memorials and museum exhibits in both countries he comes to some startling conclusions Americans may seem more patriotic even jingoistic but they are also more willing to debate the pros and cons of their military actions Canadians though more diffident in their public displays of patriotism are more willing than their southern neighbors to accept the official narrative that depicts just wars fought in the service of a righteous cause A provocative book that complements critiques of contemporary Canadian militarism such as Warrior Nation Living with War offers an intriguing look at the relationship with the military past on both sides of the border American Experimental Poetry and Democratic Thought Alan Marshall, 2009 Alan Marshall takes Alexis de Tocqueville's discussion of Some Sources of Poetic Inspiration in Democracies in the second volume of his Democracy in America as the starting point for a wide ranging examination of the nature of democratic thought and expression in American experimental poetry from Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson in the mid nineteenth century to George Oppen Frank O'Hara and Robert Creeley a century later The book begins by considering the political significance of what Marshall describes as the invisible physiognomy of Whitman's poetry which is followed by a re-evaluation of the flawed republican humanism of Ezra Pound in the light of the thought of Hannah Arendt Other chapters deal with Mina Loy Lorine Niedecker Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Muriel Rukeyser The book argues against the narrowly ideological interpretation of politics that dominates contemporary literary studies To that extent it recalls Tocqueville's concern to underline the differences between his own methods and perspectives and the historical determinism of his contemporaries Marshall brings together an exceptional variety of theoretical writing including works by Theodor Adorno Seyla Benhabib Stanley Cavell Sigmund Freud Martin Heidegger Immanuel Kant James Madison Karl Marx David Riesman and Donald Winnicott as he seeks to expand and develop Tocqueville's circumspect humanist critical trajectory The chapters are conceived as a series of innovative dialogical constellations to which the close reading of poetry is central The aim throughout is to measure the thought of the poets or their poems against the thoughts of those who are more often called thinkers
