Algeria The Challenge Of Modernity:

Algeria, the Challenge of Modernity Ali El Kenz, 1991-01-01 Islamic Law and the Challenges of Modernity Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Barbara Freyer Stowasser, 2004-03 Since Europeans first colonized Arab lands in the 19th century they have been pressing to have the area's indigenous laws and legal systems accord with Western models. Although most Arab states now have national codes of law that reflect Western influence, fierce internal struggles continue over how to interpret Islamic law, particularly in the areas of gender and family. From different geographical and ideological points across the contemporary Arab world, Haddad and Stowasser demonstrate the range of views on just what Islam's legal heritage in the region should be. For either law or religion classes, Islamic Law and the Challenges of Modernity provides the broad historical overview and particular cases needed to understand this contentious issue.

Algeria in Transition Ahmed Aghrout, Redha. M. Bougherira, 2004-08-02 This collection addresses major issues such as political reforms and stability, external relations, and social conditions to integration into the world economy.

Eastern Europe and the Challenges of Modernity, 1800-2000 Stefano Bianchini, 2015-03-02 This book presents a concise and comprehensive overview of the mainstream flows of ideas, politics, and itineraries towards modernity in Central and Eastern Europe and the Balkans over two centuries, from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the end of the Gorbachev administration. Unlike other books on the subject which view modernity based on the idea of Western European supremacy, this book outlines the various different pathways of development and of growing industrialisation, urbanisation, and secularisation which took place across the region. It provides rich insights on the complex networks whereby very varied ideas, aspirations, and policies interacted to bring about a varied pattern of progress and of integration and isolation, with different areas moving in different ways and at different paces. Overall, the book presents something very different from the traditional picture of the two Europes. Particular examples covered include agrarian reform movements in various phases, different models of socialism, and different models of socialist reform.

Islam, the West and the Challenges of Modernity Tariq Ramadan, 2009-09-01 Tariq Ramadan attempts to demonstrate, using sources which draw upon Islamic thought and civilization, that Muslims can respond to contemporary challenges of modernity without betraying their identity. The book argues that Muslims, nourished by their own points of reference, can approach the modern epoch by adopting a specific social, political, and economic model that is linked to ethical values, a sense of finalities, and spirituality. Rather than a modernism that tends to impose Westernization, it is a modernity that admits to the pluralism of civilizations, religions, and cultures. Amazigh movement in North Africa and the Berber diaspora Bruce Maddy Weitzman begins by tracing North African history from the perspective of its indigenous Berber inhabitants and their interactions with more powerful societies from Hellenic and Roman times through a millennium of Islam to the era of Western colonialism He then concentrates on the marginalization and eventual reemergence of the Berber question in independent Algeria and Morocco against a background of the growing crisis of regime legitimacy in each country His investigation illuminates many issues including the fashioning of official national narratives and policies aimed at subordinating Berbers in an Arab nationalist and Islamic centered universe the emergence of a counter movement promoting an expansive Berber imagining that emphasizes the rights of minority groups and indigenous peoples and the international aspects of modern Berberism The Algerian New Novel
