Bombers Moon:

Bomber's Moon Negley Farson, 1941 Under a Bomber's Moon Stephen Harris, 2011-01-11 They were the best of enemies dedicated skilled and deadly In the night skies above wartime Germany an RAF navigator air bomber from New Zealand and a Luftwaffe pilot seek out their targets testing the gap between success and their own destruction as they cross each other's paths The odds are heavily against either of them making it through the war but as this sobering realisation displaces their initial exuberant sense of adventure both come to see in their youthful sacrifice the survival of all they hold dear UNDER A BOMBER'S MOON reaches across the divide of years of geography of nationality to tell their story largely in their own words describing both the breathtaking clashes in the air and the camaraderie humour patriotism and personal tragedies that became their war Stephen Harris began his journey of discovery because he wanted to know the truth of his great uncle Colwyn Jones's fate With Col's vividly written letters and diary as a starting point he set out to discover what really happened on the night Col's extraordinary luck ran out Little did he know that his quest would lead him to a meeting with a former Luftwaffe pilot who was pitted against his great uncle in the skies over Germany Otto Heinrich Fries proved to be both engaging and articulate eventually allowing Harris to tell his story in this book The result is a unique and personal account of two highly successful airmen from opposing sides Vox Lycei 1943-1944 Lisgar Collegiate Institute, The COMPLETE Koski & Falk A. G. Hayes, 2017-07-04 We chose the place for its neutrality The Brits opted for its inaccessibility and the Israelis agreed because of its impregnability Agent Joseph Falk's voice crackled in the earphones of fellow Agent Susan Koski as she swept her binoculars across the vastness of the dark green sea below to focus on the jagged black rock that comprised the home of Flangenan Lighthouse A lighthouse clinging tenaciously to the rocky outcroppings three miles west of Tiree Island for over one hundred years once crisp and white its conical structure embedded into the northernmost tip of land was now weather worn to a splotchy grey Then she spied a concrete bunker recently added to the west curve of the lighthouse then yet another built into the east face of the rock cliff In their sixth adventure Koski and Falk face what may be one of their most deadly assignments yet Operation Solar Triangle Drawing Hell J P Morthen, 2025-08-26 From the sweltering battlefields of the South Pacific to the devastated cities of Europe Alan Moore witnessed the greatest war in human history not with a rifle but with a paintbrush As an official war artist with the

The Library Girls of the East End Patricia McBride, 2023-11-27 The first instalment in a BRAND NEW series from bestselling author Patricia McBride With war looming it's a dark chapter for the Library Girls 1940 London When Cordelia accepts the post of head librarian in Silver Town Library her mother is more than a little disapproving The East End has high levels of poverty and illiteracy and her mother says it's no place for a woman of her status But Cordelia is determined to make a difference in these times of strife and along with her colleagues Jane and Mavis she begins to help the local community And maybe even a romance will blossom giving Cordelia the strength to make it through the chaos and destruction that constantly threatens their livelihood Against a background of war air raids and rationing it becomes clear the library is more than a building filled with books it is the beating heart of a community refusing to be torn apart a compelling story of friendships and the hardships of war with excellent sketches of the East End I thoroughly enjoyed it and highly recommend Rosie Clarke If you like Dee Williams books about Silvertown and Rotherhithe you'll love Patricia's Library Girls series Lizzie Lane I was hooked from page one Rich in historical detail and with characters you feel you know Highly

RAF Bomber Command: 'Strike Hard, Strike Sure' 1936-1945 Ron Mackay, 2022-03-31 Historically rich in detail with previously unpublished photographs from private archives Researched and written by an aviation and military historian renowned author Essential for military historians modellers flight sim enthusiasts War Thunder IL 2 Sturmovik Great Battles and DCS and those interested in the complexities of aircraft design and production during the Second World War They sowed the wind and now they are going to reap the whirlwind Arthur Bomber Harris The concept of an aerial campaign on a nation's industrial and military might was advocated by Britain before the start of the First World War however a stringent post war economy ensured that the creation of Bomber Command in 1936 witnessed a daunting disparity between the aim of striking at an adversary's ability to sustain itself and the means to do so From 1939 to 1942 Bomber Command was very weak in terms of human and material losses The navigational means with which to accurately guide bombers to targets was almost completely lacking while the enemy defensive network inflicted serious casualties Consequently the punishment handed out was minimal The resurgence of Bomber Command's fortunes coincided with the appointment of Sir Arthur Harris The advent of four engine designs such as the Avro Lancaster and Handley Page Halifax ensured that a greatly increased bomb tonnage could be delivered Also electronic aids such as Gee Oboe and H2S simplified the task in finding targets Therefore by 1944 1945 the RAF's bombers pulverised Hitler's Third Reich Although flak and night fighters took a heavy toll on the bombers the RAF's nocturnal offensive in conjunction with the USAAF's daylight assaults crippled Germany's ability to fight back
