Loving You Steve Bergsman,2023-10-30 In All I Want Is Loving You Popular Female Singers of the 1950s author Steve Bergsman focuses on the white female artists of the 1950s a time that predated the chart topping girl groups of the early 1960s These popular performers many of whom graduated out of the big bands of the 1940s impacted popular music in a huge way As the last bastion of traditional pop and the last sirens of swing they undeniably shined in the spotlight Yet these singers fame dimmed relatively quickly with the advent of rock n roll A fortunate few like Doris Day Patti Page Peggy Lee and Debbie Reynolds experienced some of their biggest hits in the late 1950s and Eydie Gorm broke out in the 1960s The luckiest including Dinah Shore and Rosemary Clooney ventured to television with varying degrees of success Others would become major attractions at nightclubs in Las Vegas or like Teresa Brewer shift into the jazz world Though the moment did not last these performers were best selling singers darlings of the disk jockeys and the frenetic heartbeat of fan clubs during their heyday In a companion volume Bergsman has written the history of African American women singers of the same era These Black musicians transitioned more easily as a new form of music rock n roll skyrocketed in popularity In both books Bergsman reintroduces readers to these talented singers offering a thorough look at their work and turning up the volume on their legacy Top Popular Music of the Early 20th Century: 1900 - 1949 -- Rankings, Artists & Links Wayne

Makes Steve Bergsman,2023-10-30 In What a Difference a Day Makes Women Who Conquered 1950s Music Steve Bergsman highlights the Black female artists of the 1950s a time that predated the chart topping girl groups of the early 1960s Many of the singers of this era became wildly famous and respected and even made it into the Rock n Roll Hall of Fame However there were many others such as Margie Day Helen Humes Nellie Lutcher Jewel King and Savannah Churchill who made one or two great records in the 1950s and then disappeared from the scene The era featured former jazz and blues singers who first came to prominence in the 1940s and others who pioneered early forms of rock n roll In a companion volume Bergsman has written the history of white women singers of the same era Although song styles were parallel the careers of Black and white female singers of the period ran in very different directions as the decade progressed The songs of African American vocalists like Dinah Washington and Etta James were segregated to the R B charts or covered by pop singers in the early and mid 1950s but burst into prominence in the last part of the decade and well into the 1960s White singers on the other hand excelled in the early 1950s but saw their careers decline with the advent of rock music In this volume Bergsman takes an encyclopedic look at both the renowned and the sadly faded stars of the 1950s placing them and their music back in the spotlight CMJ New Music Report ,2003-12-22 CMJ New Music Report is the primary source for exclusive charts of non commercial and college radio airplay and independent and trend forward retail sales CMJ s trade publication compiles
