understood as a response to regional politics especially to the Iranian Model a marriage of corporatism and Islamic revolution The Turkish model was a failure in its home country and the dynamics of the Arab world made it a tough commodity to export Tugal s masterful explication of the demise of Islamic liberalism brings in Egypt and Tunisia once seen as the most likely followers of the Turkish model and provides a path breaking examination of their regimes and Islamist movements as well as paradigm shifting accounts of Turkey and Iran Islamists and the Arab Revolutions Khaled Hroub, Abdullah Baabood, 2025-11-10 This monograph offers the most comprehensive and regionally grounded analysis to date of how Islamist movements across the Middle East responded to and were transformed by the 2010 2011 Arab uprisings Far from a monolithic force Islamist actors across Egypt Tunisia Yemen Morocco Libya Jordan Syria Sudan and the Gulf reacted in divergent and contradictory ways to the revolutionary wave This volume brings together scholars from within the region who not only document the evolving role of Islamist parties in their respective contexts but also critically examine how their ideologies internal structures and political strategies were challenged revised or in some cases further radicalized Drawing on case studies of both participation and repression electoral victories and authoritarian backlash the chapters offer a panoramic view of Islamists navigating revolution governance exile and counter revolution From the Muslim Brotherhood s dramatic rise and fall in Egypt to Ennahda s contested governance in Tunisia and the fragmented Islamist scene in post Qaddafi Libya this book reveals how the Arab uprisings served as a turning point exposing both the potential and the limits of political Islam Essential reading for scholars and students of Middle East politics Islamist movements revolutionary studies and democratization this book provides crucial insights into the turbulent interplay between ideology power and social transformation in the contemporary Arab world
