When Shall Their Glory Fade? James Dunning,2011-04-11 Written by a Commando veteran of World War II this is a remarkable vivid and honest account of the battles and actions behind the award of the thirty eight Battle Honours that were awarded to the Army Commandos by Her Majesty the Queen in 1958 These Battle Honours are emblazoned on the Commando Flag that hangs in Westminster Abbey in London almost opposite the tomb of the Unknown Warrior The story of each honour is presented in the most direct way using the stories and experiences of the commandos officers and men who actually took part in the fighting It should be emphasised that the operations mentioned as battle honours recognised only those deemed to be thoroughly outstanding feats of arms and represent only a fraction of the raids and battles fought by the Commandos in their five years of active service The formation of the Commandos was due to Winston Churchill who proposed their formation in a directive dated 18 June 1940 which advocated limited offensive action against the enemy s extended and vulnerable coastline This compilation includes photographs of training and combat in Norway Dieppe Normandy Flushing and many more locations
