Creating The World:

Creating a World Without Poverty Muhammad Yunus, 2007-12-07 In the last two decades free markets have swept the globe But traditional capitalism has been unable to solve problems like inequality and poverty In Muhammad Yunus groundbreaking sequel to Banker to the Poor he outlines the concept of social business business where the creative vision of the entrepreneur is applied to today's most serious problems feeding the poor housing the homeless healing the sick and protecting the planet Creating a World Without Poverty reveals the next phase in a hopeful economic and social revolution that is already underway

Examined Life Robert Nozick, 1990-12-15 An exploration of topics of everyday importance in the Socratic tradition

1877, 〇〇〇〇〇 〇〇〇〇 〇〇〇〇 〇〇〇〇 My Life in Christ Saint John (of Kronstadt), 1897 Noncommunicable Diseases in the Developing World Louis Galambos, Jeffrey L. Sturchio, Rachel Calvin Whitehead, 2014 Presents a pragmatic agenda for achieving effective and sustainable global action on noncommunicable diseases in lower and middle income countries Noncommunicable diseases NCDs including cardiovascular disease diabetes asthma and other chronic respiratory conditions and cancers are the leading causes of death worldwide An estimated 36 million people die from such diseases each year this represents roughly two out of three deaths globally Eighty percent of these fatalities occur in developing countries The statistics are staggering yet millions of these deaths are preventable This is an urgent global health issue that demands analysis of gaps in NCD research new policies and practices and actionable recommendations to close the gaps The Johns Hopkins Institute for Applied Economics Global Health and the Study of Business Enterprise convened an NCD Working Group of leading scholars to examine a wide range of issues that both the private and public sectors must address to make sustainable progress in NCD prevention and treatment in lower and middle income countries Collected in this volume are essays on five key areas where strengthened policies and health systems can have the most impact in the near future Accelerating regulatory harmonization Structuring supply chains Improving access to interventions Restructuring primary care Promoting multisectoral and intersectoral action While there is a growing literature on the problem of NCDs none of the available studies provides background on the range of challenges matched with specific steps that can be taken by the public sector private sector and civil society working together Noncommunicable Diseases in the Developing World presents a framework for understanding the salience of specific policy recommendations and detailed steps that can be taken now to move forward in the global campaign against NCDs This book will be of interest to practitioners scholars and students in public health as well as those framing and implementing health policies in the private and public sectors

Philosophy and Psychology Pamphlets, 1895 World Agroforestry Centre annual report 2005: Agroforestry science to support the millennium development goals, 2005 The World of Man Francis Borgia, 2020-05-15 Book Delisted Evolution and the Problem of Natural Evil Michael Anthony Corey, 2000 Is the evolutionary process intelligently designed If so why did the Creator choose such an evil infested means to create the biosphere What is the intrinsic nature of evil itself Is natural evil necessary Is evil compatible with the existence of God Will the world s evils ever be totally redeemed What place does humanity occupy in the cosmic scheme of things Evolution and the Problem of Natural Evil attempts to answer these and other timeless questions by proposing a bold new conceptual synthesis that aggressively marries the tenets of modern developmental psychology to the basic concepts of classical theism The end result of this novel approach is deeply encouraging insofar as it places the problem of evil as well as the general fate of human existence in a much larger and more optimistic context than has traditionally been imagined

The Contemporary Review ,1872 Scripture, Creed, Theology Robert L. Calhoun,2011-01-01 In this long awaited edition of the late Robert Lowry Calhoun s lectures on the history of Christian doctrine a powerful case is made for the scriptural basis of the ancient ecumenical creeds The way Calhoun reads the patristic authors helps us see that the Trinitarian three yet one and Christological two yet one creedal formulations provide patterns for sorting out the highly diverse biblical ways of speaking of God and of the Messiah Jesus so that they are not contradictory The implied lesson all the more effective for many of Calhoun s students just because he let them draw this conclusion by themselves is that the creeds are not to be understood as deductions from scripture which they are not in any straightforward way but as templates for interpreting scripture It is Trinitarian and Christological patterns of reading which are implicitly operative for vast multitudes even in churches that profess to be creedless that make it possible to treat the entire bible Old and New Testaments together as a unified and coherently authoritative whole

Hydropolitics in the Developing World Anthony Turton,Roland Henwood,2002 Bringing contributions by a variety of authors together in one volume is part of an attempt to show that hydropolitics is a growing discipline in its own right The prevailing definition of hydropolitics is widened to include the elements of scale and range This is illustrated through a focus on theoretical and legal issues case studies from Southern Africa and a proposed research agenda The book is an important addition to the literature on hydropolitics

Tending the Fire That Burns at the Center of the World David F. White, 2022-07-29 Tending the Fire That Burns at the Center of the World engages the central question of Christian formation that is what kind of knowing is most likely to awaken and sustain Christian faith This book seeks to reclaim aesthetics beauty and creativity as the church s most native theological way of knowing and being which participates with God s own glory and creativity This book traces the prominence of aesthetics up until the dawn of the Enlightenment including recent theologians who reclaim aesthetics for theology and formation The book elaborates the aims and techniques of aesthetic approaches to teaching and learning in the church Finally this book cautions against overly determined rationalisms and moralisms that do not retain a sense of wonder delight and openness in the church s teaching liturgy and proclamation In this view the church does not simply regurgitate familiar texts political tropes or flattened doctrines but breaks into the world as Christ s body a parable a song a flash mob interrupting business as usual giving new expression to acts of care repentance forgiveness joy and communion awake to the beauty of God's gifts and inviting our worship Light from the East Alexei V. Nesteruk, In this unique volume a new and distinctive perspective on hotly debated issues in science and religion emerges from the unlikely ancient Eastern Orthodox Christian tradition Alexei Nesteruk reveals how the Orthodox tradition deeply rooted in Greek Patristic thought can contribute importantly in a way that the usual Western sources do not Orthodox thought he holds profoundly and helpfully relates the experience of God to our knowledge of the world His masterful historical introduction to the Orthodox traditions not only surveys key features of its theology but highlights its ontology of participation and communion From this Nesteruk derives Orthodoxy's unique approach to theological and scientific attribution Theology identifies the underlying principles logoi in scientific affirmations Nesteruk then applies this methodology to key issues in cosmology the presence of the divine in creation the theological meaning of models of creation the problem of time and the validity of the anthropic principle especially as it relates to the emergence of humans and the Incarnation Nesteruk's unique synthesis is not a valorization of Eastern Orthodox thought so much as an influx of startlingly fresh ideas about the character of science itself and an affirmation of the ultimate religious and theological value of the whole scientific enterprise International Labor Organization United States.
