Taylor, 2018-01-09 A powerful consideration of the lessons imparted in the final works of essential writers and philosophers For many today retirement and the leisure said to accompany it have become vestiges of a slower long lost time In a world where the sense of identity is tied to work and careers to stop working often is to become nobody In this deeply perceptive and personal exploration of last works Mark C Taylor poignantly explores the final reflections of writers and thinkers from Kierkegaard to David Foster Wallace How did they either face or avoid ending and leaving What do their lessons in ending teach us about living in the time that remains for us Some leavings brought relief even joy while others brought pain and suffering Whether the cause was infirmity impending death or simply exhaustion and ennui the ways these influential voices fell silent offer poignant examples of people withdrawing from the world s stage Throughout this learned and moving book Taylor probes how the art of living involves learning to leave gracefully Five Plays: A Dance of the Forests, The Lion and the Jewel, The Swamp Dwellers, The Trials of Brother Jero [and] The Strong Breed Wole Soyinka, 1964 A Dance of the Forests Wole Soyinka, 1971 The Collection Jennifer S Hartley, 2014-08-08 The four plays in this collection are unique in many ways All founded on true experiences the plays show the complexities of human behaviour and the choices people make They remind us that our decision and actions can rarely if ever be classified in simple terms of black and white These creative works challenge us to look inside and question ourselves no matter how difficult the answers may be And behind every word is the realisation that not only do these things happen they specifically did occur to the many brave individuals who gave up their stories as a means of educating entertaining exploring and challenging Described by audiences as life changing brave shocking self reflective raw unlike any other theatre experience challenging and I didnt know theatre could do this Hartley puts all her cards on the table with her writing and is not afraid to tackle the topics others avoid yet she does so with an honesty even brutality that never loses its sensitivity or humour albeit black humour Her compassion and respect for those she writes about is clear in ever page of her work The Illustrative Lesson Notes John Heyl Vincent,Jesse Lyman Hurlbut,John Thomas McFarland,1895 Coyote Ugly Lynn Siefert,1986 THE STORY The scene is a rundown shack in the Arizona desert the home of Pewsey family After an absence of a dozen years son Dowd Pewsey returns with his new wife Penny whom his family has never met His arrival exacerbates the tensions and ob
