Creating And Transforming Households The Constraints Of The World Economy:

Creating and Transforming Households Joan Smith,Immanuel Maurice Wallerstein,1992-08-27 A systematic and original approach to the intimate link between the micro structures of households and the structures of the capitalist world economy
Creating and Transforming Households Joan Smith,Immanuel Wallerstein,1992-08-27 This book examines the intimate link between the micro structures of households and the structures of the world economy at a global level It seeks to explain differences in wage levels for work of comparable productivity by examining the different structures of households as income pooling units The authors argue that the boundaries and sources of income of households are molded by the changing patterns of the world economy but are also modes of defense against its pressures Empirical data is drawn from eight local regions in three different zones the United States Mexico and southern Africa
Transformations Torry D.

Dickinson,Robert K. Schaeffer,2015-12-03 Bringing feminist and world systems theories together this analytic anthology examines the rise of intersecting women centered movements that contribute to alternative development and the rise of new societies The authors consider feminist movements and humanistic transformations that create new work and market relations promote democracy and equality redefine gender and sexuality regenerate the environment and construct nonviolent and peaceful relations At the end of each chapter articles by feminist theorists and practitioners on these topics are included to illustrate the analysis Using a global historical framework the book shows how diverse multicultural and international feminist ideas can be brought together to provide a comprehensive and differentiated understanding of change

The Anthem Companion to Immanuel Wallerstein Patrick Hayden,Chamsy el-Ojeili,2023-08-01 Immanuel Wallerstein one of the most influential yet controversial sociologists of the past half century is a touchstone in innumerable debates about globalization and the power of capitalism the nature of development in the modern era and how to come to grips with widespread inequalities while recovering the potential for social change The Anthem Companion to Immanuel Wallerstein offers a compelling guide to his writings and ideas his influences and reception and the reasons for his enduring significance with 10 original interpretive essays written by a distinguished group of international scholars Importantly the contributors also advance Wallerstein s work into neglected areas such as climate change global pandemics racism and gender and demonstrate his importance not just to debates in his intellectual context but to those of our times as well This companion provides a multifaceted tool for thinking with Wallerstein while showing where those engaging with Wallerstein s thought can take his work in the contemporary world transformation and change some twenty two years after political emancipation in South Africa With diverse family formations non marital childbearing and diverse parenting situations prevalent in South Africa the book covers both the conceptual and theoretical questions that explore the context of children s experiences It uses examples from a range of primary and secondary data sources to illustrate how resilience in children faced with adversity could be nurtured demonstrating the links between theory and practice and critically commenting on questions of epistemology by drawing on research with children within different African social and cultural contexts While the volume affirms the complexities of explaining child adversity or privilege it stresses the diversity of South African children s experiences and the importance of adopting both children s rights and Afro centric perspectives to account for the commonality and diversity of childhood and children s empowerment in diverse family systems The contributions also provide recommendations on how to respond and intervene in children s issues from both practical and policy levels in a dedicated manner to ensure that children are protected from harm nurtured to succeed and assisted during and after traumatic experiences This volume represents a valuable resource for scholars and students in the fields of humanities social science development studies and public health as well as policy makers child practitioners and child rights advocates

A Critical Rewriting of Global Political Economy V. Spike Peterson,2004-03

This book rewrites global political economy by bringing disparate features of globalization into relation and providing an accessible narrative of how we got here what s going on and what it means from a critical vantage point Recent Marxian Theory John F. Sitton,1996-01-01 Brings together prominent recent analyses within the Marxist tradition that bear on class formation and social conflict in contemporary capitalism and concludes that class relations continue to be important for analyzing the historical trajectory of and challenges to capitalism although not in the way Marx imagined

Breastfeeding Privatization in Public Education Meral Apak,2022-03-24 This book unveils women s empowerment as mothers as a notion in the school system that reinforces patriarchy rather than weakening it It discusses how empowerment is a contested notion even though it is mostly praised in terms of women s emancipation This book explores the concept that although women are breastfeeding education as mothers in the neoliberal education system they are not necessarily doing so as a self sacrifice as one may generalize in the context of neoliberal economy Instead this book argues that women are doing this as a means of investment for gaining a sense of individual power which ironically reinforces patriarchal values It presents demonstrative and descriptive practical incidences in the field

Grounding Globalization Edward Webster,Rob

Lambert,Andries Beziudenhout,2011-08-02 Winner of the 2009 Distinguished Scholarly Monograph Prize awarded by the American Sociological Association Labor and Labor Movements section Claims have been made on the emergence of a new labour internationalism in response to the growing insecurity created by globalization However when persons face conditions of insecurity they often turn inwards The book contains a warning and a sign of hope Some workers become fatalistic even xenophobic Others are attempting to globalize their own struggles Examines the claim that a new labour internationalism is emerging by grounding the book in evidence rather than assertion Analyzes three distinct places Orange Australia Changwon South Korea and Ezakheni South Africa and how they dealt with manufacturing plants undergoing restructuring Explores worker responses to rising levels of insecurity and examines preconditions for the emergence of counter movements to such insecurities Highlights the significance of place and scale and demonstrates how the restructuring of multi national corporations and worker responses to this connect the two concepts
