Alternative Tradition A Study Of Unbelief In The Ancient World:

The Alternative Tradition James Thrower, 1980 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Atheist Identities - Spaces and Social Contexts Lori G. Beaman, Steven Tomlins, 2014-12-04 The essays in this book not only examine the variety of atheist expression and experience in the Western context they also explore how local national and international settings may contribute to the shaping of atheist identities By addressing identity at these different levels the book explores how individuals construct their own atheist or non religious identity how they construct community and how identity factors into atheist interaction at the social or institutional levels The book offers an interdisciplinary comparative approach to the analysis of issues relating to atheism such as demography community engagement gender politics stigmatism and legal action It covers such themes as secularization the social context of atheism in various Western countries the shifting of atheist identities based on different cultural and national contexts the role of atheism in multicultural settings how the framework of reasonable accommodation applies to atheism interactions and relationships between atheism and religion and how atheism is represented for political and legal purposes Featuring contributions by international scholars at the cutting edge of atheism studies this volume offers unique insights into the relationship between atheism and identity It will serve as a useful resource for academics journalists policy makers and general readers interested in secular and religious studies identity construction and identity politics as well as atheism in general The Fourfold Gospel, Volume 4 John DelHousaye, 2025-07-14 In the medieval participationist tradition of reading Scripture the four senses Quadriga or PaRDeS The Fourfold Gospel invites the reader into the mystery of union with Christ Meditating on the literal canonical moral and theological senses of the Gospels allows space for the Spirit's leading and growth This fourth and final volume focuses on the unitive stage of the journey eschatology passion and resurrection Faith No More Phil Zuckerman, 2015 Faith No More seeks to understand how and why people lose their faith sever their ties with religious organizations and experience a secularizing transformation in their own personal lives Based on in depth interviews with 75 individuals from a variety of backgrounds and religious traditions this book offers a rich and colorful exploration of the human journey from religiosity to secularity Orthodoxy, Heterodoxy, and Dissent in India Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, Reuven Kahane, David Dean Shulman, 1984 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Dictionary of Ethics, Theology and Society Paul A. B. Clarke, Andrew Linzey, 2013-11-05 This Dictionary provides a unique and groundbreaking survey of both the historical and contemporary interrelations between ethics theology and society In over 250 separately authored entries a selection of the world's leading scholars from many disciplines and many denominations present their own views on a wide range of topics Arranged alphabetically entries cover all aspects of philosophy theology ethics economics politics and government Each entry includes a concise definition of the term a description of the principal ideas behind it analysis of its history development and contemporary relevance a detailed bibliography giving the major sources in the field The entire field is prefaced by an editorial introduction outlining its scope and diversity Selected entries include Animal Rights Capital Punishment Communism Domestic Violence Ethics Evil Government Homophobia Humanism Liberation Theology Politics Pornography Racism Sexism Society Vivisection Women's Ordination The Nonreligious Phil Zuckerman, Luke W. Galen, Frank L.

Pasquale, 2016-02-01 The number of nonreligious people has increased dramatically over the past several decades yet scholarship on the nonreligious is severely lacking In response to this critical gap in knowledge The Nonreligious provides a comprehensive summation and analysis of existing social scientific research on secular people and societies The authors present a thorough overview of existing knowledge while also drawing upon ongoing research and suggesting ways to improve our understanding of this growing population Offering a research and data based examination of the nonreligious this book will be an invaluable source of information and a foundation for further scholarship Written in clear accessible language that will appeal to students and the increasingly interested general reader The Nonreligious provides an unbiased and thorough account of relevant existing scholarship within the social sciences that bears on lived experiences of the nonreligious

Discourses of Philology and Theology in Nietzsche Paul Bishop, 2023-10-31 This study proposes to examine the tension in Nietzsche's works between two competing discourses i.e the discourse of theology and the discourse of philology It argues that in order to understand Nietzsche's complicated standpoint and the aim of his Kulturkritik we have to appreciate how he operates with two different discourses one indexed to belief faith liturgy i.e the discourse of theology and another indexed to analytical reason sceptical investigation and logical argumentation as well as historical context and linguistic precision i.e the discourse of philology Its core thesis is that in the end Nietzsche can no longer believe because he thinks he has uncovered a fraudulent production of meaning in the texts in a way that is comparable with his insight into the production of morality in On the Genealogy of Morals 1887 I Am Put Here for the Defense of the Gospel Terry L.

