College Sports Eric A. Moyen,John R. Thelin,2024-11-26 A bold and foundational history of the inception and evolution of intercollegiate athletics in the United States In College Sports historians Eric A Moyen and John R Thelin tell the intriguing story of the success and excess of American college sports from their inception to today Arguing that the modern American university s structure spurred the growth of big time sports Moyen and Thelin also highlight the treatment of marginalized groups in athletics and the role that commercialization and the media have played in shaping college sports Using a wealth of secondary resources archival records newspaper articles and oral histories Moyen and Thelin offer a chronological account of the popularity success and continued challenges of college sports Most scholarship has portrayed athletics as an anomaly within higher education but history reveals that college sports enjoy a symbiotic relationship with universities Reform and a return to a purely amateur model have rarely been a compelling option for those institutions that are successful in commercialized big time college sports At the same time most student athletes compete in a very different model And despite their progressive posturing colleges have been slow to fully adopt civil rights and social justice issues When full participation was finally extended to women and minorities it generally meant a move away from the amateur model into a commercial enterprise By examining key events at specific universities athletic conferences and the NCAA Moyen and Thelin trace how the media and sports marketing have created an incredibly successful financial model for schools in big time conferences Yet this model has also created a precarious fiscal situation for hundreds of other institutions This provocative and refreshing take on sports in American universities provides the context in which to understand and improve upon the current landscape of intercollegiate athletics University of Michigan Official Publication ,1953 General Register University of Michigan,1954 Announcements for the following year included in some vols More Hurdles to Clear United States Commission on Civil Rights,1980 Resources in Women's Educational Equity ,1979 Literature cited in AGRICOLA Dissertations abstracts international ERIC ABI INFORM MEDLARS NTIS Psychological abstracts and Sociological abstracts Selection focuses on education legal aspects career aspects sex differences lifestyle and health Common format bibliographical information descriptors and abstracts and ERIC subject terms used throughout Contains order information Subject author indexes Undergraduate Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn,1983 Learning to Win Pamela Grundy,2003-04-03 Over the past century high school and college athletics have grown into one of America s most beloved and most controversial institutions inspiring great loyalty while sparking fierce disputes In this richly detailed book Pamela Grundy examines the many meanings that school sports took on in North Carolina linking athletic programs at state universities public high schools women s colleges and African American educational institutions to social and economic shifts that include the expansion of industry the advent of woman suffrage and the rise and fall of Jim Crow Drawing heavily on oral history interviews Grundy charts the many pleasures of athletics from the simple joy of backyard basketball to the exhilaration of a state championship run She also explores conflicts provoked by sports within the state clashes over the growth of college athletics the propriety of women s competition and the connection between sports and racial integration for example Within this chronicle familiar athletic narratives take on new meanings moving beyond timeless stories of courage fortitude or failure to illuminate questions about race manhood and womanhood the purpose of education the meaning of competition and the structure of American society
