

A Short Story

"Happiness"

www.shortmoralstories.com

An old man lived in a village. he was one of the most unfortunate people in the world

The whole village was tired of him. He was always gloomy, constantly complained, and was always in a bad mood. The longer he lived, the more bile he produced and the more poisonous his words became.

People avoided him because his misfortune had become contagious.

It was considered unnatural and insulting to be happy next to him. He created the feeling of unhappiness in others.

But one day, when he turned 18 years old, an incredible thing happened. Instantly, everyone started hearing the rumor: "The old man is happy today." He doesn't complain about anything. He smiles and even his face is fresh and up. " The whole village gathered together:

The old man was asked:

Villager: what happened to you?

The old man replied: "nothing special." For 18 years, I have been chasing happiness, and it was useless. And then I decided to live without happiness and just enjoy life. That's why I am happy now.

The moral of the story Is don't chase happiness, enjoy your life.

The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach,2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story

after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end. By focusing on the short story, this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies. Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra-formal concerns, and these brief, fragmentary, elliptical, formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post-apartheid literature: the aesthetics of engaged writing, the politics of the past, class and race, the legacies of violence, and the struggle over the land. Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer, Ivan Vladislavi, Zo Wicomb, Phaswane Mpe, and Henrietta Rose Innes, this book assesses the place of the short story in post-apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought. HENRY
