Resources in Education, 1998 Decentralisation, School-Based Management, and Quality Joseph Zajda, David T. Gamage, 2009-08-21 This book which is the eighth volume in the 12 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research presents scholarly research on major discourses in decentralisation school based management SBM and quality in education globally This book which focuses on decentralisation and SBM as a governance strategy in education presents theoretical aspects of the phenomenon of decentralisation privatisation and contextualises them within the education research literature It provides an easily accessible practical yet scholarly source of information concerning the dynamics of decentralisation and SBM that normally take place when reforms are instituted to decentralize authority and power Above all the authors offering the latest findings regarding major discourses in decentralisation SBM and quality in educational systems in the global culture emphasise aspects of that dynamic interactive process see also Geo JaJa 2006a Gamage and Sooksomchitra 2006 Zajda 2009 This dynamic interaction in the process that is implicit in the title of the book is reified by calls for restructuring of schools following the idea that schools are not promoting human rights social cohesion and sustainable development The chapters as a source book of ideas for researchers practitioners and policy makers in decentralisation and SBM in education contribute to the educational literature while enhancing the understanding of the larger dynamics involved in educational reform It offers a timely overview of current issues affecting decentralisation in education in the global culture

Creating Equity and Quality Terrence Wendel, Society for the Advancement of Excellence in Education, 2000 This monograph is the first in a series of reports related to the Successful Secondary Schools Study in three Canadian provinces a study that will contribute to high student achievement outcomes for students of low socioeconomic status This document provides a synopsis of the literature and research dealing with successful and effective schools school improvement and the effects of socioeconomic status on overall student learning The particular focus is on practices in high achieving schools with low socioeconomic status Chapter 1 introduces the Successful Secondary Schools Study and chapter 2 considers the literature on socioeconomic status and student achievement Chapter 3 provides a historical view of school effectiveness and chapter 4 considers linking school effectiveness and school improvement The review of research shows that schools can make a difference and can help students overcome the harmful effects of socioeconomic status School improvement is revealed as neither simple nor easy but research shows that committed teachers focusing on student learning make the difference Contains 4 figures and 57 references SLD

Are Schools Really Like This? J. Gary Lilyquist, 2013-11-21 J Gary Lilyquist synthesizes such innovative concepts as systems thinking mental models effective school research and Deming's theories of management to propose the new Balance Alignment Model a wide ranging approach for fostering school improvement Three case studies demonstrate why schools are not improving and how Lilyquist's model can facilitate student learning School Leadership for the 21st Century Brent Davies, Linda Ellison, 1997 Focuses on the changing context of education the changing nature of self managing schools their own leadership and management skills within this environment Restructuring and Quality: Issues for Tomorrow's Schools Tony Townsend, 2002-11-01 The restructuring of schools systems across the world has been controversial Have reforms been driven by a desire to cut educational budgets or the need to improve the quality of educational provision This book explores the restructuring movement with a particular emphasis on how decentralisation of power has affected the quality of education It provides a broad and international picture of educational reform The Effective School Leader: Leading by Principle Dr. Richard A. NeSmith, 2020-07-09 Schools are built and operated from a particular angle or philosophy For example Thomas Jefferson American forefather and past President of the United States believed that education was needed to rake the good individuals from the bad ones John Dewey a pragmatic wanted to cultivate students with social and acceptable attitudes so as to make them good citizens Horace Mann the Father of American Education advocated public education so that all could be educated without concern for cost or availability He believed real democracy would demand an educated citizen However such good and noble philosophical reasons have all but gone by the wayside in our current modern era of educating America's children Though some educators and citizens can produce some modified version of why children need to be educated much has been lost In 1950 W Edwards Deming was invited by General Douglas McArthur to help Japan recover from World War 2 As an American engineer Deming focused on how to utilize research and data to restructure a weak nation He longed for Japan to become a prosperous industrial nation His philosophy emphasis on data and developed principles were well received and Japan did become one of the world's industrial leaders and even today that legacy remains In this book the author addresses the Deming principles with applications being made to education and the American Public School system Leaders who become principle driven are more consistent fairer and produce schools that are better equipped to teach and train effective teachers and successful students The purpose of this study is to help prod school leaders principals assistant principals department heads and lead teachers to look beyond the status quo of leading by whims or worse by the seat of the pants Principle driven people are more predictable more democratic and more likely to be successful in bringing about changes needed to help public education train the minds and hearts of American children Dr Richard A NeSmith Roles for Education Paraprofessionals in Effective Schools ,1997 Effective Schools in Developing Countries (RLE Edu A) Henry Levin, Marlaine Lockheed, 2012-05-31 This volume brings together eight case studies which describe a variety of initiatives to create more effective schools for children of poverty especially in the Third World The initiatives reviewed published and unpublished documents and both qualitative and statistical studies were examined Countries include Brazil Burundi Colombia Ghana Nepal Sri Lanka Thailand and the United States Each initiative was developed independently to address unique challenges and situations but taken as a group the features of the approaches described in this volume can be viewed as a basis for considering the development of effective schools strategies in other contexts Innovation, Governance and Entrepreneurship: How Do They Evolve in Middle Income Countries? Sefer Sener, Stefan Schepers, 2017-08-05 This book analyses the effects of technological development innovation entrepreneurship and governance in middle income countries such as Turkey in detail How to best practise innovation and entrepreneurship which many researchers and policy makers believe to be the main drivers of economic growth and development has become a fiercely debated topic The contributors to this volume consider economic social and institutional dimensions of innovative thinking entrepreneurial activity and governance and investigate both theoretically and empirically how these factors should contribute to the uptake of new technology and the global performance of middle income countries By offering country specific examples and by comparing high income and middle income countries this edited collection presents a comprehensive analysis of innovation entrepreneurial growth and development outside the vacuum of high income economies which has traditionally received substantially more scholarly attention Total Quality Management G. Kanji, 1995-03-31 In this book leading experts including George Box Noriaki Kano Yoshio Kondo John Oakland and James Harrington analyse and document various aspects of Total Quality Management Contributions range from discussions of the principles strategy culture leadership education and benchmarking to world class experience and achieving excellence both in the manufacturing and service industries With over 100 contributions this book is an invaluable resource for the total quality management journey It will be of special interest to educationalists academics senior managers and directors and quality practitioners from both the public and private sectors Managing Professional Development in Schools Sonia Blandford, 2012-11-12 The importance of professional development for teachers cannot be overstated In recent years there has been much debate on how to raise standards in schools and it is now recognised by theorists policy makers and practitioners that the professional development of teachers is an important factor in this context For professional development co ordinators and senior management knowledge and understanding of the nature of professional development roles and human resource management theories will provide a framework for practice This book includes chapters on managing professional development in a human resources context government policy initial teacher training the school development plan appraisal middle management leadership skills It will be of interest to co ordinators of professional development in schools and across local education authorities and to anyone who is part of a school s senior management team School Effectiveness And School-Based Management Yin Cheong Cheng, 2013-01-11 The aim of this book is to bridge the widening gap between ongoing educational reforms and the lack of advances in knowledge research and practice Included is a description of new mechanisms in fields such as leadership staff development and curriculum change Using Power Standards to Build an Aligned Curriculum Joe Crawford, 2011-01-11 Award winning educator Joe Crawford describes how to use Power Standards to build an effective standards based curriculum and integrate them into instruction to achieve student success
