That Which They Can't See David Van Brugge, 2025-01-20 In this retrieval study David Van Brugge addresses how the current understanding of a homiletical use of imagination for expository preaching might be strengthened The current need for strengthening becomes apparent when the various understandings of imagination and their implications for practical theology are realized This is compounded as trends in homiletics seem to minimize the imagination or embrace it in modern or postmodern ways The original contribution of this study is recognizing that the homiletical use of imagination can be strengthened by retrieving the Puritan baroque characteristics of Jonathan Edwards imagination as evidenced in his sermons to the Stockbridge Indians of 1751-1758 Edwards drew on a rich background to display an imagination that synthesized thoughts and ideas thought beyond the senses and that by the grace of God transformed thought and practice Through that creative thought Edwards maintained Biblical exposition and appeal to the affections Van Brugge further develops and evaluates the idea of Puritan baroque characteristics concluding that it is a helpful characterization of Edwards Stockbridge Indian sermons In these sermons Edwards imaginatively used imagery light space movement and glorification for the ultimate goal of directing the affections of his audience towards God Such a use of imagination for affective purpose becomes a key for the strengthening of a homiletical use of imagination today

The Power of Truth in Perilous Times Marcus E. Drake, 2024-09-25 Real Hope in the Midst of a Culture Gone Awry Yes we live in this kind of culture and world However it is clear in the Bible that the more we pursue the knowledge of God as defined and described in Scripture and the more we are devoted to him the more he will work in us and through us during the perilous times in which we live Therefore in thinking about the extraordinary impact biblical truth can have on our society this book focuses on three vitally important areas in the Bible how God reveals his existence through nature and his Word how he discloses his character through his attributes and promises and how he calls his people to seek the knowledge of himself through the fear of the Lord and the bearing of his image Thus the purpose of this book is to lead believers into a deeper understanding of what God is like a deeper understanding of what he has promised to those who know him and a deeper understanding of the unshakable hope and strong encouragement we have in God's Word as we live in a confused and deteriorating culture Rather than simply decrying the devastating changes in our nation and world this book clearly proclaims the hope that is ours in the very nature and character of God himself the identity and security believers have in Christ and the biblical guidance we need in order to be salt and light in our generation A God centered truth loving Christ exalting approach to life changes everything
