American Film Satire in the 1990s J. Nilsson, 2013-06-25 This study examines how a particular selection of films turned American cultural material of the 1990s into satirical experiences for viewers and finds that there are elements of resistance to norms and conventions in politics to mainstream news channels and Hollywood and to official American history already embedded in the culture

Laurel & Hardy Harry Lime, 2019-02-28 Laurel and Hardy were a comedy duo who performed during the early Classical Hollywood era of American cinema comprising Englishman Stan Laurel June 16th 1890 February 23rd 1965 with American Oliver Hardy January 18th 1892 August 7th 1957 They became famous for their slapstick comedy during the late 1920s to the mid 1940s with Laurel playing the clumsy and childlike friend of the pompous bully Hardy. The duo's signature tune known as The Cuckoo Song Ku Ku or The Dance of the Cuckoos was played over the opening credits of their movies having become as emblematic of the duo as their bowler hats.

Arbuckle and Keaton James L. Neibaur, 2015-02-18 From 1917 to 1919 Joseph Schenck produced a series of Comique comedies starring master movie comedian Roscoe Fatty Arbuckle and featuring an apprentice Joseph Frank Buster Keaton. These films were initially deemed significant by modern archivists for representing the first movie appearances of Keaton, widely considered one of the most important figures in motion picture history. But the Comique films also remain the most important of Arbuckle's career because they feature him at the height of his cinematic genius and powers. The 14 short comedies starring Arbuckle and Keaton are incredibly important to the history of cinema and are analyzed in this book. After two chapters of biographical introductions, the rest of the book discusses their collaborative efforts and reveals the way in which the films evolved from Arbuckle's wild slapstick to feature more of the subtlety and cleverness of Keaton. Closing sections discuss what became of Arbuckle and Keaton afterward, commenting significantly on the scandal that undermined Arbuckle's career.

Screen Couple Chemistry Martha P. Nochimson, 2010-07-05 Astaire and Rogers, Tracy and Hepburn. Just the mention of their names evokes the powerful chemistry between these screen couples which utterly transcended the often formulaic films in which they appeared together. Indeed, watching the synergistic flow of energy between charismatic screen partners is one of the great pleasures of cinema and television as well as an important vehicle for thinking through issues of intimacy and gender relations. In this book Martha P. Nochimson engages in a groundbreaking study of screen couple chemistry. She begins by classifying various types of couples to define what sets the synergistic couple apart from other onscreen pairings. Then she moves into extended discussions of four enduring screen couples: Maureen O'Sullivan, Johnny Weissmuller, Myrna Loy, William Powell, Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, and Katharine Hepburn, Spencer Tracy. Using theories of neuroscience, she demonstrates that their onscreen chemistry is a very real phenomenon powerful enough to subvert conventional formulations of male-female relations. Material she has uncovered in the infamous Production Code Administration files illuminates the historical context of her contentions. Finally, Nochimson traces the screen couple to its present-day incarnation in such pairs as Woody Allen, Diane Keaton, Scully, Mulder of The X-Files, and Cliff, Claire Huxtable of The Cosby Show.

The Speed Handbook Enda Duffy, 2009-07-20 An argument that the sensation of speed made available to many through the mass-produced automobile was the quintessential way that people experienced modernity.

Jerry Lewis Chris Fujiwara, 2010-10-01 Well known for his slapstick comedic style, Jerry Lewis has also delighted worldwide movie audiences with a directing career spanning five decades. One of American cinema's great innovators, Lewis made unmistakably personal films that often focused on an ideal masculine image and an anarchic manic acting out of the inability to assume this image. Films such as The Bellboy, The Errand Boy, Three on a Couch, and The Big Mouth present a series of thematic variations on this tension in which such questions as how to be a man how to be popular and how to maintain relationships are posed within frameworks that set up a liberating and exhilarating confusion of roles and norms The Nutty Professor and The Patsy are especially profound and painful examinations of the difficulty experienced by Lewis's character in reconciling loving himself and being loved by others With sharp concise observations Chris Fujiwara examines this visionary director of self referential comedic masterpieces The book also includes an enlightening interview with Lewis that offers unique commentary on the creation and study of comedy

Frank Capra Joseph McBride, 2011-06-02 Moviegoers
