Powers, 2017-08-30 Thanks to coded notes taken by the teenager John Pynchon this volume transports the reader virtually back to Sundays in the seventeenth century when the community gathered to listen to the Rev George Moxon The setting was Springfield Massachusetts founded in 1636 by John's father William Pynchon As a note taker John recorded just what he heard in this rare resource which allows the reader to listen in on the weekly sermons he documented in the 1640s This symbol by symbol transcription into a word for word text preserves the character of the minister's original remarks and reveals Moxon as an able engaging speaker who offered encouragement and challenge to the growing plantation he faithfully served through its earliest years on the edge of a wilderness Not only do the sermons in this collection provide snippets of popular theological discourse at particular moments in the 1600s they also point to issues of the day and they help us get inside the thoughts and word patterns of that era A Cordial for a Fainting
