Creation Accounts In The Ancient Near East And In The Bible:

Creation Accounts in the Ancient Near East and in the Bible Richard J. Clifford SJ, 2023-12-07 Creation Accounts in the Ancient Near East and in the Bible Richard J. Clifford, 1994 The book examines the concept of creation in the ancient Near East noting four differences from modern concepts process result manner of reporting and criterion of truth It next surveys in detail ancient Near Eastern corpora Sumerian Akkadian Egyptian and Canaanite mostly Ugaritic giving the relevant ancient text in English translation The second part of the book Creation Accounts in the Bible looks at texts in Genesis 1 11 the Psalms Isaiah 40 55 and the Wisdom literature A conclusion summarizes the results and makes suggestions about interpreting the Bible Ancient Near Eastern Thought and the Old Testament John H. Walton, 2006-11-01 Much of the Old Testament seems strange to contemporary readers However as we begin to understand how ancient people viewed the world the Old Testament becomes more clearly a book that stands within its ancient context as it also speaks against it John Walton provides here a thoughtful introduction to the conceptual world of the ancient Near East Walton surveys the literature of the ancient Near East and introduces the reader to a variety of beliefs about God religion and the world In helpful sidebars he provides examples of how such studies can bring insight to the interpretation of specific Old Testament passages Students and pastors who want to deepen their understanding of the Old Testament will find this a helpful and instructive study Introduction to the Hebrew Bible John J. Collins, 2025-05-06 John J Collins s Introduction to the Hebrew Bible is one of the most reliable and widely adopted critical textbooks at undergraduate and graduate levels alike and for good reason Enriched by decades of classroom teaching it is aimed explicitly at motivated students regardless of their previous exposure to the Bible or faith commitments The approach is ecumenical in the sense that it seeks not to impose any particular theological perspective but to provide information and raise questions that should be relevant to any student Collins proceeds through the canon of the Old Testament and the Apocrypha judiciously presenting the current state of historical archaeological and literary understanding of the biblical text and engaging the student in questions of significance and interpretation for the contemporary world The fourth edition is supplemented in areas that go beyond historical criticism and answer questions crucial for students today John J Collins discusses the issues that arise when studying the Hebrew Bible that aren t always addressed in introductory textbooks The issues discussed include gender patriarchy social justice violence race and ethnicity environment salvation and death the messiah and colonialism In addition to the new essays John J Collins has updated bibliographies to include the most recent scholarship that students and professors need to know Theological Themes of the Old Testament Marty E. Stevens, 2010-07-19 The Old Testament is an ancient collection of theological reflections on life with God that the church has claimed as authoritative Scripture Whereas most introductory books march from Genesis to Malachi this book engages four prominent themes across the breadth of the Old Testament canon creation covenant cultus and character By taking this approach Stevens articulates key issues that impact the reading of the entire Old Testament This engaging volume is intended for laypeople who want to know more about the Old Testament whether in personal study church groups college classrooms or seminary courses Old Testament Today John H. Walton, Andrew E. Hill, 2004 This full color textbook shows college students how the Old Testament uniquely reveals the God of the universe Reader's Guide to Judaism Michael Terry, 2013-12-02 The Reader's Guide to Judaism is a survey of English language translations of the most important primary texts in the Jewish tradition The field is assessed in some 470 essays discussing individuals Martin Buber Gluckel of Hameln literature Genesis Ladino Literature thought and beliefs Holiness Bioethics practice Dietary Laws Passover history Venice Baghdadi Jews of India and arts and material culture Synagogue Architecture Costume The emphasis is on Judaism rather than on Jewish studies more broadly Sibyls, Scriptures, and Scrolls Joel Baden, Hindy Najman, Eibert J.C. Tigchelaar, 2016-10-11 This volume a tribute to John J Collins by his friends colleagues and students includes essays on the wide range of interests that have occupied John Collins's distinguished career Topics range from the ancient Near East and the Hebrew Bible to the Dead Sea Scrolls and Second Temple Judaism and beyond into early Christianity and rabbinic Judaism The contributions deal with issues of text and interpretation history and historiography philology and archaeology and more The breadth of the volume is matched only by the breadth of John Collins's own work New Approaches to Human Dignity in the Context of Qur'ānic Anthropology Rüdiger Braun, Hüseyin I. Cicek, 2017-05-11 In recent years the challenge of relating one's own theological concept of man and his destiny to secular topics such as the inviolability of human dignity has generated a dynamic discourse about how Islamic anthropology can help cultivate and perfect the individual self and social humanisation This anthology brings together contemporary Muslim and non Muslim approaches to the secular notion of human dignity with reference to the Islamic tradition in general and the anthropology of the Qur'an in particular The collection presents approaches to Islamic theological anthropology across a range of fields especially with regard to the narrative of Adam and Iblis which occurs in all monotheistic traditions It focuses on the specific grammars of anthropological narratives at the levels of the canonical text of the Qur'an itself Section I and the interpretations that focus on its performative discourse Section II Further to this the normative implications of the human images that are derived from the canonical text and its interpretations are discussed in Section III The dynamic interdependencies between the hermeneutics of the Qur'an theological anthropology and legal philosophy particularly in the European context are a promising field of research that not only allows a deeper insight into the multiperspectivity and indexicality of theological anthropology but also has the potential to facilitate the long overdue discursive cooperation and rapprochement between Muslim and non Muslim scholarship In the Beginning Bernard F. Batto, 2013-05-01 Bernard F Batto spent the bulk of his career examining the ancient Near Eastern context of the Hebrew Bible with particular interest in the influence of the surrounding cultures on the biblical creation stories This collection gathers six of his most important previously published essays and adds two new contributions Among the essays Batto identifies various creation motifs prevalent in the ancient Near East and investigates the reflexes of these motifs in Genesis 11 and other biblical accounts of the primeval period He demonstrates how the biblical writers adapted and responded to the creation ideas of Mesopotamia Egypt Ugarit and elsewhere The articles in the volume were written as independent essays Nevertheless they are united by theme Throughout Batto makes clear his understanding of the Hebrew Bible as a patently unique text yet one that cannot possibly be understood independent of greater cultural sphere in which it developed In the Beginning will serve as an indispensable resource for those interested in both the biblical ideas of creation and the mythology of the ancient Near East that influenced them The Search for Ultimate Reality Dan Liroy, 2005 In analyzing the intertextuality between the Genesis and Johannine Prologues Dr Liroy maintains that both passages utilize polemical theology to refute distorted views of ultimate reality Furthermore he theorizes that the author of the Johannine Prologue deliberately reflected the structure and themes found in the Genesis Prologue to emphasize that the God man Jesus Christ created all things and is a new spiritual beginning for all who believe in Him Ultimate reality is found through faith in the Son

