Basic Research Methods in Social Sciences Julian Lincoln Simon, 1969      Basic Research Methods in Social Science, 1978      Basic research methods in social science ; the art of empirical investigation [by] Julian L. Simon Julian Lincoln Simon, 1969      The Art of Empirical Investigation Julian Lincoln Simon, 2003

Julian Simon was known for his methodical and often controversial writings challenging conventional beliefs about overpopulation pollution disappearing farmland and the scarcity of energy sources and raw materials But throughout his works is a common theme that responsible unbiased research and examination of the data is indispensable to formulating a well informed and accurate opinion The Art of Empirical Investigation teaches student professor researcher and those interested in ascertaining the truth about social issues just how to proceed The Art of Empirical Investigation is a textbook on the basics of social scientific research It discusses all the important empirical methods used in social science and its examples drawn from a wide variety of academic and applied fields illustrate the use of each method in its most appropriate context The actual decisions a researcher must make at every stage of a project are emphasized as well as obstacles to knowledge such as observer bias deception unreliability of data and sampling costs and how to overcome them Presupposing nothing the book introduces the reader to the foundations of empirical social science research regardless of a specific field It also makes an important contribution to beginning researchers understanding of an operational definition of causality which cuts through philosophical obscurity and teaches the researcher how to decide whether or not a given relationship is causal James E Katz contributes an introduction written for this new edition in which he explains why after over three decades this remains one of the best books on research methods around Written in a clear informal style The Art of Empirical Investigation is a must for the student and teacher of the social sciences researchers and journalists Julian L Simon 1932 1998 was professor of business administration at the University of Maryland and Distinguished Senior Fellow of the Cato Institute His books as author or editor include Population Matters Hoodwinking the Nation and The Economics of Population Key Classic Writing all available from Transaction James E Katz is professor of communication at the School of Communication Information and Library Studies at Rutgers University He is the author of Machines That Become Us and Connections both available from Transaction

BASIC RESEARCH METHODS IN SOCIAL SCIENCE JULIAN L. SIMON, 1969      Human Trafficking and Prostitution Among Women and Girls of Edo State, Nigeria Possibility of Rehabilitation Through Education and Prevention Mary Dorothy Ezech, 2017-06-06

Even though this study was primarily on human trafficking and prostitution among Edo women and girls of Edo state in Nigeria human trafficking however is a widespread visible phenomenon in the world today It is a global problem A report from United Nations Office on Drug and Crime in 2014 says that human trafficking involves over three million people in the world bringing their slaveholders an annual profit of 32 billion dollars According to the same report there is no place in the world where children women and men are safe from human trafficking In the background the stark reality of poverty unemployment social marginalization political crises wars interethnic conflicts and the militarization of entire territories has increased the massive displacements of the population fuelling the illegal sex trade linked to them Many youngsters who desire to improve their living conditions and those of their families fleeing their homes often become prey to criminal organizations who take advantage of them exploit them and dehumanize them Little do they know when they are leaving their homes to go to overseas what is waiting for them is often something altogether different namely intimidation blackmail violence nightmare and slavery that strip them of all dignity and respect To make matters worse most of the victims and their families not only lose credibility but are also ostracized by their local communities when what happened comes to light Therefore the victims of this painful chain are not only young girls and boys but also families Unfortunately some parents especially mothers have also been perpetrators of this deplorable crime They push their daughters into the arms of their torturers lulled by the dream of a brighter future To stop and to prevent the reoccurrence of this criminal network of complicity which has been more or less voluntary conscious and unconscious a joint commitment by all governments organizations local communities and individuals is necessary Everyone needs to remember and never forget that every human being every person has been created and procreated in the image and likeness of God and is a subject of essential rights which should never be violated but rather should be respected and upheld by everyone in every time and place
