relationship between theatre and youth from a global perspective taking in performances and theatre made by for and about young people These different but interrelated forms of theatre are addressed through four critical themes that underpin the ways in which analysis of contemporary theatre in relation to young people can be framed political utterances exploring the varied ways theatre becomes a platform for political utterance as a process of dialogic thinking and critical imagining critical positioning examining youth theatre work that navigates the sensitive dynamic and complex terrains in which young people live and perform pedagogic frames outlining a range of contexts and programmes in which young people learn to make and understand theatre that reflects their artistic capacities and aesthetic strategies applying performance discussing a range of projects and companies whose work has been influential in the development of youth theatre within specific contexts Providing critical research informed and research based discussions on the intersection between young people their representation and their participation in theatre this is a landmark text for students scholars and practitioners whose work and thinking involves theatre and young people Theatre Symposium, Vol. 23 David S. Thompson, 2015-10-15 The essays in volume 23 of Theatre Symposium offer a rich exploration of depictions of youth in works of theatre as well as the role youth play in the creation and performance of drama A Contemporary Study of Musical Arts Vol. 1 Meki Nzewi,2007-12 Volume 1 The Root Foundation Modern literacy education in African music has hitherto focused more on observed context studies The philosophical rooting and the psychological and therapeutic force that ground African indigenous musical arts have not been much discerned or integrated Much needed in contemporary education then are integrative studies and literature materials that represent the intellectual base of the knowledge owners and creators and which will ensure cognitive understanding of the indigenous musical arts systems of Africa There is as yet no comprehensive learner centred book that fosters African indigenous knowledge perspectives and rationalisation about the musical arts The concern over the years has been for the production of research informed books for modern systematic education in African musical arts that derive in essence from the original African intellectual perspectives about the sense and meaning of music indigenous to contemporary The five volumes of the musical arts study series derive from 36 years of research and analytical studies in African musical arts The volumes address the pressing need for learning texts informed by the indigenous African musical arts systems that target tertiary education The texts incorporate knowledge of conventional European classical music as they relate to the unique features of African musical arts thinking and theoretical content The contemporary African musical arts specialist needs secure grounding in his her own human cultural knowledge authority in order to contribute with original intellectual integrity to African as well as global scholarship discourse and knowledge creation Children, Youth, and Participatory Arts for Peacebuilding Ananda Breed, Helena-Ulrike Marambio, Kirrily Pells, Rajib Timalsina, 2024-06-14 This book demonstrates how participatory arts based approaches can help children and youth contribute to peacebuilding within post conflict contexts and to their communities Cultural forms of storytelling through visual arts drama music and dance can help to enhance post conflict community well being social cohesion and conflict prevention However in the planning and implementation of these arts based projects children and youth are often marginalised in decision making processes Drawing on cases from Kyrgyzstan Rwanda Indonesia and Nepal this book demonstrates the benefits of participatory action research with children and youth to inform education curricula and policies for sustaining peace Showing how artforms can be adapted to meet the needs of children and youth the book emphasises the need to scale up arts based peacebuilding initiatives and leverage for greater policy enactment from the bottom up It is also an excellent example of South South learning advocating for a local approach to engage with arts based methodologies and peacebuilding This book will be of interest to researchers across the applied arts sociology anthropology political science peacebuilding and international development Practitioners and policymakers would also benefit from the book s recommendations for the implementation of successful arts based research projects and interventions American Reference Books Annual ,2001 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and The Psychology of Creative Performance and Expertise Kathryn Friedlander, 2024-08-22 This much needed engineering book introduces readers to the related fields of expertise creativity and performance exploring our understanding of the factors contributing to greatness in creative domains Bringing together research from the fields of creativity and expertise it provides fresh insights for newcomers and seasoned scholars alike with its approachable guide to the multidimensional complexities of expertise development It transcends traditionally studied fields such as chess sports and music instead exploring the intersection of expertise with creativity and the performing arts Dedicated applied chapters cover eight fields including mind games music dance creative writing acting art and STEM The book also examines the facilitators of creative performance including aesthetic sensitivity creativity and mental imagery as well as the obstacles to performance such as burnout procrastination and gender related challenges The book concludes by engaging with pressing issues facing expertise including the impact of AI Student friendly pedagogy is featured throughout including Spotlight on Check it out and Consider this boxes to position material within context and engage students learning Whether revealing how an actor brings their part to life how writers conjure up their storylines and vibrant characters or what lies behind scientific invention The Psychology of Creative Performance and Expertise offers a fascinating insight into the multifaceted journey towards achieving creative excellence This is a valuable resource for final year undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars across a range of disciplines including expertise or skill acquisition the psychology of performance and creativity Youth and Popular Culture in Africa Paul Ugor, 2021 The edited collection focuses on the links between young people and African popular culture It explores popular culture produced and consumed by young people in contemporary Africa And by culture we mean all kinds of texts or representations visual oral written performative fictional social and virtual created by African youth mostly about their lives and their immediate societies and for themselves but also consumed by the larger public and shared locally and globally We proceed from the premise that cultural texts not only function as social facts as Karin Barber argues but that they double as commentaries upon and interpretations of social facts. They are part of social reality but they also take up an attitude to social reality 2007 04. So the work focuses specifically on what African youth produce as popular culture under what conditions or contexts they produce such work how they produce those texts why they produce them the aesthetic dimensions of these texts as cultural artifacts and why these textual practices matter as social facts as interpretive acts and as cultural symbols of the general cultural activism of young people in a rapidly changing world a world where the global cultural economy is the prime terrain for the relentless struggles over the meanings that come to shape political economic and social systems The Creative College Graham Jeffery,2005 Drawing on case studies this book explores how teachers artists and arts organisations can collaborate to create a culture of artistic aspiration and success for students It analyses and explains what is needed to make such partnerships a success and explores the challenges and issues faced