Old Testament Cosmology and Divine Accommodation John W. Hilber, 2020-04-03 In order to reconcile the discrepancies between ancient and modern cosmology confessional scholars from every viewpoint on the interpretation of the early chapters of Genesis agree that God accommodated language to finite human understanding But in the history of interpretation no consensus has emerged regarding what accommodation entails at the linguistic level More precise consideration of how the ancient cognitive environment functions in the informative intention of the divine and human authors is necessary Not only does relevance theory validate interpretative options that are inherently most probable within the primary communication situation but the application of relevance theory can also help disentangle the complexities of dual authorship inherent in any model of accommodation The results also make a salutary contribution to the theological reading of Scripture

Egypt as a Monster in the Book of Ezekiel Safwat Marzouk, 2015-06-05 Appealing to Monster Theory and the ancient Near Eastern motif of Chaotkampf Safwat Marzouk argues that the paradoxical character of the category of the monster is what prompts the portrayal of Egypt as a monster in the book of Ezekiel While on the surface the monster seems to embody utter difference underlying its otherness there is a disturbing sameness Though the monster may be defeated and its body dismembered it is never completely annihilated Egypt is portrayed as a monster in the book of Ezekiel because Egypt represents the threat of religious assimilation Although initially the monstrosity of Egypt is constructed because of the shared elements of identity between Egypt and Israel the prophet flips this imagery of monster in order to embody Egypt as a monstrous Other In a combat myth YHWH defeats the monster and dismembers its body Despite its near annihilation Egypt in Ezekiel's rhetoric is not entirely obliterated Rather it is kept at bay hovering at the periphery questioning Israel's identity

Genesis 1 and the Creationism Debate Steven DiMattei, 2016-04-08 Modern readers often assume that Genesis 1 depicts the creation of the earth and sky as we know it Yet in an appeal for textual honesty Steven DiMattei shows that such beliefs are more representative of modern views about this ancient text than the actual claims and beliefs of its author Through a culturally contextualized and objective reading of the texts of Genesis 1 and 2 this study not only introduces readers to the textual data that convincingly demonstrate that Genesis two creation accounts were penned by different authors who held contradictory views and beliefs about the origin of the world and of man and woman but also establishes on textual grounds that what the author of Genesis 1 portrayed God creating was the world as its author and culture perceived and experienced it not the objective world but a subjective world subject to the culturally conditioned views and beliefs of its author In the end this book clearly illustrates that the Bible s ancient texts do in fact represent the beliefs and worldviews of ancient peoples and cultures not those of God not those of later readers and especially not those of modern day Creationists Narrating the Beginnings Alberto Bernabé Pajares,Raquel Martín Hernández,2021-04-02 The present book is a compilation of studies on narratives of mythical origins in different cultures written by outstanding specialists It aims to provide a broad view on creation myths from different times and areas of the world with a particular focus on how these texts contributed to the conception of the past as universal history as a common origin of mankind or as the great opening the theatrum mundi On the other hand the purpose of this book is to study the phenomenon from a typological point of view analyzing the specific characteristics of this particular type of texts rather than finding influences between the different cultures in the genesis of these narratives
