Basic Questions In Theology Vol I:

Systematic Theology Vol 1 Wolfhart Pannenberg, 2004-07-09 In Pannenberg's seminal work the Christian doctrine of God is discussed using exegetical analysis across a number of disciplines Truth the nature of revelation the language used to discuss God the trinity and theology in the public sphere are topics for debate

Relationality and the Concept of God Henry Jansen, 2025-02-10 Classical theism the dominant tradition in Christian theology has stressed the metaphysical concept of God i.e. God's ontological transcendence and independence from the world In this century however this concept of God has increasingly met with criticism On the basis of the Bible and new philosophical considerations it is argued that a relational concept of God better answers the fundamental concerns of the Christian faith In this book the author investigates the questions of whether one can conceive of God apart from the metaphysical attributes and whether reflection on the biblical depiction of God leads necessarily to a relational concept of God The author explores the questions by examining the relational concepts of God found in two contemporary German theologians Jürgen Moltmann and Wolfhart Pannenberg and uses the divine attribute of immutability as a focus for the discussion He argues that the relational concept of God presupposes another metaphysical conception of God which raises problems as serious as those in classical theism and that the Bible itself because of its nature as a narrative text is ambiguous in many respects as far as God is concerned A truly Christian doctrine of God must take both the metaphysical and relational aspects of God into account

Theology and Technology, Volume 1 Carl Mitcham, Jim Grote, Levi Checketts, 2022-07-21 Originally published nearly forty years ago as a spiritual successor to Carl Mitcham and Robert Mackey's Philosophy and Technology the essays collected in the two volumes of Theology and Technology span an array of theological attitudes and perspectives providing sufficient material for careful reflection and engagement The first volume offers five general attitudes toward technology based off of H. Richard Niebuhr's five ideal types in Christ and Culture The second volume includes biblical historical and modern theological engagements with the place of technology in the Christian life This ecumenical collection ranges from authors who enthusiastically support technological development to those cynical of technique and engages the Christian tradition from the church fathers to recent theologians like Bernard Lonergan and Jacques Ellul Taken together these essays some reproductions of earlier work and others original for this project provide any student of theology a fitting entrance into considering the place of technology in the realm of the sacred

