bulbs of wild hyacinth or taboose often she carried a bottle necked water basket to and from the spring and always wore a bowl shaped basket on her head for a hat Her long hair hung down from under it and her black eyes glittered beadily below the rim Alan had a fancy that any moment she might pick him up with a quick toss as if he had been a bit of brushwood and drop him over her shoulder into the great carrier and walk away across the mesa with him So when he saw her that morning coming down the trail from the spring he hung close by his mother s skirts
