

CRAWLING BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH

The book cover features a man with light-colored hair, wearing a dark jacket, looking upwards and to the right. He is holding a dark, circular object, possibly a hat or a piece of equipment, in front of him. The background is a dark, starry space with a prominent orange and yellow nebula or galaxy structure on the right side. The overall tone is mysterious and cosmic.

The vol. containing the biogr. is of the 3rd ed.]. William Shakespeare, 1867 Dickens' Novels as Poetry Jeremy Tambling, 2014-11-13 Focusing on the language style and poetry of Dickens novels this study breaks new ground in reading Dickens novels as a unique form of poetry Dickens writing disallows the statement of single unambiguous truths and shows unconscious processes burrowing within language disrupting received ideas and modes of living Arguing that Dickens within nineteenth century modernity sees language as always double Tambling draws on a wide range of Victorian texts and current critical theory to explore Dickens interest in literature and popular song and what happens in jokes in caricature in word play and punning and in naming Working from Dickens earliest writings to the latest deftly combining theory with close analysis of texts the book examines Dickens key novels such as Pickwick Papers Martin Chuzzlewit Dombey and Son Bleak House Little Dorrit Great Expectations and Our Mutual Friend It considers Dickens as constructing an urban poetry alert to language coming from sources beyond the individual and relating that to the dream life of characters who both can and cannot awake to fuller different consciousness Drawing on Walter Benjamin Lacan and Derrida Tambling shows how Dickens writes a new and comic poetry of the city and that the language constitutes an unconscious and secret autobiography This volume takes Dickens scholarship in exciting new directions and will be of interest to all readers of nineteenth century literary and cultural studies and more widely to all readers of literature

Handbook of Japanese Christian Writers Mark Williams, Van Gessel, Yamane Michihiro, 2025-10-01 Although a century and a half of Christian proselytizing has only led to the conversion of about one percent of the Japanese population the proportion of writers who have either been baptized or significantly influenced in their work by Christian teachings is much higher The seventeen authors examined in this volume have all employed themes and imagery in their writings influenced by Christian teachings Those writing between the 1880s and the start of World War II were largely drawn to the Protestant emphasis on individual freedom though many of them eventually rejected sectarian affiliation Since 1945 on the other hand Catholicism has produced a number of religiously committed authors led by figures such as Endo Shusaku the most popular and influential Christian writer in Japan to date The authors discussed in these essays have contributed in a variety of ways to the indigenization of the imported religion

Cavell on Film Stanley Cavell, 2025-03-01 A collection of the philosopher Stanley Cavell s most important writings on cinema Stanley Cavell was the first philosopher in the Anglo American tradition to make film a central concern of his work and this volume offer a substantially complete retrospective of his writings on cinema which continues to offer inspiration and new directions to the field of film and media studies The essays and other writings collected here include major theoretical statements and extended critical studies of individual films and filmmakers as well as occasional pieces all of which illustrate Cavell s practice of film philosophy as it developed in the decades following the publication of his landmark work The World Viewed This revised edition includes six additional essays five of them previously unpublished that illuminate his inspiring vision of a humanistic study rooted in a marriage of film and philosophy In his introduction and in the preface to this new edition William Rothman provides an overview of Cavell's work on film and his aims as a philosopher more generally
