Planning Sarah Turnbull, Larry Kelley, Donald Jugenheimer, 2023-09-20 This practical and comprehensive text effectively provides advertising account planning principles within an integrated marketing communications framework. With a world renowned textbook author team, this 4th edition has been fully updated to include fresh professional examples and mini case studies within each chapter with a more global outlook than previous editions, bringing the theoretical concepts to life. A new chapter on International Advertising addresses the challenges of managing a global campaign. Pedagogical features and visual aids support student learning and comprehension, including reflective questions and mini cases drawn from current industry examples. New and expanded content covers digital marketing and technologies, the customer journey, ethics, and corporate social responsibility, global positioning of the brand, paid, earned, and owned media, influencer marketing, and campaign measurement and analytics. Providing a full understanding of the advertising account planning process, this textbook is perfect for both the industry and classroom. The textbook will equip students of Marketing Communications, Advertising Management, and Brand Management with the knowledge and skills they need to plan and manage a strategic communications campaign, including prominent advertising student competitions such as American Advertising Federation (AAF) National Student Advertising Competition (NSAC) or the Collegiate Effies. Online resources include PowerPoint slides and a test bank.
