Daniels, 2003-01-01 In To God Alone Be Glory the fruit of extensive study and research Harold Daniels tells the fascinating story of the history of Reformed worship in America from the 1600s to the present He describes the development and objectives of the Book of Common Worship and explores how the book itself serves as an agenda for liturgical reform within the church In a substantive second part of the book Daniels provides the sources of the prayers and other materials used in the Book of Common Worship Persons involved in planning presenting studying or teaching about Presbyterian worship will benefit greatly from having a copy of this comprehensive resource in their personal library

Here I Am, Lord, Send Me Neal D. Presa, 2012-10-03 Church leadership and authority have been perennial theological issues facing Protestant churches of the Reformed tradition since the sixteenth century What is ordination and what occurs when the Church ordains women and men to offices are questions that Reformed churches have attempted to answer for over five hundred years In Here I Am Lord Send Me Neal Presa combs the rich confessional constitutional and theological tradition of the Reformed churches He critiques previous methods that have tried to answer questions of the meaning of ordination and then proposes a new methodology that focuses on the ritual and stories of ordination the shape and content of an assembly's worship This work provides pathways for deeper and helpful engagement with present church debates and ecumenical discussions on ordination and ecclesiastical authority

Reverberating Word Michael Denham, 2018-06-12 Like sounds of beautiful music worship can renew us for God's glory and our good by the invigorating power of God's reverberating Word It is God's story that redeems all our stories We want to tell it again and again as best we can clearly conveying its message meaning richness claim and call Through its every facet and component worship that is biblically expositional can heighten how we proclaim God's story faithfully and creatively pointing to the One who alone offers us true identity security and destiny. If you seek me you will find me; if you search with all your heart declares the Lord. With the ancient prophets and apostles we must repeat and repeat and repeat the most wonderful truth that God wants to be found. In Christian worship such tremendous and tender encounter is available to us as nowhere else.

Caring through the Funeral Gene Fowler, 2020-01-24 Caring through the Funeral is a guidebook to take pastors through the complete funeral process from the moment the call is received to the weeks following the funeral. More than just a how-to, Caring through the Funeral uniquely addresses the funeral process from the perspective of pastoral ministry of pastoral caring throughout the time of mourning from the death through post funeral grieving. Many times the funeral is the most momentous means of pastoral caring for the bereaved and often it is the only time that the church has an opportunity to care for the family and friends. Gene Fowler explores what pastors go through at each stage of the funeral process. Both descriptive and conceptual, Fowler's practical advice, solid pastoral and theological grounding and case illustrations take pastors and student pastors through many issues: the language of loss, the vocabulary ministers need for this caring ministry, bereavement and grief, pastoral care of family members, pastoral care of non-family members including groups within the church and community, the funeral as worship service including a comparison of our Protestant liturgical books and the elements that comprise a Christian funeral, practical issues of planning the service including sample services, funeral service as means of caring for the bereaved and as a rite of passage and the interrelationship between funerals, mourning and grief, how funerals often launch mourners on a spiritual journey, questions asked by the bereaved, role of resurrection in pastoral care, pastoral care after the funeral.
