Jackson, Stanley C. Pelkey, 2005 This book begins with a simple question Why haven't historians and musicologists been talking to one another Historians frequently look to all aspects of human activity including music in order to better understand the past Musicologists inquire into the social cultural and historical contexts of musical works and musical practices to develop theories about the meanings of compositions and the significance of musical creation Both disciplines examine how people represent their experiences This collection of original essays the first of its kind argues that the conversation between scholars in the two fields can become richer and more mutually informing The volume features an eloquent personal essay by historian Lawrence W Levine whose work has inspired a whole generation of scholars working on African American music in American history The first six essays address widely different aspects of musical culture and history ranging from women and popular song during the French Revolution to nineteenth century music publishing in Philadelphia Pennsylvania Two additional essays by scholars outside of musicology and history represent a new kind of disciplinary bridging by using the methods of cultural studies to look at cross dressing in nineteenth and early twentieth century opera and blues responses to lynching in the New South The last four essays offer models for collaborative multidisciplinary research with a special emphasis on popular music Jeffrey H Jackson Memphis Tennessee is assistant professor of history at Rhodes College He is the author of Making Jazz French Music and Modern Life in Interwar Paris Stanley C Pelkey Portage Michigan is assistant professor of music at Western Michigan University He is a member of the College Music Society and his work has appeared in music related periodicals Crazy Rhythm Lionel Hampton,2001

Richard Rodney Bennett: The Complete Musician Paul Harris, Anthony Meredith, 2011-08-01. Sir Richard Rodney Bennett, in the enormous diversity of his activities, is arguably the most complete musician of all time. Not only does he have a remarkable 300 commissioned concert works to his credit, which have established him among the leading British twentieth-century composers, yet at the same time, with supreme success, he has also contrived to lead several completely different musical lives. For some, he is the ultimate exponent of crossover, as epitomised in his remarkable Concerto for Stan Getz and concert works for Cleo Laine. Others remember him as a concert pianist with a special enthusiasm for pioneering contemporary music, his partnerships with Susan Bradshaw, Jane Manning, and Barry Tuckwell being particularly notable. Meanwhile, he also has over 70 film and television scores to his credit, the many classic titles ranging from Murder on the Orient Express and Far From the Madding Crowd to Equus and Four Weddings and a Funeral. For cabaret and jazz club devotees, he is again something completely different, one of the finest and most knowledgeable of all exponents of the Great American Songbook, a much-in-demand singer and accompanist over the past thirty-five years, and as such, the stage partner of some of the most glamorous performers in the business. This then is a book about a uniquely gifted musician. It is also a study of a most engaging personality and a fascinatingly complex human being, Anthony Meredith, whose two previous collaborations with co-researcher Paul Harris were the highly praised biographies of Malcolm Arnold and Malcolm Williamson. He has been a widely published writer over the past twenty-five years. He is a member of MCC, a Friend of Covent Garden, and Northern Ballet. His co-researcher Paul Harris is a leading music educationalist, well known for his seminars, workshops, and masterclasses, with over 500 books to his name.

The Music Tree: Activities Book, Part 3 Frances Clark, Louise Goss, Sam Holland, Craig Sale, 2001-02-15. To be used in conjunction with Music Tree 3. Music Tree Activities 3 provides reinforcement and creative application of rhythm and theory concepts in imaginative written drills, games, and puzzles, sight playing, accompanying, and transposing.
