Creating Sanctuary Toward The Evolution Of Sane Societies:

Creating Sanctuary Sandra L Bloom, 2013-03-07 Creating Sanctuary makes some broadly challenging statements about human nature and social organization Dr Sandra Bloom interweaves the individual and the social the personal and the political with the story of how she and a group of friends and colleagues created a traditional psychiatric milieu based on social psychiatry principles Bloom and her colleagues have come to believe that unresolved multi generational often forgotten trauma leads to a compulsion to repeat that is a powerful force in individual and social history Because of this unresolved legacy of trauma all of our social systems are trauma organized producing institutions which are unresponsive to and often directly counter to human needs Creating Sanctuary presents the thesis that effective social reconstruction is only effective if we understand the biological psychological social and moral legacy of trauma

Creating Sanctuary Sandra L Bloom, 2013-04-12 Creating Sanctuary is a description of a hospital based program to treat adults who had been abused as children and the revolutionary knowledge about trauma and adversity that the program was based upon This book focuses on the biological psychological and social aspects of trauma Fifteen years later Dr Sandra Bloom has updated this classic work to include the groundbreaking Adverse Childhood Experiences Study that came out in 1998 information about Epigenetics and new material about what we know about the brain and violence This book is for courses in counseling social work and clinical psychology on mental health trauma and trauma theory

School-Based Family Counseling for Crisis and Disaster Brian A. Gerrard, Emily J. Hernandez, Sibnath Deb, 2023-04-05 School Based Family Counseling for Crisis and Disaster is a practical handbook with a school based family counseling and interdisciplinary mental health practitioner focus that can be used to mitigate crises and disasters that affect school children Anchored in the school based family counseling SBFC tradition of integrating family and school mental health interventions this book introduces interventions according to the five core SBFC metamodel areas school intervention school prevention family intervention family prevention and community intervention The book has an explicit how to approach and covers prevention strategies that build student school and family resilience for handling stress and interventions that can be provided during and immediately after a disaster or crisis has occurred The chapter authors of this edited volume are all experienced professors and or practitioners in counseling psychology social work marriage and family therapy teaching and educational administration All mental health professionals especially school based professionals will find this book an indispensable resource for crisis planning and developing a trauma sensitive school

Trauma-Informed Principles in Group Therapy, Psychodrama, and Organizations Scott Giacomucci, 2023-04-25 This book presents trauma informed principles for ethical safe and effective group work psychodrama and leadership Content will include practical guidelines detailed instructions and diverse examples for facilitating both trauma informed and trauma focused groups in treatment community and organizational leadership Chapters focus on various topics including safety empowerment social justice vicarious trauma and leadership Organizational leadership is approached through the lens of SAMHSA's guidance and the framework of group work leadership. The book includes significant focus on sociometry and psychodrama as strengths-based and experiential group approaches. Psychodrama's philosophies, theories, and interventions will be articulated through a trauma-informed lens, offering psychodramatists, group workers, and organizational leaders new conceptual frameworks and action-based processes. Chapters contain a blend of theory, research, practical guidance, and examples from the author's experience. This book will appeal to group workers, therapists, psychodramatists, creative arts therapists, organizational leaders, trainers, facilitators, supervisors, community organizers, and graduate students. This book offers group facilitators the insight and tools to lead engaging and meaningful groups. The potential for retraumatizing participants is addressed while promoting trauma-informed practice as an ethical imperative.

Social Work in Health Settings Judith L.M. McCoyd, Toba Schwaber Kerson, 2016-03-17

Social Work in Health Settings: Practice in Context maintains its use of the Practice in Context (PiC) decision-making framework to explore a wide range of social work services in health care settings. The PiC framework is used to cover a broad range of social work practice sites, settings, and populations over 30 case chapters. Fully updated to reflect the landscape of health care provision in the US since the Affordable Care Act was passed, the cases are grounded by primer chapters to illustrate the necessary decisional and foundational skills for best practices in social work in health settings. The cases cover working with both individuals and groups of clients across the life course, and the PiC framework helps maintain focus on each of the practice decisions a social worker must make when working with a variety of clients, from military veterans to HIV-positive children. The ideal textbook for social work in health care and clinical social work classes, this thought-provoking volume thoroughly integrates social work theory and practice and provides an excellent opportunity for understanding particular techniques and interventions.

Trauma and Human Rights Lisa D. Butler, Filomena M. Critelli, Janice Carello, 2019-07-17

Human rights violations and traumatic events often come together in victims' experiences; however, the human rights framework and trauma theory are rarely deployed together to illuminate such experiences. This edited volume explores the intersection of trauma and human rights by presenting the development and current status of each of these frameworks, examining traumatic experiences and human rights violations across a range of populations, and describing efforts to remediate them. Individual chapters address these topics among Native Americans, African Americans, children, women, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender individuals, those with mental disabilities, refugees and asylees, and older adults, and also in the context of social policy and truth and reconciliation commissions. The authors demonstrate that the trauma and human rights frameworks each contribute invaluable and complementary insights and that their integration can help us fully appreciate and address human suffering at both individual and collective levels.
