Crusade and Christendom Jessalynn Bird,Edward Peters,James M. Powell,2013-03-26 In 1213 Pope Innocent III issued his letter Vineam Domini thundering against the enemies of Christendom the beasts of many kinds that are attempting to destroy the vineyard of the Lord of Sabaoth and announcing a General Council of the Latin Church as redress The Fourth Lateran Council which convened in 1215 was unprecedented in its scope and impact and it called for the Fifth Crusade as what its participants hoped would be the final defense of Christendom For the first time a collection of extensively annotated and translated documents illustrates the transformation of the crusade movement Crusade and Christendom explores the way in which the crusade was used to define and extend the intellectual religious and political boundaries of Latin Christendom It also illustrates how the very concept of the crusade was shaped by the urge to define and reform communities of practice and belief within Latin Christendom and by Latin Christendom's relationship with other communities including dissenting political powers and heretical groups the Moors in Spain the Mongols and eastern Christians The relationship of the crusade to reform and missionary movements is also explored as is its impact on individual lives and devotion The selection of documents and bibliography incorporates and brings to life recent developments in crusade scholarship concerning military logistics and travel in the medieval period popular and elite participation the role of women liturgy and preaching and the impact of the crusade on western society and its relationship with other cultures and religions Intended for the undergraduate yet also invaluable for teachers and scholars this book illustrates how the crusades became crucial for defining and promoting the very concept and boundaries of Latin Christendom It provides translations of and commentaries on key original sources and up to date bibliographic materials Documents on British Foreign Policy, 1919-1939 Great Britain. Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, Preliminary Inventory of the Records of the American Commission to Negotiate Peace United States. National Archives and Records Service,1955 The Historical Writings of Joseph of Rosheim Chava Fraenkel-Goldschmidt,2006-09-30 Joseph of Rosheim sixteenth century leader of the Jews in the Holy Roman Empire left historical writings that are presented here in a critical edition published now for the first time in English translation The principal part of the book is devoted to a Hebrew manuscript a chronicle left by R Joseph in which he describes incidents from the history of his life and that of the Jews in his day and age R Joseph writes with extreme terseness often in cryptic language and therefore his chronicle appears here with prefaces background information and a commentary The prefaces provide important information about the blood libels and the expulsions the debate concerning Solomon Molcho s messianic ideas and the influence R Joseph exerted at the court of Emperor Charles V Particularly valuable for the study of Christian Jewish relations in the Reformation period are two other documents printed here The Letter of Consolation is a long epistle that R Joseph wrote to the Jews of Hesse in 1541 advising them on how to cope with the harsh decrees enacted against them and discussing the attitudes of some leading Reformers towards the Jews Also included in the book is his Letter to Strasbourg City Council of July 1543 which contains his response to Martin Luther s anti Jewish tracts This book can be considered a sequel to the critical edition in Hebrew of R Joseph s large work Sefer ha Miknah which Chava Fraenkel Goldschmidt published in 1970 The Afterword discusses some of the most recent research into Joseph of Rosheim s activities and writings
