seated belief what's good for the rich is good for cities Convinced that local finances depend on attracting wealthy firms and residents municipal governments lavish public subsidies on their behalf Whatever form this strategy takes tax exempt apartments corporate incentives debt financed mega projects its rationale remains consistent and assumed to be true But this wasn't always the case Between the 1870s and the 1970s a wide range of activists citizens and intellectuals in New York City connected local fiscal crises to the greed and waste of the rich These figures saw other routes to development possibilities rooted in alternate ideas about what was fiscally viable In The Menace of Prosperity Daniel Wortel London argues that urban economics and politics are shaped by what he terms the fiscal imagination of policymakers activists advocates and other figures His survey of New York City during a period of explosive growth shows how residents went beyond the limits of redistributive liberalism to imagine how their communities could become economically viable without the largesse of the wealthy Their strategies which included cooperatives public housing land value taxation public utilities and more centered the needs and capabilities of ordinary residents as the basis for local economies that were both prosperous and just Overturning stale axioms about economic policy The Menace of Prosperity shows that not all growth is productive for cities Wortel London's ambitious history demonstrates the range of options we've abandoned and hints at the economic frameworks we could still realize and the more democratic cities that might result      Urban and Regional Economics M. Edel, 2013-07-04 This title discusses the treatment of urban and regional issues by Marx Engels and other early Marxists and examines recent controversies in these areas      The Metropolis in Black and White George C. Galster, Edward W. Hill, 2012-06      Society on the Edge Philippe Fontaine, Jefferson D. Pooley, 2020-12-10 Leading historians trace the changing fortunes of the social science of social problems since World War II      Housing and Planning References United States. Orville Vernon Burton,2000-11-09 Burton traces the evolution of Edgefield County from the antebellum period through Reconstruction and beyond From amassed information on every household in this large rural community he tests the many generalizations about southern black and white families of this period and finds that they were strikingly similar Wealth rather than race or class was the main factor that influenced family structure and the matriarchal family was but a myth

Running in the Red Irene S. Rubin,1983-06-30 This case study of a politically reformed middle sized Midwestern city provides a model of fiscal stress that contrasts sharply with that of America s vast metropolitan centers Dr Rubin examines the interaction of social political and economic causes of the city s predicament She then goes on to analyze the specific factors that solved the city s problems over a six year period Finally she offers a self correcting mechanism that would allow a city to save itself from financial trouble without direct state or federal assistance This study suggests that local political factors were even more important than national factors in contributing to the city s fiscal stress It also brings into question the theory that generosity to the poor creates urban fiscal stress and that giving less to the poor will solve urban financial problems      The Measurement and Significance of Labor Turnover Robert E. Hall,United States. National Commission on Employment and Unemployment Statistics,David M. Lilien,1979      Labor Market Data Needs from the Perspective of "dual" Or "segmented" Labor Market Research Bennett Harrison,Andrew Sum,1979      Subsidized Programs for Low

Income People Lloyd L. Hogan,1981-01-01 Subsidized Programs for Low Income People is the proceedings of a conference held in April 1980 and sponsored by the Review of Black Political Economy the National Economic Association and the Atlanta University Center The panel discussions and the array of participants represent a major attempt to bring new insights into issues of long standing The challenge of the 1980 s is to evolve programs to meet the needs of increasing numbers of low income families blacks and other minorities who are finding it impossible to bridge the gap between inferior and decent housing opportunities The proceedings explore the providing of subsidized rents and the need for additional support programs for home ownership especially for the young and those who are among the increasing working poor Contributors Vincent R McDonald Lloyd Hogan Mack H Jones Rawle Farley Charles L Betsey Wilhel mina A Leigh and Mildred O Mitchell Patricia Thompson Bernadette P Chachere Charles Anderson Margaret C Simms Cleveland A Chandler Samuel L Myers Jr W Victor Rouse and Edward C Baldwin      Out of the Revolution Delores P. Aldridge,Carlene Young,2000-11-01 The introduction of Black studies programs into institutions of higher education was a direct response to the mandate for change at all levels that characterized the civil rights movement and the social rebellions of the 1950s and 1960s In Out of the Revolution Delores P Aldridge and Carlene Young collect thirty one of the nation s top scholars to provide a complete reference for understanding the impetus for the development of and future considerations for the discipline of Africana studies Topics addressed include epistemological considerations humanistic perspectives the role of bureaucracy and the academic institution the social psychological political and economic dimensions the position of black women in the field and how the discipline has empowered the black student This invaluable resource for educators and students alike concludes with a look at graduates in Africana studies and their careers and a discussion of the future of the field

Leading Issues in Black Political Economy Thomas D. Boston, 2018-01-16 Leading Issues in Black Political Economy brings together the foremost experts on issues ranging from employment training and education of African Americans It also emphasizes macro economic concerns of business development with special emphasis on long term trends of black owned businesses The work emphasizes welfare considerations in an anti welfare epoch and the role of affirmative action now that it is under attack Attention is given to the role of race in the continuing disparity of income distribution in American society The highlights of Leading Issues include An Employment and Business Strategy for the Next Century A Comment by Thomas D Boston Long Term Trends and Prospects for Black owned Business by Andrew F Brimmer Is the U S Small Business Administration a Racist Institution by Timothy Bates Worker Re Training and Labor Market Outcomes A New Focus for Labor Research by James B Stewart Race Cognitive Skills Psychological Capital and Wages by Arthur H Goldsmith William Darity Jr and Jonathan R Veum and Reparations and Public Policy by Richard F America The overall findings suggest that empirical wage equation specifications do matter The role of psychological capital is critical in the marketplace Race is indeed an important determinant of wages especially when the influence of both cognitive skills and psychological capital are included in the wage equation This volume will be of crucial interest to economists political scientists sociologists and policy analysts studying African American life Thomas D Boston is editor of the Review of Black Political Economy and professor of economics at the Georgia Institute of Technology He is the co editor with Catherine L Ross of The Inner City Urban Poverty and Economic Development in the Next Century also available from Transaction

Enterprise, Deprivation and Social Exclusion Alan Southern, 2012-04-27 There is little doubt that in recent years enterprise has been considered an essential approach in the alleviation of deprivation existing in the developed world The assumption is that area based initiatives provide a means by which enterprise can include all members of society in mainstream social and economic activities The rationale behind Enterprise Deprivation and Social Exclusion is to critically challenge the notion that enterprise can address the complexity behind deprivation and social exclusion by demonstrating UK and North American examples We see how enterprise has come to be regarded as a means by which poverty can be reduced and new opportunities can be opened up to support individuals However the authors here seek to give a greater appreciation to the structural roots of deprivation and pose questions about whether or not enterprise might actually exacerbate structures of social and economic exclusion What if enterprise actually maintains differences between types of community and keeps individuals entrenched in certain ways of thinking The contributions in this edited collection will offer a distinct opportunity in respect of both theoretical and empirical advancement The authors hale from both sides of the Atlantic and form an inter disciplinary group to provide complementary perspectives in this field      Library Book Catalog, Subject Catalog, Volume 2 United States.
