ruins of Stonehenge and as logically as we can sift truth from falsehood and exaggeration Early man found himself in a world of unimaginable mysteries meteors streaking across a star studded sky the darkness beyond the campfire's glow the sound and fury of a volcano's eruption Our earliest ancestors were probably mysteries to themselves and totally susceptible to the subjectivity of their world Fantasies may have been as much a formative influence as toolmaking in the early development of culture As human beings gathered knowledge and understanding of their surroundings old mysteries vanished only to be replaced by others because so much was not understood
