Creating Community Life And Learning At Montgomerys Black University:

Creating Community Karl E. Westhauser, Elaine M. Smith, Jennifer A. Fremlin, 2005-09-18 Together the essays present viewpoints that reflect the diverse ethnic cultural and academic backgrounds of the contributors and of the university Creating Community is informed by the awareness that Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCUs have responded in significant ways to social changes of the past generation and it addresses questions about the role of the black university in contemporary society In this way it offers readers the opportunity to understand how issues of diversity identity multiculturalism and race impact Alabama State University in particular and HBCUs in general Jacket The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Clarence L. Mohr, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2011-05-16 Offering a broad up to date reference to the long history and cultural legacy of education in the American South this timely volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture surveys educational developments practices institutions and politics from the colonial era to the present With over 130 articles this book covers key topics in education including academic freedom the effects of urbanization on segregation desegregation and resegregation African American and women s education and illiteracy These entries as well as articles on prominent educators such as Booker T Washington and C Vann Woodward and major southern universities colleges and trade schools provide an essential context for understanding the debates and battles that remain deeply imbedded in southern education Framed by Clarence Mohr s historically rich introductory overview the essays in this volume comprise a greatly expanded and thoroughly updated survey of the shifting southern education landscape and its development over the span of four centuries New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture, V. 17 Clarence L. Mohr, Charles Wilson, 2011 The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Becoming King Troy Jackson, 2008-11-14 In Becoming King Martin Luther King Jr and the Making of a National Leader Troy Jackson chronicles King s emergence and effectiveness as a civil rights leader by examining his relationship with the people of Montgomery Alabama Using the sharp lens of Montgomery s struggle for racial equality to investigate King s burgeoning leadership Drawing on countless interviews and archival sources and comparing King s sermons and religious writings before during and after the Montgomery bus boycott Jackson demonstrates how King s voice and message evolved to reflect the shared struggles challenges experiences and hopes of the people with whom he worked Book Jacket American Educational History J. Wesley Null, 2010-06-01 The American Educational History Journal is a peer reviewed national research journal devoted to the examination of educational topics using perspectives from a variety of disciplines The editors of AEHJ encourage communication between scholars from numerous disciplines nationalities institutions and backgrounds Authors come from a variety of disciplines including political science curriculum history philosophy teacher education and educational leadership Acceptance for publication in AEHJ requires that each author present a well articulated argument that deals substantively with questions of educational history America, History and Life , 2007 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States