Miethe,2016-04-19 Dr Norman L Geisler has been called the father of evangelical Christian philosophy He has written more than one hundred books and taught at universities and top seminaries for some fifty six years He was the first president of the Evangelical Philosophical Society and the founder and first president of the International Society of Christian Apologetics He has spoken or debated in more than two dozen countries and held pastoral pulpit ministries in four states Many view him as a cross between Thomas Aquinas and Billy Graham No one has done more to communicate the modern challenges of the Faith to the average Christian to the church and to the academy This volume offers creative and constructive essays from twenty three contributors all notable in their own right who preserve and propagate Dr Geisler s ideas and express appreciation for his influence Those who know him best say he is true faithful and blessed by God Making of the World

Mahbub H. Khan,2023-11-22 Humanity was once scattered into small sized nomadic groups that barely knew each other Each lived inside its bubble of myths and beliefs The notion of one single community related by a common origin and similar aspirations the world began to evolve along with the founding of early civilizations It was an auspicious development that has changed not only the way we live but also how we think We are the only species probing the mysteries of nature and life Curiously the story of how wandering Homo sapiens who had lived off nature for hundreds of thousands of years created civilization is less well known compared to the awareness about biological evolution If you have wondered what led to the establishment of advanced societies in ancient Egypt Mesopotamia China Central America and the Andean Highlands this book is for you Making of the World Sapiens Journey from Wilderness to Civilization leads the reader through an absorbing narrative that canvasses the broad sweeps of human history The book brings readers up to date on trusted research findings in archaeology anthropology and evolutionary psychology In so doing it dispels the fog of ideologically biased interpretations of history Students planning to pursue higher education in humanities will find in the book a suitable introduction to a wide range of topics including the origin of cities and governments poetry and philosophy The Arts of Eastern Philosophy

Bishnu Pathak, Ph.D.,Susmita Bastola, Ph.D.,2023-05-01 Eastern philosophy EP has often been neglected in mainstream academic discourse Philosophy is the way of looking at understanding interpreting and fundamentally bringing together love and wisdom lovism This study contributes to a wider understanding of international relations and philosophies in a world where the balance of power is shifting and emerging as superpower countries India and China are increasingly growing in importance The objectives of this state of the art book are four fold 1 to understand the fundamentals of the ancient EP 2 to interpret basic concepts thoughts and teachings of classical international relation related theories or peace spiritual insights of various wisdom within Chinese Indian Islamic and Christian Missionaries 3 to assist the Master s level students to participate actively in discussions and interpretations and to create insights and critical thinking methods accordingly and 4 to share the outcomes of philosophy with like minded actors institutions globally And Man Created God Robert Banks

PhD,2011-04-06 Is God a human invention With And Man Created God Robert Banks embarks on a passionate discussion that explores the origins of God How did God come to exist if he was responsible for making everything in the first place This is an example of a question that religious believers may find difficult to answer The question was first asked by Ancient Greek philosophers and has continued to be asked by both believers and atheists Robert Banks wants to find an answer He will guide you through the history of the objection and consider insights from ancient Greek philosophers as well as more modern day objections from Freud Marx and other great analytical minds And Man Created God is a fascinating book that comprehensively explores all possibilities and opinions about the origins of God Robert Banks has produced a fascinating book that can be considered particularly useful for somebody who holds an interest in religion or new atheism Ultimately the book explores the issue of whether God could be the product of man rather than the other way around Islamic
