Creating an Inclusive College Curriculum New Jersey Project, 1996 This volume gathers together 40 syllabi and teaching resources for both two year and four year colleges and universities Creating an Inclusive College Curriculum New Jersey Project, 1996 Resources in Education, 1998 Managing Multiculturalism and Diversity in the Library Mark Winston, 2014-06-23 Discover ways to raise staff awareness regarding diversity Managing Multiculturalism and Diversity In the Library Principals and Issues for Administrators is an academic guide to diversity issues such as affirmative action career development of minorities in the library science profession racism and scholarship solutions to increase the diversity of people in the library and information science profession From this manual you will gain a deeper understanding of diversity and its implementation in your library Scholarly and poignant this book is recommended to academics administrators library professionals and students who want to improve the diversity of libraries and the profession of library information science In Managing Multiculturalism and Diversity In the Library you will explore the continued need to keep diversity growing in our libraries as a learning tool to boost the creativity and broaden the knowledge base of libraries as a whole This informative guide provides you with studies on the diversification efforts of Australia Canada China and the United Kingdom showing you how each nation differently defines diversity yet values diversity with an agenda that accepts and encourages cultural differences You will find suggestions on how to bring in the talents of traditionally excluded groups into your library and examine affirmative action and its dismantling from different angles Managing Multiculturalism and Diversity In the Library illustrates the importance of cultural diversity in contrast to a melting pot that does not allow for distinct flavors Some pertinent areas of diversity that you will read about are raising staff awareness of diversity through training seminars a diversity program focused closely on your library's missions and strategic plans integrating diversity into every aspect of the library activities looking to colleges and universities as the leaders of cross cultural understanding American Library Association and the diversity agenda Managing Multiculturalism and Diversity In the Library is an enlightening and helpful resource to foster multicultural understanding and to plan a diversity agenda that is right for your library organization From this book you will find many interesting and informative methods on creating a culturally pluralistic library When Women Ask the Questions Marilyn Jacoby Boxer, 2001-09-28 In When Women Ask the Questions Marilyn Boxer traces the successes and failures of women's studies examines the field's enduring impact on the world of higher education and concludes that the rise of women's studies has challenged the university in the same way that feminism has challenged society at large Drawing on her experiences as a historian feminist academic administrator and former chair of a women's studies program Boxer observes that by working for justice and for changes necessary to make the attainment of justice a practical possibility women's studies ensures that women are heard in the processes and places where knowledge is created taught and preserved The intellectual transformation behind the emergence of women's studies Boxer concludes is one of historic proportions Like other great moments in human experience it has given rise to a flowering of art literature and science and to the challenging of previously accepted authorities of text and tradition

Artistic Mentoring as a Decolonizing Methodology Kryssi Staikidis, 2020-07-20 To expand the possibilities of doing arts thinking from a non Eurocentric view Artistic Mentoring as a Decolonizing Methodology An Evolving Collaborative Painting Ethnography with Maya Artists Pedro Rafael Gonz lez Chavajay and Paula Nicho C mez is grounded in Indigenous perspectives on arts practice arts research and art education Mentored in painting for eighteen years by two Guatemalan Maya artists Kryssi Staikidis a North American painter and art education professor uses both Indigenous and decolonizing methodologies which involve respectful collaboration and continuously reexamines her positions as student artist and ethnographer searching to redefine and transform the roles of the artist as mentor historian activist ethnographer and teacher The primary purpose of the book is to illuminate the Maya artists as mentors the collaborative and holistic processes underlying their painting and the teaching and insights from their studios These include Imagined Realism a process excluding rendering from observation and the fusion of pedagogy and curriculum into a holistic paradigm of decentralized teaching negotiated curriculum personal and cultural narrative as thematic content and the surrounding visual culture and community as text The Maya artist as cultural historian creates paintings as platforms of protest and vehicles of cultural transmission for example genocide witnessed in paintings as historical evidence The mentored artist as ethnographer cedes the traditional ethnographic authority of the colonizing stance to the Indigenous expert as partner and mentor and under this mentorship analyzes its possibilities as decolonizing arts based qualitative inquiry For the teacher Maya world views broaden and integrate arts practice and arts research inaugurating possibilities to transform arts education

Speculative Epistemologies John Rieder, 2021-09-15 Speculative Epistemologies is about truth effects in sf which stands for both science fiction and speculative fiction It examines six narratives one from each decade from the 1960s to the 2010s that challenge dominant assumptions about the normal the possible and the real It asks what the patterns of overlap and interference generated by texts located in border territories that make their identification as sf problematic and sometimes controversial can reveal about the dynamics of sf s multiple subcultures e g professionals academics and fans the complexity of the genre s communities of practice and their routes of production distribution and reception and the genre s shifting position within a broadly conceived field of literary and cultural production The speculative epistemologies in these stories are counter hegemonic ways of knowing ways of imagining knowing differently and the focus of this study is their effect on the formation of identities and communities Combining the methods of genre theory reception theory and the sociology of cultural production the readings of these six narratives trace a history of sf s increasingly feminist racially and ethnically diverse philosophically ambitious and politically engaged character from the 1960s to the present
