The Solo Beatles Film & TV Chronicle 1971-1980 Jörg Pieper, 2009-05-17 This book is meant as a companion volume to The Beatles Film TV Chronicle 1961-1970 and covers the first ten years of the solo careers of the individual Beatles from 1971 to 1980. It is the indispensable reference book for every serious Beatles video collector with several years worth of research and investigation into the massive amount of film material held in archives around the world. The book includes details on over 100 hours worth of solo material with many items covered for the very first time and is fully illustrated with over one hundred and eighty thumbnail images b/w taken from a variety of film sources. As a bonus the book also includes a chapter of updates regarding recently discovered and new information about films of The Beatles as a group during the years from 1961 to 1970. Through the years the author has been consulted for several Beatles film and book projects including the 2011 Martin Scorsese documentary George Harrison: Living in the Material World. Radio Free Europe J. F.

Brown, 2013-10-14 The story of Radio Free Europe's role during the Cold War as recounted by veteran RFE official J. F. Brown who served as director from 1978 to 1983. Jim Brown had written about Eastern Europe from RFE but never about RFE until he wrote this book. He conveys his understanding of how Radio Free Europe functioned as a decentralized organization that empowered exiles while also conveying what it and they could and could not offer East European listeners. Jim Brown's explanations of the function of the central news department as an internal news agency of discussions with and trust of exile broadcast chiefs of RFE's cautious approach to broadcasting to Poland under martial law after 1981 to cite only three examples from the book illuminate the editorial policies and internal relationships that made RFE a success. His portraits of key personalities over the years help us understand that RFE was not just an institution; it was a unique multinational group of people. From the Foreword by A. Ross Johnson: Praise for Radio Free Europe: An Insider's View. The historical analysis Brown brings is extremely valuable and adds the insight of a first-rate analyst to such topics as the contrast between how RFE handled the Hungarian and Polish events of the 1950s, the Czech Spring in 1968, the Gomulka period in Poland, the developing independence of Ceausescu's Romania, etc. All are given perceptive treatment. Eugene R. Parta, co-author of Cold War Broadcasting: Impact on the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe. I know of no other books on RFE by an insider who had so much experience with the Radios and how they were operated. It is very well written, well organized, and a fascinating read. Yale Richmond, cultural affairs officer, U.S. Foreign Service, ret., author of Practicing Public Diplomacy: A Cold War Odyssey.
