“Abuse of the term ‘Parental Alienation’ and of similar concepts and terms invoked to deny child custody to the mother and grant it to a father accused of domestic violence in a manner that totally disregards the possible risks for the child must be discouraged. Accusations of parental alienation by abusive fathers against mothers must be considered as a continuation of power and control by state agencies and actors, including those deciding on child custody.”

Parental Alienation Jean Mercer, 2025-02-25 This book introduces readers to the concept of parental alienation PA a belief system that is used with increasing frequency in judicial child custody and parenting plan decisions PA is essentially a legal concept without validated psychological definition assuming that children who resist contact with one divorced parent have in many cases been brainwashed or persuaded to do so by the machinations of the preferred parent PA proponents assert that courts should transfer child custody to the avoided parent and prohibit contact between the child and the preferred parent Unfortunately the outcomes of such decisions as reported by parents and their now adult children suggest that application of the PA concept is neither safe nor effective as a response to children s resistance to contact with a parent Providing an overview of the concept of parental alienation methods of identifying PA cases and court ordered treatments for children and parents the book uses seven case study chapters each introduced with a brief recapitulation of the issues and closed with a summary of events to offer suggestions about desirable family court changes This is the first book to tell a range of stories about the experiences of fathers mothers and children who have been separated and subjected to PA interventions after allegations have been made It will be of interest to professionals practicing in psychology psychiatry social work counselling law and the judiciary and anyone involved in research and in legislative efforts relevant to family courts