God and History in the Book of Revelation Michael Gilbertson, 2003-07-24 This is an interdisciplinary study which constructs a dialogue between biblical interpretation and systematic theology It examines how far a reading of the Book of Revelation might either support or question the work of leading theologians Wolfhart Pannenberg and Jürgen Moltmann on the theology of history exploring the way in which the author of Revelation uses the dimensions of space and time to make theological points about the relationship between God and history The book argues that Revelation sets the present earthly experience of the reader in the context of God's ultimate purposes by disclosing hidden dimensions of reality both spatial embracing heaven and earth and temporal extending into the ultimate future Dr Gilbertson offers a detailed assessment of the theologies of history developed by Pannenberg and Moltmann including their views on the nature of the historical process and the use of apocalyptic ideas in eschatology The Formation of Christian Understanding Charles M. Wood,2000-03-09 Simply put this is the best book to be found on the theological understanding of scripture Charles Wood writes clearly graphically engagingly and with uncommon sense about one of the thorniest of theological problems how to interpret and use the Bible He faces the hard questions and the troublesome issues with candor intelligence and persuasive insight This is a classic text Thomas G Long Princeton Theological Seminary Role of the Holy Spirit in Protestant Systematic Theology Wilson Varkey,2011-08-01 This volume is a meticulously researched text on pneumatology which puts the major pneumatological issues together without confining to the traditional way of dealing with the doctrine of the Holy Spirit Although pneumatology has been a neglected field in theological discussions of the past there is a renewal of interest among theologians on pneumatology today This renewal of interest has led to the formation of this work on the role of the Holy Spirit in the Protestant Systematic Theology Through highlighting the role and significance of the Holy Spirit in the whole divine action this volume contends that pneumatology is not a dull theological locus but rather an essential theological disposition relevant for today The detailed arguments found within challenge and inspire the contemporary pneumatological discussions as it relates to all the facets of theological reflection and action Ex Auditu - Volume 01 Thomas W Gillespie,2004-06-23 Ex Auditu began as the journal incorporating the papers of the Fredrick Neumann Symposium of Princeton Theological Seminary After the first four volumes the journal began publishing the papers from the North Park Symposium on the Theological Interpretation of Scripture The intent from the first has been to provide a forum for doing interdisciplinary theology from a biblical perspective for the benefit of the Church Each annual publication focuses on a topic crucial to the life of today s Church Additionally each issue contains an annotated bibliography and a sermon which makes it a practical guide for pastors EDITOR Dr Stephen Chester Associate Professor of New Testament North Park Theological Seminary EDITOR EMERITUS Dr Klyne R Snodgrass Paul W Brandel Professor of New Testament Studies at North Park Theological Seminary ASSOCIATE EDITOR Dr D Christopher Spinks Acquisitions Editor at Wipf and Stock Publishers EDITORIAL BOARD Terence E Fretheim Luther Seminary St Paul MN Richard B Hays Duke Divinity School Durham NC Jon R Stock Wipf and Stock Publishers Eugene OR Miroslav Volf Yale Divinity School New Haven CT John Wipf Wipf and Stock Publishers Eugene OR SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION Individuals U S A and all other countries in U S funds 20 00 Students 12 00 Institutions 30 in the U S and 40 for international shipments in U S funds To subscribe Send pertinent information to Wipf and Stock Publishers at orders wipfandstock com and indicate your preferred method of payment Back issues are available through Wipf and Stock Publishers Symposium on the Theological Interpretation of Scripture at North Park DETAILS For more information about the symposium click here INQUIRIES Other inquiries should be addressed to one question What does a person need to know for developing a theology In other words this book will not only answer objections lodged against the study of theology but will explain to students pastors and laypersons alike what a theologian actually does It will also present different approaches to the study of theology and review the present status of theological reflection in various Protestant Orthodox and Roman Catholic traditions In the first section of the book evangelical Protestant scholars describe the contributions various disciplines make to the study of theology In the next section evangelical Protestant scholars explain the distinctives of their approaches to doing theology In the third part theologians who do not identify with evangelical Protestant convictions seek to explain the distinctives of their approaches to doing theology In the final section Dr Kantzer provides a summary analysis of how he does theology and interacts critically with a number of essays in this volume

Outline of Christian Doctrine Wilfried Harle, 2015-04-14 In this book Wilfried Harle so distills Protestant Christian teaching as to bring fresh insight both to new students and to experienced readers of systematic theology Outline of Christian Doctrine however is not merely a translation of Harle's classic German text Nicholas Sagovsky has also entirely adapted the original work to the needs and resources of English speaking readers Biblically rooted contextually sensitive alert to philosophical issues and relevant with respect to debates about the world as we know it today Harle's Outline of Christian Doctrine An Evangelical Dogmatics is an ideal contemporary theology book for both class use and individual study

Science and the Study of God Alan G. Padgett, 2003 For many today religion and science are seen as enemies battling for human hearts and minds In this new book Alan Padgett shows that they can and should work together in developing a worldview that is at once spiritually meaningful and scientifically sound Pursuing a perspective that he calls the mutuality model Padgett highlights the contributions that both religion and science make to a full understanding of the world and our place in it He argues convincingly that the natural sciences and theology can rationally influence each other without giving up their important distinctives and methods The book explores the nature of informal reason and worldviews the character of theology as a spiritual and academic discipline and the question of what counts as natural science Along the way Padgett discusses such topics as thermodynamics time resurrection and the historical Jesus as examples of the powerful model that he is developing

The Noetic Effects of Sin Stephen K. Moroney, 2000-01-01 Stephen Moroney's fascinating study examines the frequently neglected topic of the noetic effects of sin a phenomenon in which sin distorts human thinking Drawing on the detailed models formulated by John Calvin Abraham Kuyper and Emil Brunner Moroney sets forth a more contemporary model of the subject He extends beyond all previous views by relating the noetic effects of sin to the complex and unpredictable interaction between the object of knowledge and the knowing subject Moroney also further examines some of the implications of the noetic effects of sin for the rationalist theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg and the Reformed epistemology of Alvin Plantinga and Nicholas Wolterstorff Lastly Moroney undertakes an interdisciplinary study of what social psychology and Christian theology contribute to our understanding of the noetic effects of sin An invaluable addition to current conversations on theology and epistemology The Noetic Effects of Sin will be of interest to scholars of theology religion and social psychology
