Crafts Movement In Australia A History:

The Crafts Movement in Australia Grace Cochrane,1992-01 Handsomely illustrated reference book published with the assistance of the Australia Council which places the history of the crafts movement in Australia in the context of other social and cultural histories and documents the work of crafts practitioners of all kinds crafts organisations and design schools It describes crafts events and activities and the role of museums and galleries in promoting craft Includes endnotes a select bibliography and an index Arts and Crafts Movement in New Zealand, 1870-1940 Ann Calhoun,2000 Reveals the exquisite work and extraordinary skill of a group of New Zealand artists most of them women working in a wide variety of art and craft forms This flowering of local talent originated in the British Arts and Crafts movement and is associated with the growth of art education in this country its quiet but dedicated character also suggests much about the situation of women in the years before and after 1900 Jacket Pioneers of Modernism Harriet Edquist,2008 Remediating a neglected part of architectural history this volume presents the work of four of Australia's most innovative arts and crafts architects Walter Butler Harold Desbrowe Annear Walter Liberty Vernon and Robin Dods The influence of the arts and crafts movement in Australia has long been lost between the far better known Gothic and classical revivals and the modernist movement and obscured by the chronological construction of federation architecture but this study along with the accompanying photographs and plans brings to life the simple lines of their design and illustrates why it is so deserving of further recognition Culture in Australia Tony Bennett,David Carter,2001-09-03 A 2001 survey of the changing policies and priorities that are evident in a range of contemporary cultural institutions in Australia Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia,1988 Craft and the Creative Economy S. Luckman,2015-03-04 Craft and the Creative Economy examines the place of craft and making in the contemporary cultural economy with a distinctive focus on the ways in which this creative sector is growing exponentially as a result of online shopfronts and home based micro enterprise mumpreneurialism and downshifting and renewed demand for the handmade Indigenous Participation in Australian Economies II Natasha Fijn,Ian Keen,Christopher Lloyd,Michael Pickering,2012-07-01 This volume arises out of a conference in Canberra on Indigenous Participation in Australian Economies at the National Museum of Australia on 9-10 November 2009 which attracted more than thirty presenters Dictionary of Women Artists: Introductory surveys ; Artists, A-I Delia Gaze,1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Nick Mount Tony Hanning,2013-03 Nick Mount is one of the world's leading glass artists In his sixtieth year he was honoured with a major exhibition in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania as well as the Object Living Treasure Award This book written in the style of an extraordinary yarn is not so much about Nick Mount's achievements as a glass artist as it is about the elements that have shaped his career and continue to inform his work His philosophy work ethic and environment peers and family have all been factors in his work and success Together they form the fabric of his work Nick Mount has received numerous awards including the Bavarian State Prize in Germany an Australia Council Fellowship and the Arts SA Triennial Project Grant He acknowledges the honour of being able to work with his hands and has enormous gratitude for a lifetime of assistance from Dr and Mrs G J Mount Pauline Hugo Peta and Pip Nick Mount The Fabric of Work is richly illustrated with photographs of Nick's pieces including many made recently These vibrant works range from the extraordinary flamboyant scent bottles to more recent wood and glass fruit pieces that reflect a lush quietude Australian Fashion Unstitched Bonnie English,Liliana Pomazan,2010-04-06 Australian Fashion Unstitched provides a compelling survey of Australian fashion over the last sixty years Historical Dictionary of Australia Norman Abjorensen,James C. Docherty,2014-12-05 Australia's development from the most unpromising of beginnings as a British prison in 1788 to the prosperous liberal democracy of the present is as remarkable as is its success as a country of large scale immigration Since 1942 it has been a loyal ally of the United States and has demonstrated this loyalty by contributing troops to the war in Vietnam and by being part of the coalition of the willing in the U S invasion of Iraq in 2003 and in operations in Afghanistan In recent years it has also been more willing to promote peace and democracy in its Pacific and Asian neighbors This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Australia covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Australia Clearly Inspired Karen S. Spirituality and Social Work Beth R. Crisp, 2016-04-01 For much of the twentieth century professional social work sought to distance itself from its religious origins with the consequence being that the role of spirituality in the lives of service users tended to be sidelined Yet it is clear that many people begin to explore their spirituality precisely at times when they are trying to make sense of difficult life circumstances or experiences and may come into contact with social workers In recent years there has been an increasing understanding that in order to be relevant to the lives of people they work with social workers need to go beyond their material needs but there is little understanding of how spirituality can be sensitively incorporated into practice especially when either practitioners or service users have no religious affiliation or there is no shared religious background In this pathbreaking volume Beth Crisp offers social workers ideas of beginning conversations in which spiritual values and beliefs may surface allowing service users to respond from their own framework and to begin to discuss the specific religious or spiritual practices and beliefs which are important to them She considers spirituality in the context of lived experience a perspective that she argues breaks down any mystique and suspicion of explicitly religious language by focusing on language and experiences with which most people can identify Such a framework allows exploration of issues that emerge at different stages in the lifespan both by persons who are religious and those who do not identify with any formal religion Most literature on spirituality within social work refers to the elderly to those who are sick or have been bereaved yet as Crisp points out spirituality is important for people of all ages and not just at seemingly exceptional moments
